

...I go where its cheap.
 ...just jot this down,
 MY OATS TO STAY IN TOWN."
 ...and vanished. Next night late and brought his little slate,
 ...names of people really best, Abbie's name led all the rest.

—Carolyn Wells in "Life."

in this for those who will shortly be e quarters.

UTIFUL CLARE BOY.

... (half a guinea) in the "Sunday Most Beautiful Baby" competition
 d to Bryan Hayes, Kilmacraugh Clare.

AT LAST.

...spondent: "We have enjoyed a nter weather in West Clare, just Wednesday." Same here, and we last.

SMART COMMERCIAL.

...vellers, a class who last week were Dublin, have a liking for a good he most amusing anecdotes is told an who, anxious for an order, tradesman so much that he was to leave the shop. Five minutes returned smiling. "I thought I ve the establishment," exclaimed extremely angry. "Yes, sir," ricial briskly. "And I expected mply that I felt sure you would."
 The proprietor grinned, and the ot what he wanted.

NING'S FIRST POEM.

...r was very proud of his illustrations all of one occasion on which the ke a noxious draught of which he winging the cup aloft and looking embled family, he cried:—

Good people all Who wish to see
 A boy take physic,
 Look at me!

o be the great man's first poetical!

THE GAME FOR ALL.

...nd a golf links anywhere (says ystander") without remarking on
 : a game for all ages. Old men
 : oung lambs, young ones like it
 : slak for lawn tennis or football;
 : d young, get a chance to display
 : sed in the old days.

THE IRISH RIVAL.

...-Consul at Rouen reports that a to brought from Uruguay is being It is called the "Solanum
 t," and is said to be of excellen tinguished by its resistance to

AT COMP AGAIN."

...generally manage to convey a pposite to that intended by the e in which the mistake is made.

...the same in memory of home.
 Yours truly,
 WELL-WISHER.

Limerick, June 11th, 1906.

LIMERICK CITY R. G. A. MILITIA.

The regiment arrived in the city at 5 a.m. on Saturday last by special train from Cork on completion of 27 days annual training at Bere Island, Bantry Bay. Owing to the early hour of arrival few of the citizens had an opportunity of seeing the men, but we understand they presented a fine soldierly appearance as they marched from the Railway Station, preceded by the band of the regiment, to their head quarters, Staff House, Frederick street. The conduct of the men in camp was excellent, and their gunnery practice highly creditable. The smart appearance and turn out on inspection parade was fully recognised by the inspecting officer. The regiment, which had travelled overnight from Bere Island via Bantry Bay was under the command of Colonel Milton Henn, Major B. Roche-Kelly, Captain H. Finch, Major Wain, and Lieutenant Sherlock, commanding companies, Captain and Adjutant W. Arthy, R.A., Major and Quarter-Master J. Edwards, R.A.

L.A.A. AND B.C. SPORTS.

After a lapse of some five years the old-established L.A.A. and B.C. Sports have, as our readers are aware, been revived. They will take place in the Markets' Field on Thursday next, and if favoured with the present lovely weather, should prove a decided success from every point of view.
 There are in all sixteen events on the card, including five bicycle contests. Both for the athletic and cycle departments we learn that very many leading athletes will appear. A very interesting tussle will be the tug of war between teams from the R.I.C. and Guinness's employes.
 The band of the Northumberland Fusiliers will enhance the enjoyment of the day. As usual, tea and refreshment tasts will be provided on the grounds, and the new grand stand will be appreciated by the public.

DISTRICT COUNCILLOR'S SUDDEN DEATH

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT).

The sad news of the sudden death of Mr.
 John O'Malley, D.C., Stokesfield, Foynes, on Saturday morning, has been received with very great regret, and much sympathy is expressed with his young wife and family in their sad bereavement. Mr. O'Malley, who was quite a young man, was a great favourite, and his funeral yesterday was one of the largest ever seen in the district.

GLIN WATER SUPPLY

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

A meeting of the people of Glin is summoned for this evening to discuss the inadequate water supply.

SHOCKING OUTRAGE

On Saturday night or Sunday morning a donkey or cow belonging to an emergency caretaker residing at the evicted holding of Matthew Dillane, on the Ellis estate, were saturated with oil and set on fire. On Sunday the outrage was strongly condemned by the Rev. Fr. Casey, P.P., and others.

A LOCAL PATENTEE

municipal elections should be disallowed. In Councillors, therefore, succeeded in quashing about half the sums disallowed by the auditor which amounted to £44 18s 7d, but will have to pay the remainder.

Mr. Justice Johnson and Mr. Justice Gibber occurred.

The gentlemen concerned are Ald. McNeice, Councillors M. Donnelly, J. Ryan, and J. Dalton.
 The judge ordered that the prosecutors should pay their own costs, and that those of the auditor should come out of the rates.

Messrs. D. B. Sullivan, K.C., and Park, Kelly, (instructed by Mr. Dandon), appeared for the Corporation of Limerick; and Messrs. Mathew Bourke, K.C.; J. F. Finnerty K.C., and Murphy (instructed by Mr. William Leahy), for the Auditor of the Local Government Board.

PLOT TO KILL THE POPE.

PLOTTERS ESCAPE

No little sensation has been caused by a report from Rome that an attempt was to be made on the life of the Pope.

The parties concerned in the plot are stated to be two men and a woman, whose plan was to occupy a gallery in St. Peter's and when the woman got suddenly faint by design, and the attention of the people was drawn to her, the men were to accomplish their fell deed. The police organised a special protected force, and the three plotters managed to escape leaving no trace.

BAIL OR GAOL?

A WOMAN'S PREFERENCE

At Nenagh Petty Sessions, Mary Gleeson charged Patrick and Bridget Meara with assaulting her on the 6th inst. The parties live side by side in labourers' cottages in Grange, a mile outside Nenagh. Mrs. Meara was bound to the peace, but said she would go to gaol before she would look for bail.

THE FOOD OF THE PEOPLE.

IMPORTANT LEGAL POINT

At Kilmallock Petty Sessions, before Captain Fitzpatrick, R.M., Mr. T. Bennett, and Mr. John Ryan, Sergeant Smith had some persons summoned under the Food and Drugs Act. Mr.
 Fox, solicitor for the defence, raised the point that the summonses had not been served fourteen clear days, and the cases were dismissed without prejudice.

JUDGE AND HIS SERVANT.

FORMER SERVED WITH A WRIT

A further development of the recent defalcations in the Cork Recorder's Court occurred on Saturday, when his Honor the Recorder (Sir J.
 C. Neligan), in his official capacity, was served with a writ for about £400 for the recovery of certain trust moneys which were misappropriated by the absconding registrar, Mr. Tristram Curry. It is understood that the writ has been served by a solicitor practising in Fermoy, at the instance of a client from the locality.

DR. O'RIORDAN'S HEALTH.

All rumours as to the health of Dr. O'Riordan,