ARRIVAL OF THE LUCANIA.

Queenstown, Friday.
The Cunarder Lucania from New York passed Queenstown at 12.55 this afternoon without calling owing to the heavy weather.

THE CLARE HOUNDS.

On Tuesday, the 24th inst, the hounds met at Newmarket, where a rather small field greeted the gallant and popular Masters. The compliments of the season having been passed round, a move was made for Crussa, where the enlargement had been decided on. When released the deer dallied a little, but soon got under way, and it seemed as if Drouline were her first point. Having been given good law, when the hounds were laid on they lost no time in settling down, and in was soon evident there was a burning scent for we raced by Moygullane and on to dear old Killulla. Our quarry now took to the road for a mile or so, but the pack never faltered. Soon Caherbane was left behind and we were galloping over the green pastures of Kilmallery with the stiff hill of Glenagh before us, beyond which in "The Fergus" this good deer was unfortunately lost. This was a great hunt, the time being under 30 minutes, and the distance over 6 miles.

With the sports of the field there's no pleasure can vie,
While jocund we follow the hounds in full cry.

Amongst those out were :—Capt. S. O'Grady and Mr. W. H. Ball, (masters) ; Lady B. O'Brien, Capt. and Mrs. Brady-Browne, Mr. G. H. Walton, The Misses Studdert (Ballyhanpan), Mr. W. Brady Browne, Mr. Hewitt, Mr. Dawson, etc.

CITY LABOURERS' THEFT

Messrs. E. F. Hickson, B.M., and A. Hall were the adjudicating magistrates at the City Petty Sessions yesterday when Joseph Reidy, labourer, Boherbuoy, was charged on remand with highway robbery.

The evidence tendered by Constable Sullivan went to show that on Saturday evening the accused snatched a basket of groceries from Maria
