THE LIMERICK CHRO

locon than

TEFUL AND MFORTING

ier than ys, "and ssary to ie kody.

ful beverage.

SORY EDUCATION OMMITTEE

Over the Coals

oration meeting on Thursday o the proposed rejection of the cation grant.

irien explained that be moved its Corporation Committee meeting gs of the School Attendance e not held at regular intervals. e city appeared anxious for the istence, he had no objection to the grant.

Clerk intimated that he had ution on the subject from the itendance Committee asking the inue the grant and thereby let ed.

Brien moved-"That the Council. finance the Compulsory Educae for the season 1907.'08; that bers be added to the Committee, igs be held on e a week at 4 p.m.; s of the Committee's effect on ace Le supplied to the Council on 1908, so that the Council may cumstances before the rate for its ance would be struck."

isked whose fault was it that the not regularly held. aid he could not tell, e seconded the proposition, and ct of drawing attention to the lax lucting the Committee would have n, as one who voted for the e grant in Committee, now supption to continue the Act as an He justified the statement week ago that some parents were than others by instancing the case was fined twice under the Act, ce was taken of other careless him.

shile agreeing that the Compul-

AGED 150!

A telegram from Satisgo de Cuba reports the death of a negre at 150 years of age, who e faculties were good to the end.

LIME AND TUBERCULOSIS

The "Petite Republique" announces that a Paris doctor has made successful experiments. in the new treatment of tuberculosis, the principal feature of which is the absorption of lime.

DEATH ABROAD.

The death of Mr. Thomas Cahill, aged 43 years, teck place in Chicago quite recently. The deceased was a native of Ballingarry, where his parents enjoyed a large measure of respect.

NENAGH FAIR.

The supply was large, and demand extremely brisk. New milch cows, £13 to £17 los; dry cows pleatiful, at £8 10s, to £11; three and three and a half years old bullocks and heifers, £14 to £15 15.; two years old, £8 15. to £12; year linge, £4 15: to £6 10:, ; calves, 40:. to 70s. each. The sheep fair was good.

TENANTS COMBINE.

The Peacocke house property in Kilrush, all small houses, situate in the side streets, was not sold yesterday as advertised. There was but one lot in High street where the tenants concerned combined, and offered £150, which would not be accepted.

BALLINACURRA SEWER ACTION.

At the hearing on Thursday, Mr. Bryan Sheehy, C.E.; Mr. Walter Thorpe, Analytical Chemist; Mr. Murrane, V.S.; and Dr. Mulcahy, of Limerick, were examined on behalf of the plaintiffs. Mr. Joseph O'Malley, C.E. and other witnesses were examined for the defence.

CO. LIMERICK ESTATE.

Rev. Father Reeves, P.P., Tournafulla, Co. Limerick, has received a reply from the Earl of Devon, conveying that his lordship is willing to sell to the tenants the portion of his estate comprised in the seven parishes of Ardagh, Athea, Templeglantine, Teurnafulla, Castlemahon, Ashford and Killeady.

OUR SUNDAY COR

Vice pays, unconsciously, its tribute t It is human nature to feel a sense of sa in having made a conquest of one another. The man whose moral charact teriorating never feels that, in taking ward step, he has made a self-conquencer feels the stronger for rolling de He may make a loud boasting of vicious he has no sense of satisfaction or joy conqueror or overcomer. As Professofinely says: "He who under the surger represses cries of pain, or he who expect to social obloquy for duty's sake, it has were following the line of greatest. he were following the line of greatest 1 he were following the line of greatest: He speaks of conquering or overcoming pulses and temptations. But the slug drunkard, the coward, never talk of the duct in that way, or say that they remergy, overcome their sobriety, conque courage, and so forth. They, like all are sensitive to the joy of self-conquency that they never speak in these terms of their viciousness is their tribute virtues on which they have turned the virtues on which they have turned the to their own damage and misery.

Christian penitence is an act of our v sonality; it involves a rational condem and an emotional sorrow for past sin, with a resolution of the will to do bett time to come.

We do not care what the world may sure if those whom we love are true;
We do not mind the toil of the day

If we know, in the dusk and the de There waits someone who will welcome As we come home to rest—Some friend who will say, "Dear hear That to day you have done your hes

.

If there were no pride in our own should not complain of the pride of otl

44

"Forgive us our trespasses, as we for who trespass against us": this prayer to some a stumbling block. What! it shall we set a standard of forgivene Almighty! Are we to go to God wit in our mouths, bid Him note how m are, and call upon Him to be equally On the contrary, if we did not limit o for forgiveness by our wilingness to f should be guilty of effrontery. No worthy to be called a prayer which edesire for that which we ourselves are to grant. The debtor who, while pre who owed him, asked his lord to rem debt was doubly guilty; he was debt was doubly guilty; he was the debt and he was guilty of A prayer for forgiveness uttered in giving spirit is a piece of brazen impletition, "Forgive us as we forgive not only a prayer for pardon; it is als for a spirit of decent reverence.

Every man has a duty to make the himself, because God has made so my already, and more of him. and because He designs to