In charge to Bristol clergy yesterday, the Archdeacon of Bristol said if carried in its present form the Emancipation Bill would be a step towards disestablishment.

A youth run over and killed at Theobald's Road, W.C., was found in possession of an insurance coupon for £1,000. He had given a companion 6d to pay the cost of registering it, but the latter had unfortunately omitted to do so.

Yesterday an action brought in the High Court by Patrick Connery against Denis Ryan, for failing to keep his promise to train him as a creamery manager, was dismissed by the jury. It was explained that the training was to enable the plaintiff to take the managership of Kilkenny Creamery which another person got.

Mr. J. Elliott Viney, J.P., a director of the well-known firm of Messrs. Hazell, Watson and Viney, of London and Aylesbury, died on Saturday, aged 56.

Mr. George Redley, twenty-one, son of the Rev. George Redley, Rector of Crosby Garrett near Kirby Stephen, died yesterday morning as a result of a fall on Saturday from his bicycle.

DEATH OF MRS. WHITE, NANTENAN

We regret to announce this evening the rather unexpected demise, which occurred yesterday at Nantenan, of Mrs. White, relict of the late Mr. John White, D.L. The deceased lady, who was a member of the Blake family, of Galway, was held in the highest esteem by all classes and creeds in Askeaton district, where her name was a household word in connection with all charitable undertakings. Deep sympathy is expressed with her family in their sorrow.

IRISH BACON TRADE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.
SIR—I read lately a good deal of correspondence in the newspapers with reference to the live weight system of buying pigs recently adopted by Messrs. Denny, the well-known bacon curers. My opinion is that it is a ruinous system for pig breeding and the country generally, and the sooner the farmers and others know this the better it will be for their pockets. I wish to state that I am in thorough sympathy with the men who are trying to establish open pig markets throughout Ireland, and hope they will succeed.

THE NEW PARK.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.
Bank Place, 22nd April, 1906.
DEAR MR. EDITOR—Some of the ways of the Limerick Corporation are certainly very peculiar, for instance, having supplicated one of the much reviled Castle of Dublin Boards for the temporary possession of a useless and dangerous quay at the back of the Custom House, and having got it, they proceed to call it a "Park" (bless the mark!) and for the payment of sixpence a year enjoy the privilege of being responsible for the lives of all the young "citizens" who will go through the railings and get drowned in the river. Are the Corporation
