 should come into the Association forthwith, and take a more active interest in what concerned them, as well as the working classes, on whom at present the onus of supporting the organisation rested.

MILITARY.

A detachment of one hundred and sixty non-commissioned officers and men of the Royal Munster Fusiliers, under the command of four officers, arrived in town at 1.20 yesterday from the Depot at Dover, and proceeded to the New Barracks, being played thereto by the band of the 5th Battalion R.M.F. It is stated that the 2nd Battalion from Gibraltar will take over quarters here sometime about the end of February.

DEATH OF DEAN WHITE.

We regret to announce the death of the Very Rev. Dean White, P.P., V.G., Nenagh, which took place at the Deanery yesterday, in his 71st year. The venerable gentleman was familiarly known in Limerick and Clare, where he enjoyed the esteem and respect of all classes. He was for many years Parish Priest of Kilrush, and later on was translated to Nenagh parish where his great work was the building of a new church, the consecration of which took place on the 14th of October last.

THEY FEEL THEIR FOLLY NOW

A fund has been started at Crewe for the relief of the men discharged from the Crewe works on the ground of advanced age. It is stated if the men had not smashed up their pension fund they would all have been provided for.

OUT AND ABOUT

There is a slump at present in the sale to tenants of estates in West Clare.

There are 354 inmates in Kilrush workhouse, as against 359 last Christmas week. They cost 3s. 4¹/₂d per head.

Mr. Theodore Seton Drury, an assistant registrar in the Land Registry Office, has been appointed Master of the Supreme Court in place of Master Spofforth.

John Robert O'Sullivan, known throughout the County of Cork as "The Bard," was released from Maryborough prison on Tuesday after having undergone 15 years imprisonment.

There was no improvement last night in the condition of Mr. McConnell, K.C., who is much weaker.

The monthly meeting of the County Technical and Agricultural Committee was held yesterday, Rev. W. Casey, P.P., Abbeyfeale, presiding.
