

bers approve of an official insulting one body by calling him a liar; why let the go?
Hurley—No member approves of it.
C. O'Meara—On the contrary, I think the should be asked to withdraw the remark, putting it in the minutes is a different r.
O'Meara—I made a statement and I am red to prove it, Lerman J. O'Donnell said he was present at meeting referred to, and he did not hear the rk of which Mr. O'Meara complained doctor might have said it, but he did not him.

The Chairman said it would not be right to go the matter in the doctor's absence.
Lord Emly—I was present and did not hear expression used.
Mr. O'Meara—I made a statement which is e, and unless the doctor can prove I am a liar should withdraw the remark. The matter be brought up again.
The Chairman—That will be the wisest way
The matter was adjourned.
