visited yesterday by Alderman Ballantine and the Town Clerk of Londonderry, who invited the officers to visit the city. Vice-Admiral May expressed his regret that the officers would not be able to accept the invitation of the city & a ball.

Mr. Richard Bracken, relieving officer for the Fenniskillan Guardians, having been given leave of absence to recruit his health, has died, the circumstances being rendered doubly melancholy by the death of his wife three-quarters of an hour afterwards.

The Knight of Glin is shortly expected at Lahinch, where the visitors at present include Major and Mrs. Wise, and Captain Walker-Leigh. The Hon. John and Lady Aline Browne have left Lahinch after a prolonged visit.

The Local Government Board having declined to sanction the appointment by the Lismore Board of Guardians of Mr. Michael Higgins, Ballyduff, as Relieving Officer, on the ground that he has continued to reside with his father, who retails provisions, an assurance has been received from him that he will reside elsewhere.

Much sympathy is felt in the Queenstown district with Mr. A. E. Horne, R.M., and Mrs. Horne on the unexpected death of their daughter, Mrs. Dunkels, at her residence in London. The local justices have passed a vote of condolence with the lady's relatives, and adjourned the Court on Wednesday as a mark of respect. A similar vote was passed at Cork Police Court yesterday.

In a collision near Newtownshandrum, Co. Cork, between a horse and butt and a jennet and trap driven by Rev. William Lenane and his father, an old gentleman of 80 years, the latter was severely injured. He was picked up unconscious, with a deep wound in his head. Fr. Lenane sustained some contusions.

The funeral of the two men, Hoath and Walker, firemen on board the s.s. "Tuskar," who were drowned in the Docks on Wednesday night, took place yesterday for St. Mauchin's Church. The captain, officers, crew, and a large number of the general public attended as a last mark of respect and sympathy. Mr. Williams, R.N., with the captain, represented the Royal Naval Reserve, to which one of the deceased belonged. Rev. T. B. Robertson officiated.

We have received the following:—The Directors of Thomond Artisan's Dwellings Co., are much disappointed at having had no response to their appeal for sufficient extra capital to complete their building scheme on the Nicholas street area. The following are the principal holders of shares in the Company, and some of them have indicated their willingness to increase their holdings. About £2,000 is required, and it is hoped that besides the present shareholders, others interested in the housing problem may help by subscribing, even though it may only be for a few shares. BANK CLERKSHIPS.

case. It is contended by the most interested parties in the proceedings that not half of the actual facts have as yet been published, and seeing that in many quarters severe strictures have been passed upon some of the principal personages concerned in the recent inquiry, it is interesting to know that further developments are promised at an early date.

Seen yesterday by a "Tribune" representative Mr. Sutherst, the father of the Marchioness emphatically stated that he intended to comprehensively refute the very serious charges which had been publicly levied against him. Mr. Sutherst's friends affirm that facts never before mentioned, which materially affect the sequence of events will be disclosed and letters published which have as yet not been mentioned. Meanwhile the Marquis and Marchioness are enjoying a spell of rest and quietude at Boulogne.

ATHLUNKARD BOAT CLUB.

The Athlunkard Boat Club water carnival was held on Thursday and Friday, and despite counter attractions was very well patronised. A large number was present in the enclosure and as the event was organised to assist the fund raised to renovate St. Patrick's Parochial Church, it could not fail in its object. As many as a dozen races were got through on the two evenings, and all proved interesting. The principal item last evening was the inter-club race, in which Shannon and Athlunkard figured. It was a very fine contest and ended in a win for Athlunkard. The Workingmen's and St. Mary's Bands played on the grounds alternately, and the starter's launch was kindly lent by Mr. Madden.

ALLEGED LARCENY OF PRIZE FOWL AT ENNIS.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

At the weekly Court at Ennis yesterday, Mr. C. L. Rynne in the chair.

Richard Mangan and Pat Gill were charged at the complaint of District Inspector Supple with the larceny of two prize Minorca fowl, the property of Mrs. O'Loghlin, Lifford, on the night of the County Show.

After hearing the evidence the Bench sent both defendants for trial to the next Quarter Sessions. They failed to get bail, and were removed in custody.

LORD LEONFIELD'S ESTATE.

A meeting of the Ballyblood tenantry of the above estate will be held on Sunday, the 26th inst. to consider the advisability of requesting his lordship to sell that portion of his estate. The Ballyblood tenantry expect that their brother tenantry throughout Clare will follow suit, as Lord Leonfield may be desirous of disposing of all his Clare property simultaneously, and may not sell any particular portion should all his tenantry not apply.

THE KILKEE WATERWORKS SCHEME.

It is supposed that the Kilkee Waterworks Scheme will reach a new chapter at the next fortnightly meeting of the Kiltrush Rural District Council. The opponents of the Dispensary area have again, says our Kiltrush correspondent, sought the advice of Mr. T. Kelly, solr., Kiltrush, and the matter is certain to be continued for several weeks in warm debates on notices of motion for alternative taxation areas, despite the fact that the area has already been defined by the Local Government Board in a sealed order.

LADY'S PICTORIAL.

In connection with Cowes week, a portrait of the King and Prince of Wales in naval uniform appears in today's "Pictorial." Ladies will take a keen interest in the fashion-plates, which are illustrative of yachting, motoring, and for the moors. There are also chic tailor modes for the early autumn. "Woman's World of Sport" is copiously illustrated, and there are many other features of interest in this number.
