THE JUDGE'S ADDRESS.

His Lordship, addressing the Grand Jury said, Mr. Power and gentlemen of the Grand Jury I am glad to inform you that your ancient city is in its normal condition. Peacefulness, that is the condition of the City of Limerick for many years past. You must expect some cases in every considerable community, but the cases that are to be submitted to you so far as they relate to the functions of a grand jury

INVOLVE NO DIFFICULTY.

in point of law or in point of fact. They will involve signing by twelve of your body as the entire number of grand jurors have not at-
