

ATTENDANCE.

the Limerick No. 1 School Attendance was held at 82 George Street noon. Very Rev. J. J. Duan, McCarthy, Rev. J. Power, P.P. The Attendance Officer stated all the schools in the district since had given the final notice to the parents, James Lyons, Thomas Clancy, Mrs. Reilly, Wm. Kenna, and E. Connell, who appeared before the Officer and advised that his children would attend in future. The Attendance Officer ordered to get attendance orders for those who did not appear. Michael was before the Committee at last promised to send his children to school, had failed to do so. It was ordered by the Committee to get an attendance order from the Attendance Officer. The Attendance Officer was ordered to see that all children attend school in such a manner as to be in six months.

ORDER TO KILL.

Order and Suicide.

ordered the Marquis de L'Escaille to be executed. He cannot bear to survive him.— This was the message found on the Marquis Rene de L'Escaille, one of the most ancient and noble French families, and who had lived with him. The Marquis had ordered to be shot, and he shot himself. He shot and blew his brains out with the morning a fire broke out at the vent at Tallaght, Co. Dublin, and the house detached from the ground. The house was formerly a school, and Father Tom Bourke was the "house," by which it was known, and the contents were burnt, and the whole place was a bare blackened walls were seen when daylight appeared.

VENT HOUSE DESTROYED

THE SUEVIC

that the Suevic on the Lizard is the sea is not so rough, and the is expected at any moment.

ELECTRIC SUPPLY

Light Committee on Tuesday asked the Treasury to advance £5,500, sanctioned by the Local Board, for the purpose of the supply to increase the motor supply.

C. RECRUITS.

in a printed reply to Mr. Sloan that the number of recruits now in the R.I.C. drawn from Counties Galway, and Tipperary is 47, and trains to the city on Sunday the 10th prox, the date of the demonstration, at which the cause of the town dwellers will be espoused.

OBITUARY.

DEATH OF MRS JOSEPHINE BURKE.

We regret extremely to record the death which occurred yesterday at Barbane, Broadford, Co. Clare, of Josephine, wife of Mr. Frank Burke, Co. Councillor, and daughter of Mr. T. B. Mitchell, J.P., Ballybricken, who was the first Chairman of the Limerick County Council. The deceased lady had been but a couple of weeks ill, and her demise at the very early age of 27 years is deeply regretted by a very wide circle of friends to whom she was endeared by her gentle and winsome manner. Deep sympathy from Limerick and Clare is extended to her bereaved family in their poignant sorrow. The funeral will take place from Broadford R. C. Church to Ki seely at one o'clock to-morrow (Friday).

MISS DELIA O'DWYER.

A popular and highly esteemed young lady, Miss Delia O'Dwyer, of the Island, Athlunkard street, was laid to rest on Tuesday, death having occurred at the early age of 19 years. For a considerable time she had been in very poor health, so that death was not wholly unexpected, though it has brought deep sadness to the members of her family and a host of friends. The remains had lain in St. Mary's Church overnight, from whence they were removed to Mount St. Laurence Cemetery, a very large concourse attending as a mark of sympathy with the bereaved ones, and love for the young life so early ended. Rev. Fr. Shanahan, P.P., and Rev. Fr. Rea, C.C., St. Mary's, officiated at the graveside. The ladies of the lace department of Messrs. Cannock & Co. sent a wreath "In fond and loving remembrance of Delia."

MR. THOMAS BOURKE.

The Limerick Board of Guardians yesterday adjourned as a mark of respect to the memory of the late Mr. Thomas Bourke, D.C., Kilmore, who for nearly a quarter of a century had been a member of the Board, and for several years filled the deputy vice-chair. He was also identified with the Union School Board almost from the inception of that institution. An active, courteous, and discriminating Guardian, he was highly esteemed by the members and the public, and his demise is widely regretted in Clare and Limerick.

MR. W. M. PERRY.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Wm. Minchin Perry, which took place at his late residence, Kilbooy Abbey, Killenaule, County Tipperary, on 15th inst. Deceased, who was 78 years of age, had been in failing health for some time, but he passed away quite suddenly in the end.

FIVE MILE LIMIT

Before the magistrates adjudicating at the Liberties Petty Sessions to-day, John McMealy, publican, was prosecuted for a breach of the Sunday Closing Act. Constable Sloan stated he found two men named Sullivan and Curtin drinking in the bar at 12.40 on Sunday. They were resident in Cecil street, which was within the five mile

The cost of sailors' kits in the Na reduced by fifty shillings from April

Lady Constance Butler has left Castle for Shanbally Castle, Co. Tipp

Parisians are in fear of a small pox and everyone from the President do being vaccinated.

The nuns at Ballybricken Convent, have opened an industrial home for 11 to 18 years of age.

The Bruff Land and Labour Association warmly pressing the claims of Mr. E. on the Kilmallock Guardians for the post of Relieving Officer for District.

At the quarterly meeting of the Co. Wholesale Society, held in Mant Saturday, a sum of £25 was subscribed for the Free Importation of Cattle Association of Great Britain.

A branch of the Irish Land Association has been formed at C. affiliating with the Central Council. O'Shea was chosen as Chairman, Mr. O'Connor, Treasurer, and Mr. P. Secretary.

The consideration of Mr. P. Lynch' "The Irish Poor Laws" will be taken by the Limerick Guardians next Wednesday

The Master of the Kilrush Workhouse to the guardians that he had received £16 7s. 10d. being the price of swine Limerick firm.

A woman in humble circumstances Mary Mahony of Caher, Abbeyfeale, had attained the age of 90 years. It is known that, through choice rather than necessity, this poor woman always slept on a chair for the past 20 years.

A movement to form a company on Suir to develop the wild fruit export of the district and establish a joint town is making satisfactory progress. The assistance of the promoters of the project was promised.

Another case of spotted fever was reported from Dublin yesterday.

An extensive fire occurred on Common, Surrey, yesterday afternoon of three miles being devastated.

Mr. James Comerton, B.A., is to give a lecture at the Catholic Literary Institute tomorrow evening on "The Electric Light and the X Rays."

It is stated to-day that the post office "Newstead," stranded on Beachy Head, is serious. The captain and crew were brought off by the lifeboat.

The twelfth game in the Liske chess match resulted in a victory for the home team after 44 moves.

The 2nd Battalion Royal Munster Fusiliers preceded by their fife and drum band, en route marching yesterday for the garrison from since their arrival in the garrison from a few weeks ago.

Lord William Neville, charged with £400 worth of jewellery by substitution of coal in a box where jewellery was substituted, was yesterday committed for trial for £5,000.

There were only two tenders before the Newport Guardians for the half yearly best Newport, Whitehaven or Cumberland to the workhouse. Mr. Morris quoted 23s. 10d. for Newport, and the old contractor Ryan, tendered at 25s. 10d. for Whitehaven, and 23s. 10d. for Cumberland. His tender