

London and Brighton now the construction of a motor way between London and Brighton will not be proceeded with.

THE CORPORATION.

At the adjourned meeting of the Corporation to-night the appointment of the various Committees will take place, and it is stated that "keen competition" will be manifested as regards some of them. The elections of Sub-Sanitary Officer, Junior Clerk in the City Treasurer's Office and a Steward of the Cleansing Department are also announced to take place. There is a variety of other business, including a notice of motion by Alderman McNeils to consider the question of increasing the Mayor's salary.

DIVISIONAL RATING IN LIMERICK UNION.

At the close of the Limerick Board of Guardians yesterday, the following notice of motion, signed by Messrs. Thomas Bourke and James L. Frost, was handed in to the Clerk:—"That, considering the amount of general expenses cropping up from day to day as if everybody's business and at the same time nobody's business, we would respectfully ask the Local Government to revert to the old system of divisional rating so as to enable every guardian to deal with the several cases in his own division which he is the best judge of.

The motion will be considered at the meeting on the 13th.

THE LATE MR. EDMUND QUAIDE.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT).

In one round Ballinacorney much regret has been aroused over the demise of Mr. Edmund Quaid, aged 55, which occurred on Sunday evening last at his residence, Ballinacorney. The funeral constituted by a very large concourse of sympathisers started on Tuesday from Clonmeagh R.C. Church, where the interment took place amid every manifestation of regretful sympathy.

The clergy present were—Father O'Shaughnessy, P.P., Knockaderry, and Father, Carr, C.C. do.

THE UNION WORKHOUSE ADMINISTRATION.

At yesterday's meeting of the Limerick Board of Guardians, Mr. John McInerney, J.P., presiding, the Clerk submitted a report by a committee, consisting of Captain O'Brien, Lady Emily, Mrs. O'Brien, James Bourke, James Lawlor, and James Hassett, bearing on a report of Dr. Smyth, L.G.B.M.I., on the workhouse hospital, and recommended same for adoption. The report made several recommendations with regard to administration; as to cooking, washing, etc.; that (2) if a saving could be effected in the reduction of inmate helpers, two additional nurses should be appointed for the infirmary; that a deputation should wait on the Corporation with regard to the provision of a larger water main to avoid deficiency in the water supply; (7) that 23 children in the infirmary list should be transferred to another list; that St. Bridget's Day Ward should be converted into a day room for female epileptics; (9) that the Master arrange for the conveyance of fever patients in the ambulance to the door of the fever hospital; (11) that a second ambulance be provided, and the covered cars done away with; that the expensive litigation on both sides. The disappearance of Mr. William Shaw, the well known Belfast stockbroker, and leading promoter of local philanthropic institutions and church movements, has caused a sensation in the capital of Ulster. Mr. Shaw was adjudged a bankrupt on the 27th inst. and a warrant for his arrest has been placed in the hands of detectives.

Ten shirts, twenty pairs of socks, four women's aprons, five pounds of tobacco, a box of cigarettes, two pounds of bacon, twenty nine skeins of black linen thread, six hair combs, five pocket handkerchiefs, a pair of scissors, a penknife, a pair of lady's black stockings, five pairs of men's woollen socks, six dozen boot thongs, and a sum of 7s or 8s. Such was the haul alleged to have been made by a Thomastown tramp named Holohan, who was returned for trial charged with having broken into the shop of Mr. James Whitty, New Ross.

The Fedamore Branch of the I.L. and L.A. have presented an address of congratulation to Mr. W. Landon, M.P. in which they ask him to "cap the climax of a worthy life by assisting to place the workmen of this district on the untenanted lands in the locality, as, apart from all other applicants, they have first claim, and as sure as you do this so sure will we place a monument to your memory on those untenanted lands, where happy and contented peasant proprietors will ever bless your name." Mr. Landon, in reply, promised he would do all in his power, inside and outside of Parliament, and trusted he would live to see the day when every labouring man would be owner of from ten to twenty acres of good land.

RUSSIAN REVOLUTIONISTS.

Further Trouble Feared

An Exchange Co.'s St. Petersburg telegram says—The whole of the Baltic coast is strongly guarded by troops in order to prevent the importation of arms. In spite of these precautions quantities of dynamite have been smuggled into St. Petersburg. Considerable uneasiness prevails, as it is feared further acts of violence are contemplated by Revolutionists.

PROPOSED RAILWAY TO TARBERT.

A proposal is on foot through the Kerry County Council to appeal to the Government to give a grant towards the construction of a line of railway from Listowel to Tarbert, and thus complete the missing link in the railway facilities in the South West of Ireland. This line of railway, if constructed, would be of great advantage to the Government, as the largest of their battleships can get safe anchorage at Tarbert Island. The matter will be brought up at the next Council meeting.

OBSTRUCTION.

At the Adjourned Quarter Sessions, before his Honor Judge Adam, K.C., Patrick Keogh, Kilfinny, summoned Patrick Hanrahan, of the same locality, for damages for obstruction and right of way.

Mr. C. O'Donnell, solicitor, appeared for the defendant, and Mr. J. F. Gaffney, solicitor, for the plaintiff.

His Honor, having heard the evidence, gave a decree for 6s. and £15s. costs and expenses.

FOR PROFESSIONAL EXPENSES:

At the adjourned Quarter Sessions before his Honor Judge Adam, K.C., Patrick Keogh, Kilfinny, summoned Patrick Hanrahan, of the same locality, for damages for obstruction and right of way.

Yesterday, Police Officer the Merchants' defendants Gratian, str with having which a fa secondly, will trade descrip good deal of hearing of th A. the Clou fore Mr. Bie 48 St. John on an adjour the applying of which the ings have be now decided to be paid fined £21. summonses Marks Act, Mr. Bodke and Sir Ho Ricardo), M. Bro. circumstances, trace the bu ceelings in expense, h. £250 costs.

These b good sport and yester was no ext ing was t soft lookin stag was e laid on th pace, poin almost ran little excit streets, the bog, wher but boing their game terra firm when they rideable check till Tomgrane tured in a minutes. pitably en Kiltannon Among Ball, M.H. Beatrice (Kneppos grove), & Butler te and Mrs Studdert Dr. O'G O'Hallor Wyniffor Borefor including Miss Q (Aangan) (Calfane)