A HAPPY RIDDANCE.

John Roche, labourer, of no fixed residence, was brought at the City Police Court this morning to answer two charges of drunkenness. Head Constable Walsh told the court that Roche imbibed rather freely on Saturday last and then went to the barracks in search of a stalwart constable with whom he was anxious to have a fight. Last evening this wayward, while in his cups, waited to bash Constable Giechrist, who, however, succeeded in looking him up until this morning when Mr. Hickson, R.M. augmented his period of incarceration to six weeks in default of paying a fine of 21s and 2s 6d costs.

Colonel W. J. Engledue, retired, Roya Engineer, was found dead in his bedroom at Tavistock, with a bullet wound in his head. The deceased, who had been ill, was grasping a revolver in his right hand.
