REGRETS FOR NON-ATTENDANCE.

Canon J. G. Fahy, Waterville, is ill with influenza, otherwise he would have been present at the funeral, as "nothing but a very severe attack of illness would keep me from paying my last tribute of affection and respect to our dearly loved Bishop."

The Rev. R. H. Semple, M.A., was exceedingly sorry to be unable to attend the funeral as he is confined to the house with a severe cold.

The Rev. C. V. Atkinson, Kilpeacon, was also unavoidably absent through indisposition.

Mr. E. M. Russell, Milford House, was also prevented by illness from attending the funeral.

Lord Clarina was unavoidably absent from the funeral, being in Dublin with his sister, the Hon. Mrs. Barton, who, we regret to hear, is seriously ill.

Canon J. F. Luther was also unavoidably absent owing to illness.
