

foreseen, and has only made itself the operations of the Land Act orce. A paragraph in the report sets the increase in the arrears and in mortgages has during the year run £7,000, bringing the total under nearly £140,000. Landowners on of their properties lose in most rent for the current year, having d to wipe it out or add it to the money. In either case they are the means of paying their mortgage The Representative Body is not, without hope that it will be possible a considerable proportion of these ng with the repayment of their cially where estates are in a solvent But even under the most favourable ces some loss arising from this cause oked for, and there is, therefore, additional reason why the Auxiliary ld receive all the support claimed

WARDEN "LAW."
ter appointments of churchwardens notice several very quaint points of ng the office. A churchwarden alone out of a church a brawler or disturber vice, but in doing this he must use no ry force, and he may even remove a r from one seat to another, provided, no unnecessary force is used. But, all the church may be, the church-s no power to prevent an inhabitant frisk entering his church for divine Perhaps the most peculiar of the rules y legal precedent is that, while the are the property of the church, they have no right to have the bells y particular time unless the minister consent.

AND TURN ABOUT.
ns continue to be made to the Governcumulation of responsibilities. It has led that contempt of court must be , or at least be greatly restricted. This a the dignity and authority of the to be undertaken at the instigation of who have suffered by reason of their for the law. Following that we have nd specious promises from the Prime of licensing reform for next session, to tackle the whole question of the affie, if we read the Prime Minister, It is to put to rest agitation, not for a but for generations. In thus com-boasting of the permanence and power of his contemplated legislation e Minister forgets that what he is doing nother Government may do to-morrow, ing an example which is not only open cessors to follow, but which they will fied in self-defence to follow. The inister in this session going to undo and Conservative legislation on education. sion he is going to undo and reverse ative licensing legislation. Possibly he lates his party remaining in power for so, he is deceived, even as his party The people at the late (General Election el of fortune will turn, and at no distant ll replace the Conservative party in Will it not then be the duty of a Con-Government to restore the enacthich a fickle Radical Government has d? It is a misfortune that this should t the blame rests with the Radicals. choose to reverse good Acts of Parliaey leave no choice to a future Con-a Government but to reverse in turn the als leave behind them.

OPTION.
temperance reformers are speculating bether they will have to be contented ecentral legislation, or will have the nity of welcoming a Local Option some thoroughgoing measure of that perhaps the safest thing is to follow the

AND NOTIONS.

ANOTHER IRISH INJUSTICE.

It has been ascertained that for a long period Ireand has been paying all the stamp duty imposed on patent medicines by an Act of George III., whereas this duty is expressly confined to Great Britain by the statute. It is estimated that this country contributes £25,000 a year to the British Treasury as a result of the illegal levy.

WHAT THE EDUCATION BILL MEANS.

At the present moment an extract from Dr.
Shadwell's book on Industrial efficiency should help those who do not see what the trend of the Bad Birrell Bill will be, to realise what "undenominational religious teaching" means in America. A page 390, vol. 11, he says—"The gradual dropping of religion is a feature of the utmost importance.
It is said that the religious difficulty has been 'disposed of,' and that is true. There is no religious question in the public schools, and no religion.
Dogmatic, that is, denominational, teaching was given up to appease sectarian animosities and Bible reading substituted; that has been quietly dropped by degrees and the foundations of Western civility have, in effect, disappeared from the public schools.
Pari passu attendance at Sunday schools has dropped off. It is easy to dispose of the religious difficulty by disposing of religion. In like manner the education difficulty is disposed of in the Andaman Islands."

WHAT IT WOULD LEAD TO.

Further, Dr. Shadwell gives the opinions not of himself, but of the Presidents of the leading American Universities, who point the results of a 'Godless education':—"To the corruption in public life, the growth of lawlessness, violence and juvenile crime, the increasing prevalence of divorce, the taste for foolish, false and degrading literature, for immoral and unwholesome amusements, to the want of reverence and the failure of the churches." Vol. 11, page 392. Surely the people of this country will pause before they permit the Government to take the first step on the road to "no religion."

"THE RULING PASSION STRONG IN DEATH."

There's nothing like the business instinct, but it need not necessarily follow men to the very brink of the grave. It did in the case of a St. Petersburg cooper who did an extensive business. By his will he directed that his body should be buried in one of his own casks. He constructed it himself, and Clarissa Harlowe-like, lived for over a couple of years with his coffin in his house. Just before the funeral the body was frozen, and then casked. This is being "wrapped up in one's business" with a vengeance.

LADIES SHOULD NOTE.

Of all hideous and barbarous monstrosities there is nothing worse than the whole bird's skin one sees in ladies' hats. Deformed, crippled, crumpled, broken, goggle-eyed, and dyed, they are terrible and pitiable caricatures of that which has once been so replete with such exquisite beauty and delicacy of line, symmetry, and colour. If ladies only knew how it detracts from their otherwise good looks to have such miserable deformities on the top of their heads, the efforts of those who are trying to prevent the slaughter of birds for merely decorative purposes would be considerably assisted.

A NEW VIEW OF THE JACKDAW.

The jackdaw is not the sort of bird which would get the credit of performing a kindly action, as he is generally associated with thievish ways. The action of a jackdaw in County Antrim, however, should help to place the family in a better light. A bird of this species was seen very often going to a magpie's nest, and being watched, it was found that the jackdaw was most industrious in collecting food, all of which it conveyed to the young magpies. It is a most extraordinary and unusual circumstance for one bird to feed the young of another.

POSTAGE TO FRANCE.

The change in the system of French stamps in connection with the introduction of penny inland postage came into effect on Monday last. The new two sou stamp is the least part of the change, which will involve the designing of at least two other new stamps, and the disappearance of several more. The stamps for 30 and 40 centimes will disappear, as well also as letter-cards for 15 centimes. The new stamps

The boughs that bear most fruit hang lowest.
Men wouldn't flatter, if women didn't flirt.
Some men are never home long enough to get home sick.

Many a fellow has discovered the difference between loving a girl extravagantly and loving an extravagant girl.

THE SHANNON BOATING DISASTER.

FUNERAL OF THE VICTIMS.

The spectacle that Limerick beheld yesterday when the five victims of Sunday's boating disaster were removed for interment in Mount St.
Lawrence Cemetery is, one might almost say, without a precedent in the records of the city.
There was an appearance of grave solemnity about the whole proceedings, which the public are not likely to forget for some time to come. In the vicinity of St. Michael's parochial church where the remains of four of the deceased had rested overnight, the scene for an hour prior to the transference of the coffins to the hearse, was touchingly impressive and solemn. A huge throng of people of all grades assembled in Denmark street, and along the route of the sad procession thousands lined the sidewalks. In fact so great was the crowd that it was with the utmost difficulty that one moved along William street. At half past three o'clock the bodies of Thomas Browne, Edward Browne, John Lynch, and Patrick Creamer were taken out from the church, and in this order the cortege moved on to Patrick Street, where it was joined by that of Francis Connery from St. Munchin's Church.
As the cortege, which was of immense proportion—composed of all classes of the citizens from the Mayor downwards, wended its way to the cemetery the blinds off the different houses en route were drawn, and those who witnessed the solemn pageant from the sidewalk reverently uncovered their heads. At the cemetery the burial service was read by the Dean the Very Rev. F.
R. Stangan, P.P., V.G., St. Munchin's Church, and in the plot allotted to themselves the five deceased were laid to rest amidst every manifestation of sorrow and regret.

Some choice floral tributes were sent by sorrowing relatives and friends.
In addition to the Dean, the clergy present were: Rev. J. M. Cregan, Adm.; Rev. J.
O'Shea, C.C.; Rev. P. Casey, C.C.; Rev. J.
O'Connor, C.C.; Rev. Fr. Carroll, C.C.; Rev. F.
Devane, C.C.; and Rev. J. Lee, C.C.

VOTE OF CONDOLENCE.

At the meeting of the Corporation Committee last night, the Mayor presiding, it was proposed by Councillor Kerr and seconded unanimously—"That this Whole House Committee of the Corporation, being the first meeting of that body since the awful calamity in the Shannon on Sunday last by which five young citizens lost their lives owing to a boating accident, do, on behalf of the citizens, to express our heart-felt and deepest sympathy with the relatives of the deceased, and that this expression of sincerest condolence be conveyed to the distressed families and recorded on the minutes."

THE SHANNON FATALITY

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR—Everyone sympathises with the poor people who have lost their breadwinners, as you of feelingly said in your issue on Tuesday.
I am sure the appeal made for them will not be in vain, if it is for them, but I regret to see it announced that some of the money to be raised for it is to be used to put up a memorial stone. No one will grumble that the Appeal Committee saw to the funeral expenses, but a costly stone is a different matter. Is it wise to use the funds in this way? and won't it stop the hand of charity if persisted in? Many would give, I am sure, to help those to live who have lost their breadwinners, who will hold their hands if the money is used for any other purpose. I hope the collection will be a satisfactory one—for it is in good hands—but let it be for the help of the living, rather than for the dead, for I think the newspaper reports will be sufficient record of the memory of the five poor men who cannot be helped by the most elaborate memorial. It seems to me to be a pity when the bereaved families ask for bread to offer to give them a stone.

Yours truly,

SYMPATHISER.

April 13th, 1906.

REFUSED RELIEF.

The Killadea Land and Labour Association adversely criticised the Poor Law Relief system at their last meeting, arising out of a case in which one of their members, Patrick Hore, a labourer, with a wife and four children, was refused temporary relief. Hore had applied for applied for assistance, was refused on the plea that he should go to hospital. It was decided that the matter should be placed in the hands of Mr. W. Redmond, M.P., while a voluntary subscription was made up for him.

General Stoetzer, commanding the 10th Army Corps, died on Tuesday as the result of an apoplectic stroke.

Nine members of the Nenagh District Council have voted in favour of having the roads maintained by direct labour. 20 voted against it, and 12 declined to vote at all.

On Good Friday, and general manifestations of sorrow, the remains of the late Mr. Willie Clery were interred in the family burial place, Ardinacy.

His death took place at the residence of his father, Mr. Maurice T. Clery, Ballycillane House, Kilmallock, after a long and tedious illness, contracted from a neglected cold. He was a general favourite with all classes, and his demise is much regretted.

BAMBAATTA.

RUMOURD ALLY.

Eshowe, April 17.

It is rumoured here that Sir Samuel's tribe has joined Bambaatta, but the extent of the disaffection is not known.

MILITARY IN READINESS

Durban, 9.10 p.m.

The situation which has arisen owing to the action of two Zulu chiefs, who have refused to participate in the pursuit of Bambaatta, is decidedly serious. Although it was recognised that disaffection existed amongst the Natal tribes it has hitherto been considered that the Zulus were absolutely loyal. The militia at several centres of the colony have been ordered to be in readiness for immediate mobilisation.

CHIEFS REFUSE TO CO-OPERATE.

It is officially announced that the chiefs Siraganai and A'Dubi have refused to co-operate in the measures for the capture of Bambaatta.

DISUSED CITY PRISON.

An application was read at the Corporation Committee last night from the Rev. Brother Nolan, Superior of the Christian Brothers, for the temporary use of part of the disused city prison pending the remodelling of the Christian Brothers' Schools in Bridge Street for the purpose of a memorial to Gerald Griffin. Pending the completion of the work it is intended to utilise portion of the prison and the residential portion thereof as schools for the boys. The application was granted.

ALLEGED LARCENY.

A porter named James Cunnison was charged at the Police Court to-day with the larceny of some shirts and jerseys the property of Messrs.
Braderick Moriarty, George street, by whom he was employed. The articles had been missing within the past six months. Accused was remanded on the application of Sergeant Kelly.

MILITARY BANDS COMPETITION.

The Military Tournament at Ball's Bridge this year is naturally attracting much attention in army circles. With the object of providing the best music for the fête, a tour is being now made throughout Ireland by Messrs. Morgan and Hall, of the Coldstream Guards, and Life Guards, to examine into the efficiency of the regimental bands. Yesterday the Judges visited Belfast, and to-day Limerick. This afternoon the bands of the Dublin Fusiliers from Ballyvaughan, and the 1st Worcester Regiment, Templemore, competed in the Gymnasium at the New Barracks. Tomorrow the Northumberland, and Leicestershire Fusiliers Regiments, the latter from Tipperary, come under the Judges' notice.

CHARGE OF ASSAULT

To-day, at the County Petty Sessions Edward Danaher summoned Michael Jordan, for assault at Pennywell on the evening of the 1st April.
Mr. Moran appeared for complainant, and Mr.
Coushan for the defendant. Complainant's evidence was to the effect that he had charge of a public house at Pennywell for Mr. O. Ryan.
On the evening in question defendant used abusive language to him, and struck him on the chest, and as some people were taking witness away, the defendant went for him with his mouth open, and "snatched a piece out over his eyebrow with his teeth. He had to go to St.
John's Hospital to get the wound treated. He gave no provocation for the assault. In cross-examination he said it was Fool's Day. He did not whistle after the defendant. He knocked Jordan down to defend himself, but did not kick him. Another witness was examined in support of the prosecution. Mr. Henson said that using the teeth was an unmanly act. They had heard through of the case, and would impose a fine of 5s. Mr. Coushan said his client was treated by Dr. O'Sullivan for five days on account of the injuries he received on the occasion.

Jack Steppart's one-time "tee-tee" near Mint-street is doomed to demolition. This one-time grand buildings in London, and has stood for nearly three centuries.