

SMOKE

ver's
LD
y Cut
ETTES

made from the choicest growths possessing a "smoothness" and any similar priced Cigarette now
the public.

CKET of 10

SOM & CO.,

HATED

NGES

KING STOVES

The accused stated they had no other place to put them.

Mr. Bieme, D.I., said they were a great public danger.

Mr. French said they should get some other place for these cars.

Major Kelly said it was hard on these poor people, but it was harder on the public who were exposed to such danger through the cars being placed on such a narrow street.

Defendants pleaded not to allow them there again, and a fine of 5s. was imposed in each case.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. G. H. SULLIVAN.

The funeral of the late Mr. G. H. Sullivan, who for more than forty years filled the important position of accountant in the land agency office of Messrs R. Hunt and Son, took place yesterday morning at ten o'clock from his late residence, 4 Moyola Terrace, for interment at the family burial place at St. Munchin's Churchyard.

Notwithstanding that the morning was very blustry and threatening, there was a large attendance of the general public anxious to pay a last mark of respect to the memory of a highly esteemed and popular citizen. The chief mourners were—Robert James Sullivan, B.A., A.M. Inst. C.E. (brother-in-law); William Sterkey, M.D., Dublin (brother-in-law); Thomas R. Hill, J.P., Tarbert (cousin).

The clergy present were—Archdeacon Wynne, Rev. T. B. Robertson, Rev. J. T. Waller, Rev. Benson F. Gentleman.

Amongst the general public were—Messrs. W. L. Hunt; R. Hunt, G. Belshaw, and A. H. Baldwin (Messrs. Hunt's office); Colonel Glover, Captain Caulfield, Sir T. Ceeve, B. Barrington, W. Barrington, C.E.; Wm. M. Beauchamp, F. G. Kennedy, T. A. Ferguson, E. D. Hunt, P. H. Toppin, senr.; P. Toppin, junr.; J. Ewright, (Cahock and Co.), Z. Ledger, G. Ledger, T. Ledger, E. G. Fitt, A. J. Eakins, W. O. Stokes, J. G. Wilkinson, J. M. Stack, J. Evans, W. Cromer, W. Woodhouse, T. Rice, J. Cunningham, R. Wallace, J. Wallace, J. Alexander, M. Herriott, W. U. Myles, A. J. Barnett, T. Myles, W. F. Hanna, B. Hanna, C. O'Donoghue, T. Hassett, P. O'Meehan, N. A. Brophy, D. Thompson, W. B. Fitt, J. Riddell, L. B. Leonard, T. Grubb, Goodwin, Trousell, Dr. Long, O. Ray, S. E. Lee, J. P., W. Lee, J. Barry, M. Dooley, W. Ebrill, S. F. Ebrill, J. Bromell, C. Hill, H. Coyle, J. Waugh, W. Christy, R. Christy, T. Auchmutty, H. L. Stewart, J. Stewart, T. Grubb, Alderman Donnellan, W. Gullen, John Egan, J. O. Myles, R. T. Belshaw, W. H. Owens, E. Kidd, S. Jordan, A. Rowand, John Egan, George Ryan, C.E., M. Holliday, P. McCarthy, M. Nelson, D. O'Donovan, H. Levers, H. Christy, J. A. Baldwin, J. Copeland, Sergeant Keating, etc.

Carrages were sent by Sir Thomas Ceeve, Archdeacon Wynne, Mr. W. L. Stokes, J.P.; Mr. Archibald Murray, and others.

Wreaths were sent by the family and following friends—Mr. and Miss Hill, Mr. W. L. Egan, Mr. and Miss Belshaw, Mrs. Moore and Miss Ledger, M. Brunnet, Messrs. and Misses Trousell.

Archdeacon Wynne and Rev. T. Robertson officiated.

Messrs. P. McCarthy and Sons carried out the funeral arrangements.

COUNTY MUST PAY

At the Rathkeale Quarter Sessions on Saturday, His Honor Judge Adams heard an application from five residents of the district for compensation under the Malicious Injury Act.

Patriek Griffin, Newcastle West, applied for £50, for the malicious destruction of house and fixtures.

His Honor allowed £25.