

speech to ten minutes. It was, late Archbishop Benson, who, a person remark that "so much was thrown away, and that the to trust more to the spirit," somewhat severely. "It was never the Bible that you should be able Spirit to teach what you hadn't the Archbishop's rebuke carries all which needs no comment.

ting Railway ts.

urse, too early to draw conclusions judgments on the evidence brought the Board of Trade inquiry into the smash. But just now when railway much in all minds, the public is scrutinise with particularly jealous ts by which they are likely to be must be something of a shock, and nervous travellers, to hear of drivers t signals at danger more than once ng considered competent and trust- to put in charge of an express and possible for hundreds of lives. his running past signals or failing to d to do be due to faults in the brake or faults in the man on the footplate em to us the most pertinent matter public point of view. What the veller will feel is that some improve- e system is very necessary so long of this kind are not regarded more y the men and the companies con-

GHTS FOR TO-NIGHT AND TO-MORROW

ou cannot obtain what you want ost, be as happy as you can with l choice, which is perhaps the best an get.

oble heart, like the sun, showeth eatest countenance in its lowest

Sidney.

WS-NOTES AND NOTIONS.

THE CITY DEATH RATE.

th rate of the city for the week ending 9th was 19.7 per 1,000. The figures for the s were—September, 28th, 18.1; October October 12th, 19.8; October 19th, 19.7. ate for the four weeks, 19.3. The highest tes were—Clonmel, 35.9; Londonderry, alway, 27.2; Waterford, 25.3; Armagh, comedy, "A Country Girl.

Mr. P. Bernard's Concert.

On Wednesday next, Mr. Paul Bernard's Concert will take place in the Theatre, a very fine programme being arranged.

EXHIBITION EXCURSION.

Attention is directed to G.S. & W.B. advertisement announcing that on Monday next a special excursion train will leave Newcastle West for Dublin at 6.45 a.m., stopping at intermediate stations to Limerick, whence it leaves at 8 o'clock. The fares as usual are moderate, and no doubt the trip will be largely availed of by both city and county people.

ROYAL SILKS.

Messrs. Robinsen Brown, the Royal Silk Warehouse, Macclesfield, have issued a very dainty green and gold brochure telling all about their goods, which can be had free on application by any of our readers. The firm's advertisement appears in another column.

THE LATE DR. PIERCE.

The names of Mr. Crawford Langford, of Glenville, and Mr. Richard Coplen-Langford, J.P., Kilscoff, were omitted from the list of names of those attending and having carriages at the funeral of Dr. George Pierce, M.D., at Newcastle West, on Tuesday last.

DEATH OF MRS. BRYAN O'DONNELL.

We regret to record the death of a highly esteemed and popular lady, Mrs. O'Donnell, wife of Mr. Bryan O'Donnell, J.P., Rate Collector, which took place at her residence, William street, yesterday. Mrs. O'Donnell, who had been in failing health for some time past, was a most kindly and charitable lady, and her demise is mourned by a wide circle of friends who deeply sympathise with Mr. O'Donnell and family in their bereavement. The funeral is to take place to-morrow at 3 o'clock from St. Michael's R.C. Church to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

ALLEGED THEFT OF A HORSE.

Before a special court at Limerick yesterday, a labourer named Cronin, was charged with stealing a bay mare, the property of Mr. Martin Sheehan, farmer, Roxboro. The allegation was that Cronin having been given the animal by Mr. Sheehan to exhibit at the Munster Fair, took her to Ballyneety, where he was met by a city van man, who induced him to return with him to the city. On reaching Blackboy, the police overheard the man talking about the ownership of the mare, and being apprised of the theft earlier in the day, Sergeant Kell arrested Cronin, who made no reply to the charge. Mr. Hickson, R.M., remanded the accused for further enquiries, and ordered the horse to be handed over to Mr. Sheehan.

HABITUAL CRIMINALS AND

religion Father Felix, the priest of the Franciscan Order at Convent Chapel, by the Most Rev. D. D.D., Lord Bishop of the Diocese of

The death took place somewhat yesterday afternoon at his residence, Belfast, of Dr. E. E. Carroll, a medical practitioner. He was a native of county Cork, and went to Belfast years ago where he enjoyed a large p

The engagement is announced Charles Morris Trefall, late 8th H. son of Charles Trefall, Tilestone I poaley, Cheshire, and Mabel eldest the late Benjamin Friend Going, D.L. Killenanle, county Tipperary, and of Coole Abbey, Clonmel.

A KILTEELY LOCH.

In the Petty Sessions Court yesterday Dwyer, Kiltely, was summoned for driving a horse through Bedford Munster Fair day.

Constable Ford stated the horse put him reeling round the road followed O'Dwyer and overtook him gave a false name. Subsequently station, when charged with knocking man defendant said he did not thir harm.

Mr. Hickson suggested a fine of 2 Mr. Holliday—I would impose t penalty of 40s.

Mr. Roche agreed, stating that safe on the streets of the city, those Eventually a fine of 20s. was impo

CANED IN COU VESTIBULE.

A novel departure in summary ju exhibited in the Petty Sessions Co when three boys named Joseph Di Johnson and Freddy Ward, charged with larceny of canes from Miss B street, were chastized within precincts.

The boys admitted the offence by the police.

Mr. Hickson directed that one should be given to each of the children, to take them into the hall and give them a good caning.

continued Mr. Hickson, we'll se reformatory—give them summary

The injunction was carried out denced of the boys re-appears when they came in crying bitterly, canes broken.

The boys were then discharged

IT WON'T REST T

Another Police I

The "Tribune" says—An extremely disagreeable misadventure fallen Major J. H. Selwyn, son of Justice Selwyn. As he was leaving public entertainment near Piccadilly night he was arrested by detective Vine-street police station, despite and confined in a cell. After being for an hour and a half he was re explanation made to him by the charge was that he had been a convict on licence who had f himself. Yesterday Major S from Sir Melville Macnaught Commissioner of Police, an a