

Brennock, of Cappocolliding with a horse ly from his bicycle on internal injuries.

th Battalion Northumick, and 1st Battalion Dublin, respectively, n Tuesday for course ning at the Mounted

Miss Kelly, Castlegar
anced age of 102 years.
of Mr. Alfred Kelly, Mayo Bar, and of Dr.

yesterday, rather sud-che (City Engineer's Lucerne Terrace, Cork.
ye of the Corporation

Kilrush, ill-treated her one of imbibing not before the magistrates tely she was fined 5s., 7s.

Davendish Bentick of n invited by Mr. H. S. oot ever his demesne, ter a very enjoyable ut the causes of con-our fourth page to-our other papers was lum Committee yester-advertising.

(at Iowa, U.S.A.), of who was born at Bal-ick, in 1825, and went while living at Abbey-d member of the com-and three children.

hearing at the Police

.. Munchin's College
branch of the Gaelic d to Templegantine.

D. Condon, Kilfinane, uth, and afterwards to assaulting the police.
runk and asked for a I, said they were a e public:

ction took place at lock, when the young ral Class entertained made her a suitable n of her services to teemed contributions ts.

t O'Grady, at the age sturday morning last as occasioned feelings he district. At the arkable evidence of lifested, and testified y which the members y.

rough Sessions yes-rder dismissed with-r £10 brought by the against Jeremiah ner, for amount of in connection with thern and Southern y of Tipperary, the has made quite an earedom, has (says veloped a play which ture progress in the undertaken. Mr.

playwrighting has ly Irish landscapes, mirable power and which, since its inception twenty-five years ago, has provided for 11,508 children.

Hitherto no battery has been fully equipped—as the X Battery of the R.H.A. at Aldershot is forthwith about to be—with quick-firing guns.

One hundred and three years was the age of Mrs. Ellen Duffy (member of a well-known King's County family), who died at Athlone.

The Clonmel Asylum Committee has decided on erecting three blocks for consumptive patients at £375.

A sum of £323 has been subscribed towards the proposed memorial to the Rev. M. O'Connor, P.P., Ballybunion and Ballydonoghue, to which the clergy of the diocese of Kerry have been large contributors.

Wreckage picked up on the western shore of Cork Harbour at the beginning of January has now been proved to have belonged to the Port-madoc two masted schooner Pluvier, of 210 tons, carrying five hands.

There will be a debate to-morrow (Friday) night, at 8 o'clock, at the P.Y.M.A. Literary Class—that the Policy of the Liberal Party is Detimental to the best Interests of the Empire.

The General Patrick Sarsfield Club, of Brooklyn, U.S.A., recently held their first ball at the Clinton Assembly Rooms, Atlantic Avenue, and it was remarkable for the number of Limerick men engaged in the function.

At the Limerick Guardians' meeting yesterday, a letter was read from Mr. James Gilligan resigning membership, and asking that a resident in the Abbey Ward, who knew the needs of the poor, should be co-opted.

At the Tipperary Board of Guardians' meeting on Saturday, Bartholomew O'Brien, lunatic attendant, wrote, resigning his position, owing to the nature of the duties he was required to perform. The resignation was accepted.

We regret to announce the death of Mr.
Richard J. O'Kennedy, J.P., Mount Catherine, Pallasgreen, at the comparatively early age of 51 years. Though the deceased gentleman was in failing health for some time past, his death was rather unexpected, and caused no small surprise and sorrow when the news became known yesterday morning.

During the storm of Tuesday morning the vessel "La La," from Limerick to Tarbert, with a cargo of breadstuffs, had a bad time near Hassetts Point, but rode out in safety.

In the case of the King against James Mills J.P., Co. C: Cenor O'Kelly, M.P., and John O'Dowd, M.P., who were tried at the last Sligo Assizes, and in which the jury disagreed, a "nolle prosequi" has been entered, and notice was served to this effect on Mr. T. F. Kirwan, solicitor, Ballinrobe, on Monday.

Hugh Tuohy, the oldest clerk in the Treasury Department, Washington, D.C., died at No. 11, Fourth street. Funeral services were held at St. Peter's Church. He was born in Co. Clare in 1817.

In adjourning a case against two Portadown youths under sixteen years of age, charged with stealing fowl, the Resident Magistrate said the beginning and ending of the boys' trouble was smoking cigarettes. Until an Act was passed prohibiting the sale of tobacco to persons under sixteen years of age, such offences would occur.

Mr. John E. Redmond, M.P., presided last evening over a meeting in London of the Irish Nationalist Party, attended by 46 members. It was decided to continue the practice of the Party in regard to non-pairing with other members of the House.

At the second day's proceedings of the new Parliament yesterday in the House of Commons the Royal assent to the selection of Mr. Lowther as Speaker was announced.

Henry Charles Taylor, sentenced to death at Bucks Assizes for the murder of his sweetheart Lilian Annie Baker, at Lent Rise has been not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our correspondents.

LIMERICK LOYALTY TO GERALD GRIFFIN.

"Gisippus."

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

SIR,—I have just read with interest, not unmixed with amusement, an article in the "Limerick Leader" of Monday evening last, from which I gather to my great sorrow that the absence of a prepaid advertisement in that organ made all the difference between success and failure for the performance at the Theatre Royal last Thursday.

The writer blames me personally for this lack of enterprise, but anyone with only a superficial knowledge of the technique of the theatrical profession knows that advertisements in local newspapers are entirely within the province and control of the proprietor of the Theatre.

The fact that Mr. Fogerty does not advertise in the "Leader" was unknown to me, but I take it that he has a reason for not doing so; I also think I am right in assuming that he would prefer to work his Theatre at a profit rather than a loss, therefore my common sense refuses to believe that he would court ruin and bankruptcy, rather than pursue the royal road to fortune and prosperity indicated to him by the "Leader," and obtainable at the trivial outlay of a few shillings per week for advertising space.

How the dignity of Journalism is upheld by such transparent touting or special pleading for advertisements, is a question I can safely leave in your readers' hands.

The apathy displayed may, however, have been due to an entirely different cause, for while the working and middle classes responded well, although the proprietor did not advertise in their "own particular organ," it was the stalls and dress circle class which failed so unmistakably.
But perhaps it is all accounted for by the concluding words of the following paragraph, which I read in the "Limerick Letter" of the "Evening Telegraph" of Saturday last. This is the paragraph:—

GERALD GRIFFIN MEMORIAL.

Is there any use in drawing attention to the way in which the proposed Gerald Griffin Memorial has been treated? Every few months a paragraph appears in local papers to the effect that a meeting of the Committee is to be or has been held, and there the matter remains. The net result is that absolutely no progress has been made for more than a year. Some time ago I appealed to past pupils of the Christian Brothers in Limerick to take a practical interest in the project. They would certainly be helped by "old boys" in other parts of Ireland. But nothing has been done. Gerald Griffin is forgotten in his native Limerick.

"If Gerald Griffin is forgotten in his native Limerick," then I say again "more shame for Gerald Griffin's city."

Yours faithfully,

HERBERT J. MONTAGUE,
Old Ground Hotel, Ennis, February, 14th, 1906.

GUARDIANS OR EMPLOYERS.

This was the question that came up yesterday at the Guardians meeting. When a man earning 30s. a week falls ill, has to go to hospital, and his sick pay is reduced, should the Guardians or his employers keep him while in hospital? It arose on an application of Mr. Michael O'Brien.

Comp-ment by wh-
Great
it, anpared price
Bill, mixed cat sc-
would compe-

The
ended from tshowe traffic worki-
—£31
divide
reote prior from £24,5 ence
divide
this b-mend per an-dated £5,000
accouing a
The
disens audite

At John
dians
R.N.
Bourk
Wm. (Peter
M' Mal
Daniel
Stritch
Calill,
Lane,
gerald,
(Ross
Joseph
Hanna
Thoma
Patrick
In a other l
the fol

Mr.
the wo-
port wa

Mr. I propose Kerry,
the cen-
The
way off

Mess-for the
from St.
per ton.

On th-that the contribusurchar-were co-
Monti-