

int is the first consideration, and the studied. This pocket was first the purpose of carrying disinfectants, ess. or a dainty perfume, but it will very useful as a safe place in which r-small articles of valuable jewellery urney. In these days of pocketless b is extremely difficult to find a sa e to put one's purse, as the little led from the belt or wrist are so stolen. Another useful thing Miss howed our representative was a very he top of which fits the figure like a ll be very useful for walking or for indulging in athletic exercise. laced all round it and any frills can which the wearer may fancy, and uit one's conveniences. This is a arment for Princess gowns or the skirts as it does away with all un-unity cock fight between Antim and ranged to be brought off on one of close to Lough Neagh's banks on morning. A couple of hundred votaries "commandeered all the boats on the h the island, and when some dozen came on the scene it looked for a cock fighters were beyond the reach. The jeers of the crowd on the main l the police to take action. Peeling s they took to the water and swam nd, but the "sports" took hastily to id had dispersed long ere the police mainland.

FIGHT AND POLICE SWIM.

TABLE OCCASION.

Years Married.

ng has been sent for publication: 10th ANNIVERSARY.

D. JOHN.—Mr. and Mrs. John will celebrate the 70th Anniversary edding on the 3rd June next, and t home to all their relatives and their residence, 16 Albert Road, Park, London, from 4 to 5 o'clock y will receive their employees from Friends are particularly requested hat no further invitations will be to refrain from giving presents on n.

MISSING OF A VETERAN GOLFER

t Cathcart, Pitcairrie, Newburgh, tenant for the County of Fife, died ws on Monday night. Mr. Cathcart, ively an officer in the army, and took t in the affairs of the county, was dest members of the Royal and Club, and was captain of the club cannot say. Can any reader give e name of the composer of a entitled "Drunken Thady and p's Lady."

CORRESPONDENTS.

cent water, as this article being produced in factories fitted with the most modern machinery the water in it can be easily controlled, and the blenders can make it contain even as low as 16 per cent which is the limit for the other butter substitute—margarine."

OBITUARY.

Master T. Gilligan.

Much sympathy is felt for Mr. James Gilligan, Island-road, in the loss he has sustained in the death of his son Thomas. Deceased, who had reached his sixteenth year, contracted a chill some few months ago, and notwithstanding all that care and medical skill could do to avert a fatal termination, he passed peacefully away at the residence of his father at midday on Tuesday. The funeral, which took place to-day for Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, was very largely attended, and testified in a marked manner to the great sympathy that is felt for Mr. Gilligan and family in their bereavement. Rev. D. R. Shanahan, P.P. (St. Mary), Rev. Fr. Ray, and Rev. Fr. Wallace officiated at the graveside.

Mr. Michael Roche.

At the early age of 27 years, on Sunday, 19th inst., the lamented death of Mr. Michael Roche, occurred at the residence of his parents, Mauna Ballingarry. Deep sympathy is felt for the members of the bereaved family who are largely esteemed and deservedly popular. The remains, in a massive coffin, were on Tuesday removed from the R.C. Church, Ballingarry, where they rested overnight, to the cemetery close by where the interment took place in presence of a large number of sympathisers. The clergy of Knockadery parish were present.

Mrs. Condon.

The death of Mrs. Condon, a highly regarded lady brought feelings of poignant sorrow to the members of her family, and general regret amongst a large circle of friends. Her gentle, amiable, and kindly disposition endeared her to all, and she was a sincere benefactress to the poor, who will long mourn her loss. She was a member of an old and respected Co. Limerick family. The cortege was one of the largest ever seen in the district, the interment taking place at Kilscauell.

The clergymen present were—Rev. Fr. Gleeson, P.P., Kilcolman; Rev. Fr. Brosnahan, C.C., do.; Rev. Fr. Hallinan, P.P., Ardagh.

Chief mourners were—James Condon, John Condon, solr, Newcastle-west; Patrick Condon J.P. (sons); Thomas Hogan, Ballinacurra, Limerick (brother), Michael Madigan, Rathkeale (son-in-law), Michael Madigan, junior, and the Misses Madigan (four), (grandson and granddaughters), Mrs. R. Coll, Maidstone Castle (niece), James Dore, Stephen and John Muleair (nephews), John O'Neill, J.P., Co. Council, Bansa; John King, Limerick (nephews-in-law, G. McElligott, J.P., Mount-rivers, Listowel; Terence Riordan, James Riordan, Michael Liston (cousins), J. Condon, Knockadery, the Misses Condon, Ballyallinan Castle; Dr. R. P. Condon, Newcastle West; T. Condon, Clounskohane; O. Hogan, Ardagh (cousins); Richard Condon, Ardrie; Mrs. Noonan, Rathkeale; Mr. James Walsh, do.

The Templemore Council have closed with a tender from Mr. Thomas Kennedy for 800 tons of stones at 1s 5d per ton.

WHICH OF COURSE JAMES, was competing in a race at the mouth of yesterday, a seaman named Isaac native of Gosport, was killed by the mast to the deck. The yacht ab race.

The whole Liberal Press of the unanimous in expressing its regret t Council Bill was not accepted.

A boy of twelve, who was excited Marseilles bull fight on Sunday, lost and fell into the arena. He was ch bull, and so badly gored that he is n to recover.

An advance party of the Lin Artillery proceeded to Fort Camde to pitch the tents for the training o which commences on 27th instant.

The Dean of St. Paul's rallied sli day, and passed a comfortable day.

The 'Dublin Gazette' announce Lord Lieutenant has been pleased under his hard bearing date the 2 May, 1907, to appoint Mr. Paul A. B Crown Solicitor for the Queen's Cou

Going on to the railway near M yesterday to get a marble, a four named Arthur Biggins, was killed by Arrested at Mamier, France, on acting as a spy for a foreign Power soldier has made a full confessic indicated the persons with who responded.

A village with no public houses, p or school! Such is the description c in-the-Moor, Devonshire.

QUARTER SESSIC

The Trinity Quarter Sessions for t on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. crown business to occupy the time of

NEW TEMPERAN BUILDING.

The plans of the proposed new Society in Lower Cecil street were t the Public Health Committee last n Peacocke, City Surveyor. The bui is to stand on the site now serving t of the Temperance Society's room doubtedly held a distinctive an appearance to the thoroughfare, whi a long felt want among the trade classes in St. Michael's parish. Th which were executed in the offices o Sheehy, were favourably commente Committee, who referred the Peacocke.

PRESENTATIO

On Tuesday afternoon a pleasant li was brought off at O'Meara's Hotel, occasion being the presentation of and up-to-date travelling case, fully Mr. S. H. Lewis, late sub-manager at branch of the Munster and Leinster some months ago was removed on p Charleville. Mrs. Lewis was also of a valuable diamond and emeral sent by a number of her lady fr Nenagh.