

Ennis Parish Church last Sunday of large congregations. In the presence of the Rector, Dr. Griffith, the morning service was taken by T. A. Beckett, M.A., and the evening by the Rev. W. H. Brown, B.A. The antiphonal chanting of the new and most effective feature of Miss Griffith's singing of the solo, "Gracious," was much admired. The excellent music was most creditably rendered by the careful and competent Miss Manning, the organist. The choir were in aid of the Clergy Superannua-
