

Stephens, representing a fair woman he dove on her shoulder. The pastel be of great value.

Hadland, waggoner, of Berkswell, irmingham yesterday from injuries while cycling. He was found lying on the roadway, with his bicycle marine on the battleship, Louisiana liao, made a disturbance ashore by cheers for the Irish flag, and was put bread and water diet.

Horrox, who resides at Amble-who is 91 years of age, claims to be Oddfellow in the world. He joined in 1845, and has been provincial ling secretary since 1861, although e duties are now performed by a able interest in both sporting and ircles has been aroused by the issue of to the wedding of Tod Sloan, the ckey, who is marrying Miss Julia n, an American actress.

ard Royal Mail steamer Lusitania, York at 6 p.m. on Saturday, with mails and specie.

iston Churchill has gone from France , and will sail for East Africa from on the 30th inst.

th took place at Swansea Hospital on of P. Norris, 48, who was seriously the explosion at Dalais Pit, Onllwyn his makes the third death.

aland's new Tariff Bill grants a pre-Great Britain equal to from 10 to 20 sleep on a form in a common lodging East Smithfield, Walter Grant ex-'Its all right; I'm as happy as the May.' Then he fell back dead from cabmen are said to have decided, a railway men strike, to subscribe 6d long as the strike lasts.

ted as not unlikely that stationmasters e, as they are very poorly paid, the Jury being under 52.

proposed to hold a conference of al en's unions at Manchester on October 5 represent 4,512 cases of cholera, 2,320 ended fatally, have been reported in onse to inquiries, Mr. Grover Clevetor admits that the condition of his very grave.

sequence of the rise in the price of flour s of Sunderland have decided to re price of bread from 2s to 2s 2d per ves.

officially announced that Mr. S. B.
Officer of the Imperial Order of the 1 the Sun of Persia (Summerhill, has been appointed Persian Consul for urteen pounds of potatoes planted by h Ward, of Halstead, three hundred unds have been dug up.

laint is being made to a good many of s marked "A present from Limerick" man origin and the purchasers do not he same complaint might be applied to e from which presents inscribed with of the city or town, can be sent. Kilkee le is full of this rubbish.

tty wedding took place on Monday 6th instant, at St. Michael's Church, ting parties being Mr. J. Desmond, n, McKern and Company, and Miss S. f Patrick street. The Rev. Father C.C. performed the happy ceremony, le being best man, and Miss Collopy, lition of five of the men injured in the DEATH OF COL. FINCH.

We regret to announce the death of Colonel Finch, which occurred suddenly to-day while driving from his residence, Maryville, to Patrickswell Petty Sessions, where he was an adjudicating magistrate for many years. On the journey to Patrickswell Mr. Finch was attended by a servant man, to whom he complained of a pain in the region of the heart.
Nothing, however, took place to give rise to apprehension till the railway gates close to the village were reached, when the poor gentleman suddenly collapsed and fell from the trap. When picked up life was found to be extinct, and the body was removed to the police barracks.

Colonel Finch, who enjoyed a wide sphere of popularity in the county, was about 75 years of age. He served in the County Militia for a considerable time, and retired with brevet rank some years ago. He was a kind and indulgent landlord; and very recently sold to his tenantry on equitable terms. In his capacity as an ex-officio member of the old Croom Board of Guardians his counsel was always sought, and later as an elected member of that body. He was married to a sister of the late Knight of Glin, for whom the greatest sorrow is expressed in the bereavement that has overtaken her and her family.

When the melancholy intelligence reached Patrickswell, the Petty Sessions Bench, which consisted of Messrs E. F. Hickson, R.M.; R.
Cooper, E. H. P. Hosford, and J. H. Ryan, adjourned as a mark of respect to the deceased gentleman's memory

FUNERAL OF MRS. M. DOOLEY.

The funeral of Mrs. Michael Dooley, Glen-thorne, Ennis Road, whose death occurred in Dublin on Saturday, took place at noon yesterday, and was attended by a large concourse of mourners. On Sunday the remains were removed from Dollymount to Navan R.C.
Church, where they rested overnight on a catafalque in front of the High Altar. At 9 o'clock yesterday morning solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated for the dead, and in the evening at 3 o'clock, the casket containing the body was transferred to Dunamoo cemetery for interment.
The cortege, which was large and representative, embraced several mourners from Limerick, who travelled all the distance to pay a final tribute of respect to the memory of a lady whose death was heard of with very keen regret in the city and county, and to whose husband and young family the condolence of the public are extended in their poignant grief.

The chief mourners were—Mr. Michael Dooley, husband; Mr. N. Smith, and Mr. M.
Smith, brothers; Mr. John O'Toole, brother-in-law; Mr. A. Coogan, and Mr. V. Coogan, nephews; Mr. James Dooley, Mr. Thomas S.
Lawlor, Mr. M. O'Toole, Mr. T. Ryan, B.C.; Mr. D. Moriarty, Limerick; Mr. D. Foley, Mallow, and Mr. H. F. Clayton, Dublin.

The Rev. Father O'Farrell, C.C. Navan, officiated at the graveside.

Wreaths were sent from her husband and children; Mr. and Mrs. John O'Toole, Mr. P.
Dooley and family; Mr. and Mrs. McNally, Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. T. S.
Lawlor, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bourke, Mr. and Mrs. William Riordan, Mr. E. H. Collopy, the staff of the Condensed Milk Company of Ireland, Limited, Limerick, and the staff of J. P. Evans and Company, Limerick amicably settled.

THE USE OF OIL ON WARSHIPS.

In connection with the increased use of ships of oil fuel, enormous tanks are constructed at Gosport, sufficient to continue at least 20,000 tons of oil. A creek is extensively dredged and opened out, so warships of all classes will be able to get near to be constructed, alongside which can lie while taking in their supplies of oil storage tanks near at hand.

A SHARP SENTENCE.

At Dartmouth to-day, Herman Sh German, and Michael Sanche, Spaniard, each fined £20 or three months' imprisonment for having been jointly exporters of 3 percussion caps on Messrs Forwood Bro-steamer Morocco. The accused were members of the crew, and their arrest was on the initiative of Forwood Bros. Shanks said he did not know he was breaking the law. S asserted that he had intended the ammunition for private use when he went ashore Morocco.

KIRKDALE DIVISION.

Mr. McArthur (Unionist) and Mr.
(Labour) were to-day nominated as P mentary candidates for the Kirkdale division Liverpool. The polling takes place on Fri-

Mr. Hunnable informed the Deputy Regular Officer that his agent had his election petition and he was going to find him. Later on Hunnable said he must withdraw from contest, as he had three papers filled up there was one bad name in each.

DISAPPEARED IN MID ATLANTIC.

New York, Monday.—The steamship Mi-neapolis, arriving to-day, reported that Mr.
R. Rogers, member of a London building disappeared in mid-Atlantic on Wednesday.

THE LUSITANIA.

A wireless message from the Lusitania Monday evening says the speed has been reduced owing to the thick fog. She had been making 22.53 knots.

BEDOUIB BANDS ATTACK.

Algiers, Monday.—A Colomb, Beol telegram reports an attack on a caravan Bedouin band near Taghit. The caravan was pillaged, and three men were killed.

KEIR HARDIE.

Calcutta, Tuesday.—Mr. Keir Hardie arrived, and was accorded an enthusiastic welcome by the Bengali papers.

LADY KELVIN.

There is now a decided improvement in Lady Kelvin's condition, but further good progress will necessarily be slow.

TRAFFICS.

Increase.—Great North of Scotland, £84