

day's Petty Sessions, Inspector M. or above Society, prosecuted Michael of Kihona, county Clare, for working it was suffering from a bleeding throat. Fined 5s., and costs 4s. Mrs. Crossagilla, Boherboy, for working while it was suffering from sores on the neck 5s. and costs 2s.

ZENANA MISSION.

Presbyterian Church

of Work isaid of the Zenana Mission on with the Irish Presbyterian Church this afternoon in the Lecture Hall of Lower Mallow Street. The Sale, under the management of the local work of the Church, embraces fancy tables, tea tables, cake and sweet table, ranged round the spacious hall, the very bright and artistic. One feature is the very fine, indeed assortment of conservatory and green- and blooms, amongst them daffodils, and ferns. Fancy and plain work and in great variety. Pretty fire-screens, big centres, embroideries, and drawn of various kinds, and children's are at the disposal of purchasers. Painted pictures are also on view. Folk cannot fail to be delighted in the arrangement, which is an exceptionally and contains dolls of all sizes. A large of plum and jam cakes, etc., has in for the cake and sweet table. The Sale is a very comprehensive one and a great source of attraction to the ring the afternoon between two and k. The Sale will be continued this from seven p.m.

RETURNED FOR TRIAL.

Irish yesterday. Anthony McInerney and for trial on bail of £160 on a charge of his brother-in-law, John F. Miller (e) at Kilarrol. The injured man with his head heavily bandaged, and the was that the injuries were inflicted by sed because he was angry at his sister's ation to sell the farm.

THE TEA DUTY

memorial is in preparation to be presented Chancellor of the Exchequer asking that ntial reduction should be made in the . The contention of the memorial is present duty based on the annual altogether excessive and burdensome humbler classes of taxpayers. The al has already been signed by some sixty s of Parliament.

ook to your food.

The perfect food is

RAPE-NUTS.

is attributed to some local in receiving in connection with an estate in the neighbourhood.

LIMERICK STUDENTS ORDAINED.

On Sunday last the Most Rev. the Lord Bishop of Ferns admitted to Holy Orders the Rev. James Aherne (Acton, U.S.A.) as deacon, and the Rev. W. J. Connolly (Kansas, U.S.A.). The Rev. Mr. Aherne is the son of the late Mr. J. Aherne, Cragg, Birdhill; and the Rev. Mr. Connolly is the son of the late Dr. Connolly, Ballycullane, Holy Cross, and brother of the Rev. Thomas Connolly, curate of Pallaskenry. Both gentlemen were educated at St. Munchin's College, and at St. Peter's College, Wexford.

THE ADDRESS TO MR. McNAMARA

There is on view in the windows of Messrs. Todd and Company, the illuminated address presented by the Postal and Telegraph officials to Mr. M. McNamara, late overseer, on the occasion of his retirement on pension. The address, which has been most artistically executed by Mr. W. Riordan, and enclosed in a massive gilt frame, contains a photo of the recipient, a Faithful Service Medal granted by his Majesty to Mr. McNamara, and views of the Post Office buildings in Cecil street and Hensy street.

OBITUARY.

Miss Curtin, Rathkeale.

The death occurred on Thursday of Miss Curtin, Matron of Rathkeale Workhouse, a lady who was highly esteemed by the Board, and who had the good will of the inmates. She had been ill only a fortnight, and died from pneumonia. The funeral took place to-day at Clonagh Burial Ground.

Mr P. Whelan.

Mr. Patrick Whelan, harness maker, for some years employed by Messrs J. N. Russell, and a resident of Francis street, passed to his rest last week, and the funeral on Sunday showed the great esteem in which he was held, the attendance being very large and representative.

Sir Victor Drummond.

Sir Victor Drummond, late British Minister Resident at Munich and Stuttgart, died at Munich yesterday morning.

Mr James Lawrence

The death is announced of Mr. James Lawrence, who has represented Kimberley in the Cape Colony House of Assembly since 1894.

Mr Mulcaire

Mr. James Mulcaire, Ballycough House, Askeaton, one of the most respected and popular gentlemen in West Limerick, has also passed away, and was buried on the 15th inst, at Kilmoylan graveyard, the funeral being one of the largest seen in West Limerick for a long time the line of carriages extending over a mile.

JAMES WEL
House, Land, and Insu
85, George Street, I

To Be Le

Building Sites.

At Corbally, in lots to s or investors.

Large House at Barra

Building Ground, situ
Barrack Hill and Colo
Lots suitable for investo

8 Victoria Terrace.

Immediate possession.

E. H. POE HOSFOR

House and Land Age
Receiver, 76 Geor
Limerick

TO BE LE

10 Victoria Ter

FURNISHED or unfurnis
drawing room, dining room bathroom, servants' room, kitchen stabling for 2 horses and coach ho particulars apply to

E. H. POE HOSFOR

76 George St

To be L

Robert-street.

Large Store, lately occ Bros. Rent moderate

Queen-street.

Two Stables (late Coor
Baker Place, off Queen
each yearly

69 Colooney Street.

Dwellinghouse, garden mises. House contain kitchen, w.c, etc. Rent of taxes.

Barrington Street.

Dwelling house and pre drawing room, dining room, 6 bedrooms, ser
kitchen, etc, stable
sanitary arrangements £60 yearly with taxes.

Taylor Street.

5 rooms, kitchen, yard
sanitary accommodation,
Rent, £15 monthly.

Flag Lane, Dominick

Dwellinghouse. Rent,

JAS. NASH

House and Land Agents, 85 Ge