

inst the liability.

HTS FOR TO-NIGHT AND TO-MORROW.

think nobly of human nature
pefully of the Providence of God.

Robertson.

a way of killing truth by truths.

Amiel.

VS-NOTES AND NOTIONS.

A NICE CAR.

I not met for some time. "You've a motor-car, I hear?" "Yes," replied without enthusiasm—"yes," "Ah. Nice eyes; nice car, thanks"—still the same manner. "What make?" "Make? Jacques-Billings-Thompson-King-Grudge-ekson-Harrington-Jones." "Pretty com- Never heard of that make before." "I That comprises the names of the pair men who have had a shot at it since the infernal thing."

OMINOUS NUMBER THIRTEEN.

of the Baroness Burdett-Coutts leaves en Peeresses in their own right, and rded as rather an ominous number by m. It is suggested that the King might y by adding to the number, and this ly be the outcome. Only three Peeresses that were conferred upon themselves. e—Lady Hambleden, the widow of the . H. Smith, and Lady Macdonald, widow Macdonald, Prime Minister of Canada, to the Peerage on account of the eminent their respective husbands. The Baroness bears an old title revived in her favour er being the heiress of a long line of se last heir was killed in battle. It is at the Crown still retains the prerog- anting life Peerages to women, as was en the reign of James I., and that of although they cannot be given to men. hat is so or not, it would be easy to e names of distinguished women, who are elieve the Peeresses in their own right of iety with respect to their Association umber thirteen.

HE TROUBLES OF MILLIONAIRES.

egie has told us that millionaires have ables, one of which arises from the oportunities of beggars. The late Lady utts was much worried in this way, and required the services of two or three to deal with her correspondence, and the v of a large part of her income. In like College Youths on Saturday. They rang a peal of "Kent Treble Bob Maximus," 5,088 changes, composed by H. W. Haly, a former member of the Society. The ringing occupied about four hours.

CLARE MEDICAL SUCCESSSES.

Among the Irish candidates successful at the quarterly examinations of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh, the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh and the Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons, Glasgow, held recently in Edinburgh, was:—First examination, five years' course, Charles L. Ievers, Co. Clare.

ACCIDENT AT ENNIS STATION.

Late on Friday night an elderly man named John Moore, who gave an address at Park, Limerick, was admitted to the County Infirmary, Ennis, suffering from injuries to one of his legs. The unfortunate man had been putting a cow into a waggon at one of the sidings, and while returning to the main platform was caught by some waggons, which were being shunted, and one of them passed over the leg, mangling it.

BARRINGTON'S HOSPITAL

The meeting of the Governors of Barrington's Hospital summoned for yesterday was not held owing to Corporation representatives not having yet been selected. The selection will be made at the meeting on Thursday night, and as a consequence the Governors present had to adjourn the meeting until Saturday, at twelve o'clock. The Governors present yesterday were—Sir Charles B. Barrington, Bart., Dr. George Fogerty, and Mr. W. L. Stokes, J.P.

DEATH OF MRS. C. O'SULLIVAN.

We record with very sincere regret the death of Mrs. Jane O'Sullivan, wife of Mr. Christopher O'Sullivan, proprietor of the "Limerick Echo," which occurred early yesterday morning at his residence, Sarsfield Street, after a brief illness, though she had not been in good health lately. The sympathy of a wide circle of friends goes out to Mr. O'Sullivan, his son, and relatives in their great sorrow. The remains are to be removed to St. Michael's R.C. Church at eight o'clock this evening, and the funeral is at three o'clock on Wednesday, for Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

ROBBERY FROM A R.C. CHURCH.

On Saturday night, John O'Connor, described as a tramp, was lodged in Limerick Prison, charged with a sacrilegious outrage at Murroe on Thursday last. The Catholic Church near that village was entered, and the chalice and other articles of church use stolen. The accused is stated to have been seen about the church, and on a description he was arrested in Tipperary on Friday, brought before a magistrate at Newpallas and remanded in custody for trial at the next Newpallas Petty Sessions. Some of the stolen property has been recovered.

A PAUPER'S RIGHTS.

May a workhouse master detain an inmate to 6lb.

The Interprovincial Hockey clubed at Park avenue on 8 Leinster defeated Connaught nothing, and Ulster defeated Mun to nothing.

Among recent Irish inventions relating to heating and cooking by Mr. W. Sandbach of The Connell, Co. Limerick.

The trustees of the Irish Parliament Fund have received £4,000 in t Australia per Dr. O'Donnell, of be included in last year's (1906) ac

A Reuter's telegram from Coburg the Grand Duchess Cyril of Russia the late Duke of Edinburgh) g daughter on Saturday.

Judge Mansel Jones, who h stroke while sitting at Sheffield C Wednesday, died on Saturday. B 1836, called to the Bar in 1859, County Court Judge in 1902.

Mrs. M'Caghan, of Grange, Co. lying ill confided to a friend hidden her money. The hoard cealed in a hole in the wall of the had been carefully cemented ov wall was broken open over £300 and notes was found.

Attention was directed at the Development Association to a material which, it was stated, was tised and sold as "Donegal twee decided to take action in th Association has decided upon Irish National Trade Mark in the dom and other countries.

An Irish Command order, Saturday, directs that when civ surgeons are employed at a s pharmacy exists they are to use the pharmacy, and not provide c without first obtaining the s Principal Veterinary Officer, Iris

An extraordinary scene was w on Saturday afternoon, when a s the Ward Hounds, dashed at fu the streets of the town, followe pack in full cry. The stag j Boyne and made its escape good Constable Love, R.I.C., stati has been promoted to the rank a Sergeant.

Mr. V. A. H. M'Cowen, electr the Corporation of Belfast, has pointed to a similar position for Salford at a salary of £800, r increments of £100 to £1,000. a native of Tralee.

At the recent examinations University Medical School, Dub names of the students who ha third examination, is that of Mr second son of Mr. John M street, Nenagh.

There is probably no book bel to the domain of English Cl Messrs Ward Lock and Co. do one useful, handy, and reasonb We have in front of us a copy most attractively illustrated would recommend our readers t publishers for a copy of this l medium 4to list, which is s address is Warwick House, S London E.C

Countess De Vesci, Hon. F