against traders. The numbers in the corresponding week of last year were 13 against Traders, and 23 against Farmers and Non-Traders, showing an increase of 4 against Traders and an increase of 2 against Farmers and non-Traders, being a net increase in 1906 to date of 153.

There were no Debentures of Limited Companies in Ireland published during the past week.

The death occurred at San Remo on Saturday of the Dowager Lady Leigh. Deceased was the widow of the second Baron Leigh, for 50 years Lord Lieutenant of Warwickshire, who died in October last, and was the fourth daughter of the second Marquis of Westminster.

During a discussion on tramps at the meeting of the Staying (Sussex) Board of Guardians a member stated that workhouses where a daily bath was not insisted upon soon became overcrowded with vagrants.

The "Daily News" says—Mr. Gladstone is understand, advising the Government to appo-a committee to report upon the question of vision, a course that the National Anti-Vivisection Society, has been anticipating for some time.

The "Chronicle" says—There is a rumour that the Government do not intend to reinstate the Trade Unions in the legal status that they held before the Taff Vale decision. If Trade Disputes Bill does not go so far it certainly meet with a very decided opposition from the Labour and Radical members, and situation would cause a very serious rift in the Liberal party.
