

A plot of ground known as the Workhouse Field, Nenagh, containing 3 acres, I.P.M., subject to an annuity of £7 18s. 2d., has recently been sold by Mr. C. M. Carroll for £310 and goes to Mr. Martin Ryan, of Tyrone.

According to a statement received by the Clerk of the Urban Council it appears that seed potatoes have been distributed to 164 people in Listowel township at a cost of £133 5s. 3d.

The Local Government Board objected to the hall porter's wife doing temporary duty as nurse to fever cases, but Kilrush Guardians on Saturday said she had not attended fever cases.

The stocktaking report at Kilrush Workhouse was accepted by the Guardians as most satisfactory, creditable to the officials, and showing zeal and efficiency on the part of Master and Matron.

In Kilrush Workhouse on Saturday there were 375 inmates; corresponding week last year, 344.

The Earl and Countess of Dunraven will entertain a party at Adare Manor for the spring meeting of the Adare Manor Golf Club.

For the week ending April 15, 1905, the exportation of pigs from Ireland were 5,623, and for the week ending April 14 of this year the figures were 7,107.

George Fletcher, of Killarney Pomeroy, County Tyrone, who was recently presented with a gold snuff box by the King as being the oldest British subject, died on Saturday, aged 118.

At Milltown Malbay, an old woman charged with stealing a gold ring belonging to a young girl in the town, was dealt with as a first offender the police giving her a good character as an honest woman. She said she found the ring upon the kitchen floor.

The Limerick Fishery Conservators prosecuted Mr. Michael Flannery, of Tomgraney, for illegally fishing with an "otter line" in Lough Derg on 27th ult. Fined £4 and costs.

At Milltown Malbay Petty Sessions, Pat Faul, summoned by Major Carroll for allowing two sheep to trespass, was fined 2d and costs.

At Ennis markets on Saturday the following prices were realized—Hay, 40s to 70s per ton; mangolds, 13s to 15s 6d; reed, 45s; potatoes, 4d to 4½d; firkin butter, 5s to 5½s.

The Redemptorist Fathers have made a contribution of £50 to the fund being raised for the relief of the families of the victims of the than-ton boating disaster.

The first brand of superfine for the year 1905, was obtained by Mr. William M'Aliffe, butter merchant, Cork, for a firkin of butter received from Mr. P. Fahy, Newmarket-on-Fergus.

The annual bazaar in aid of the Limerick Ragged Schools is fixed to take place at one o'clock on Saturday next in the Protestant Orphan Hall.

The Countess of Limerick yesterday subscribed 20 to the Dublin Mansion House Fund for the relief of the sufferers in the San Francisco disaster. Mr. and Mrs. W. Redmond (M.P.) sent £5.

An American exchange to hand states that Mr. John Kiely, who died recently at his home, 580, 19th Kedzie avenue, Chicago, who was a native Ballingarry, County Limerick.

The Local Government Board has remitted charges of £116 odd made by their auditor against certain members of the North Tipperary County Council, who declined to contribute towards the upkeep of extra police during the rent collection regime.

Mr. Arthur P. Wallace, has been admitted a candidate of the Pharmaceutical Society, Ireland, having taken the first place at the recent examinations. Mr. Wallace served his apprenticeship to Dr. Gilbert, Ennis, and latterly had a manager of Grealy's Medical Hall, Galway.

While Mrs. Crook, of Sunninghill, near Edson, was attending to a call at the telephone exchange her little boy was burned to death.

Mervyn Killaloe and Cloonfort.
A. G. Kilmore, Bishop and Ardagh.
John B. Ossory, Ferns, and Leighlin.
Thomas Limerick, Ardfern and Aghadoe
H. S. Cashel, Emly, Waterford, and Lismore.

Charles F. Colloher.
Easter Monday, 1905.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. T. H. PHELPS.

The remains of the late Mr. Thomas Herbert Phelps, of Willow Park, Limerick, only son of the late Mr. Joseph J. Phelps, who died in London on the 18th instant at the early age of 27 years, arrived in town to-day by the 1.20 train from Dublin. The funeral soon after left for Cloonlara, County Clare, where the remains were interred in the family burial place. The cortège was large and representative, and testified to the extreme regret felt by a wide circle of friends in Limerick and Clare at Mr. Phelps's premature demise.

The chief mourners included—Mr. George Levers, Mr. H. A. Allen, uncle; Mr. C. P. Follett, Mr. A. Ferguson, Mr. J. V. Phelps, Mr. E. J. Phelps, and Mr. E. L. Phelps, cousins; Mrs. Barton and Mrs. Levers, aunts of the deceased, and Rev. Mr. Barton, uncle-in-law.

Amongst the general public were—Rev. R. Ross-Lewin, Rev. J. T. Waller, Rev. M. E. O'Malley, Messrs. J. E. Murphy, F. G. Kennedy, J. Butler Levers, Quin & Blood-Smyth, M. Patterson, Corofin, Eyre Levers, Glanmire; M. G. Welsh, Clonlara; R. G. S. Welsh, do.; A. E. Bannatyne, J. Dundon, J. Kerr, B.C.; J. Kiely, Brunswick street; Dr. Kennedy, F. J. Cleve (representing Sir T. H. Cleve), J. F. Power, F. Blood, F. Hobson, B. Lucas, M. O'Brien, Migraine street; H. R. Newson, Sir Vincent Nash, W. H. Thompson, L. H. Thompson, B. Plummer, Spencer, Travers, Captain Verschoyle, J.P.; J. W. Cleve, Norris Russell, J.P.; E. D. Hunt, Mr. Darky, solicitor, Dublin; A. Barnett, J. T. C. Day, Malcolm Shaw, Dr. Ryan, Castleconnell; Mr. Leader, M.F.H., Cork; F. H. Poo Hosford, J.P., E. Matterson, D. M'Mahon, Kilimurry, J. M'Mahon, do. Courtenay Croker, D. L. W. M'Donnell, R. de Ros Rose, E. Christy, B. Gibbons, Mr. Warren, Ballingarry, F. A. Johnstone, D. Thompson, Cecil St., Wm. O'Connell, Thomas St., etc.

Those who sent carriages included—Miss Allen, Mr. J. V. Phelps, Mr. W. Barrington, C.E., Mr. Levers, Ballingarry, Capt. Verschoyle, J.P., Mrs. Smith O'Grady, Ernagh, Mr. E. Phelps, Mr. W. O'Connell, Mr. de Ros Rose, Mr. R. S. Welsh, Mr. M. G. Welsh, Mr. E. M. Russell, Millford; Mrs. O'Brien, South Hill; Mr. W. McDonnell, Ballinacarron; Sir T. H. Cleve, Mr. A. Murray, Mr. A. W. Shaw, Mr. Hobson, Dr. Coogan, etc.

A large number of beautiful wreaths of natural flowers were sent by relatives and friends, amongst them:—Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Phelps, Mrs. Whitehead, Mrs. Lecky Phelps, Mr. Herbert Smyth, Miss Harvey, and Mr. Massey Harvey.

The officiating clergy were:—Rev. R. Ross-Lewin, Kilimurry, and Rev. M. E. O'Malley, Cloonlara.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs. P. McCarthy and Son.

Mr. R. M. Russell, Millford House, was unavoidably prevented from attending the funeral.

DEATH OF MRS. MAC MAHON-CREGAN.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. Mac Mahon-Cregan, widow of the late Mr. Thomas Mac Mahon-Cregan, C.E., J.P., which took place at her residence, George Street, this morning. The deceased lady who had attained an advanced age had been in failing health for a considerable time past.

tern capital at the time of the terrible and the painful suspense that must until some definite intelligence of the nation reaches them will be acutely felt. priests, natives of this and adjoining reside in and round the doomed city.

ANXIETY IN WATERFORD

Waterford City, like many other parts, has contributed largely to the population of San Francisco, and the news of the catastrophe was received there with feelings of uneasiness, and no small degree of anxiety.

FEELING IN EAST KERRY

The sad and appalling news of the calamity which befel San Francisco a week ago has produced feelings of public kindred to panic in the Berea, Cast Knocknogoshel, Scartaglen, Cordial, and East Kerry districts. Some hundreds of persons from those respective districts had lived in the devastated city, and the anxiety of their fate at home is one of extreme and nervous tension, as regards their fate in the catastrophe.

SOME NOTEWORTHY INCIDENTS

One woman dragged from park to park in the ferry boat with her new born child.

With his arms filled with stolen champagne a "Wharf rat" was shot by as he emerged from a wine house.

Under the bayonets of the soldiers rich unshod to physical exertion, toiled labourers in digging graves for the dead.

Neither the lepers nor the Chinese smokers could be aroused to a sense of danger.

Among the dead is a hardened gambler who rescued many people from danger and was by the soldiers on suspicion as he was passing sub-treasury.

Dressed like a tramp a man who was dragging an unkept, miserable woman, was recognised as a prosperous San Francisco man.

Tame ducks in the parks were hunted, captured and eaten by the famishing refugees.

"Don't shoot," shouted a reporter to a soldier hardly producing his pass. The rifle lowered just in time.

Every house within a radius of twenty miles of Oakland has been thrown open, one is filled from cellar to garret with pen half-crazed, refugees.

After the earthquake fish were thrown from the water along the streets near the sea.

Sir James Creed Meredith, Deputy Master of Freemasonry in Ireland forwarded a cablegram a hundred guineas to San Francisco.

When the abattoir caught fire 300 cattle loose, charged madly down the streets, trampled under foot all who stood in their way.

Women and children accustomed to comfortable homes slept on wharves and sand lots the North Beach, some under little tents afforded but scanty shelter from the winds.

More than twenty cities and towns, besides San Francisco, have been destroyed in part, whole, and the property loss in the outside is reckoned at £1,000,000, while the loss of life is estimated at 600.

Bread is selling at three shillings per loaf, for a small biscuit extravagant sums are asked.

Fully two score ghouls and robbers have shot.

The salary that the Chancellor of the Exchequer receives is to be paid to Mr. Cha Wilson, stage manager of one of the London music halls, who is leaving for America.