IN MEMORIAM.

(2nd Anniversary)
In sad remembrance of my dearly loved husband, Thomas H. Faulkner, who died at 18 Upper Mallow Street, Sept. 19th, 1905.

Are you lonely up in heaven ;
Are you lonely as I am here ;
Or do you think of me as often
As I do of you, my dear ?

I often sit and think of you
When I am left alone,
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.

Could I forget—ah, no !
For memory's golden chain
Will bind my heart
To the heart that's gone
Till we meet to touch again,
But there dawns another morrow,
The morrow of God's love.
