

Wednesday next, by Orby (9-8) and by Georgetown (7-13). The English Derby winner will be ridden by W. Bullock, and Georgetown by H. Simpson.

At the recent Post-Office examination, held at Dublin in April last, Master David Thomas O'Mara, Kiltcealy, Co. Limerick, secured 1,491 marks out of a possible 1,500, thereby obtaining fifth place in Ireland.

Mr. Joseph Edelstein, ex-Secretary of East Rand Branches of the Transvaal National Association, and Hon. Sec. of the Zionist Association, is visiting Limerick, and will shortly deliver an address entitled "The Present Political Situation in the Transvaal."

The Public Health Committee, at its meeting last night decided to recommend an increase of £50 a year in the salary of Mr. Peacocke, as Executive Sanitary Officer.

A largely attended meeting has been held at Castlegregory, Co. Kerry, to promote a subscription in aid of the families of the two men, Deady and O'Connor, who were drowned off Brandon fishing station, and a committee has been formed to carry out the matter.

With a view to putting a stay on the emigration to the Colonies of members of their community, the Select Vestry of St. Mary's Church, Kilarney, adopted a resolution approving of the action of the General Synod in passing a resolution in favour of lending money to Yeomen farmers.

Statements are published in Washington that a proposal has been drafted for settling the question between the United States and Great Britain with regard to the Newfoundland fisheries.

It is stated that, at Mr. Redmond's request, Mr. Donovan has withdrawn his candidature for North Monaghan, so that Mr. Lardner, the other Nationalist candidate, will be returned unopposed.

The English railways and the Admiralty have this week entered the Scotch coal market for supplies owing to the inflated prices named by English and Welsh coal masters.

The engagement is announced between Miss Fanny Newman, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Newman, of Limerick, and Mr. Joseph Edelstein of Dublin and Africa, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Edelstein of Canada and Ireland.

INDUSTRIAL CONFERENCE.

A meeting was held at the Town Hall last night in reference to the proposed Industrial Conference in Limerick in November. Sir A. W. Shaw presided, and thanked those present for having recently elected him President of the Association. A question arose as to the expenses of the Conference, and after some conversation the arrangement of details was eventually left with a committee.

NO INTENTION OF RETIRING.

Mr. Wilson, Mr. Chamberlain's secretary, told a Press representative yesterday that the right hon. gentleman had in no way abandoned the idea of again returning to Parliamentary life. Reports as to Mr. Chamberlain's health are reassuring.

enjoying their busy day as Mr. ... "Telegraph" correspondent. Every morning Queen Victoria Eugenie walks through the beautiful gardens with the Prince of Asturias in the arms of his nurse at her side. King Alfonso frequently plays golf with Dr. Glensdining, who, it must be confessed, is generally the winner.

POLICE COURT.

At the Police Court this morning, before Mr. Hickson, R.M., two tramps named P. Quilligan and Stephen Hehir were charged under the Vagrancy Act with being asleep in an open hall at five o'clock this morning. The accused were sentenced to a months imprisonment each.

FUNERAL OF MISS MABEL McARTHUR.

The funeral of the late Miss Mabel McArthur took place yesterday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of her parents, Mountain View, Laurel Hill, for St. Munchin's Churchyard. The cortege, which was of large dimensions, embraced representatives of all classes and creeds, and as it passed through George street the blinds of the three monster houses and other premises were drawn as a mark of respect to the family of the deceased lady.

The chief mourner was—Mr. William A. MacArthur (father).

Amongst the general public were—Messrs. Archibald Murray, E. C. Winter, V.S.; W. Gadd, T. A. Ferguson, G. Owens, P. Toppin, S. E. Lee, J.P.; W. M. Kidd, P. O'Connor, M. Brennan, W. Woodhouse, G. Belshaw, W. J. McNab, F. Cockburn, D. Simpson, J. Hartnett, M. O'Loughlin, A. DePrins, M. O'Connell, J. M'Namara, P. Snell, A. J. Barnett, Captain Kimmitt, J. M'Mahon, W. Thompason, A. Rowand, J. Beckett, M. Egan, C. H. Fitt, E. G. Fitt, James Joynt, P. Hartigan, P. Gleeson, P. Bookby, D. S. Waters, R. Evans, W. Cooke, J. Clelland, G. Hill, J. Page, H. O'Leary, J. Higgins, Dr. Laird, C. Cross, T. Ewart, John Browne, R. Hassett, Ennis; Mr. W. P. Mountmemmet; A. Crawford, Kidderminster; P. Frost, F. Crows, T. Curry, T. Rice, A. Gleeson, J. Bruce, D. L. Roche, J.P.; M. Lalor, D. Enright, S. O'Connor, J. Lynch, J. Clune, T. McInerney, J. Hewson, W. Owens, R. Parsons, R. Belshaw, R. T. Lavery, Mr. Goodwin, and numerous others.

Wreaths and flowers were sent by the following—With deepest sympathy, from Miss Mulligan and pupils of Madame de Prins' College. Deepest sympathy, from the members of North Masonic Club. With loving sympathy, from Chrissie Bell, Kitty Bruce. With deepest sympathy, from Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Belshaw. In loving remembrance, from E. C. Vokes. With loving sympathy, from "Nan" Walsh. With affectionate remembrance, from Mr. and Mrs. Lawlor. With deepest sympathy, from the buyers and superintendents of W. Todd and Co. With deepest sympathy, from Mr., Mrs. and Miss de Prins. With deep sympathy from the worshipful Master, Wardens, and Brethren Excelsior, Lodge, 268. Miss Murray, with much sympathy. In deep sympathy, from the North Munster Presbytery; Miss Ferguson, Miss End Waters, Mrs. O'Neill, Mrs. Gleeson, "Coggie, Lelia, and Gerard."

Rev. Mr. Smith was the officiating clergyman