

and Mrs. E. G. Stokes, silver cruet.
 Kelly, R.M. gold horseshoe pin.
 and Mrs. John Murphy (Liverpool) ental vase.
 Cromer, silver toast rack.
 and Mrs. Dargan, silver candlesticks.
 Lawless, silver hot water jug.
 Murphy, picture of the Sacred Heart.
 Moore, silver trinket box.
 Comyn, silver mounted decanter.
 and Mrs. Ward, silver fruit spoons, Tyndall, silver napkin rings.
 Raymond Stephenson, Japanese coffee cups.
 Misses White, afternoon tea spoons.
 Mulqueen (Clarina), cushion. and Mrs. P. Sheahan, silver cup and Mrs. Westropp O'Callaghan, silver scoop.
 and the Misses Nolan, silver matchbox
 s.
 Andrews, framed picture. s., the Misses, and Mr. Potter, silver rose-and Mrs. P. A. Hearn, dinner gong. for Frost (Bakloh, India), silver vases.
 ne Friends, silver-mounted bread platter knife.
 and Mrs. M. deCourcy, silver cake basket.
 s. and Miss Gloster, pierced silver salt
 s.
 Plunkett, silver spoons.
 other Ignacius Ryan, prayer-book, glove andkerchief satchet.
 and Mrs. Shanahan, silver muffin dishes.
 unt and Countess Plunkett, travelling
 s. and Miss Frost, silver grape scissors.
 s. Kearney and Mr. F. E. Kearney, curio set.
 and Mrs. Lloyd, silver tea set.
 and Mrs. Brophy, silver photo frame.
 s. O'Callaghan, silver-mounted oak salad
 s.
 and Mrs. D. O'C. Fitzsimon, silver photo
 s. ie Misses O'Halloran, carver rests.
 as Boyle, inkstand.
 other Brady, clock.
 s. Carew, picture of the Sacred Heart.
 r. and Mrs. T. F. Molony, silver fruit dish.
 r. and Mrs. Purcell, cushion.
 r. and Mrs. Sullivan, afternoon tea spoons tongs.

BROTHERLY "LOVE."

ie unhappy spectacle was witnessed at the ourers Cottage Inquiry at Kilrush this week recently reinstated evicted tenant named Killen opposing the application of his her for a dwelling and plot on their own r's land.
 uestioned by the Inspector, the objector ad-ed he had no status as the investigation, his sister was ill and could not appear to ose.
 he labourer said he thought he had a stronger
 n to go on his father's land than anyone.
 He was born there, and it was also his that he should die in the old spot.

LUSITANIA'S SPEED.

he Lusitania arrived at Liverpool yesterday, ing done the journey from New York in four s twenty-two hours and fifty minutes, a rd. Average daily speed, 23.62 knots an r.

n express train from Toulouae to Paris was l up near Etampes early yesterday morning.
 robbers seriously wounded two railway loyees, and escaped with a large sum belong-he Railway Company.

DEATH OF MR. RICHARD P. M. POWER

We record with very sincere regret the death of Mr. Richard Pierce M. Power, eldest son of our highly esteemed fellow-citizen, Mr. John F.
 Power, which took place at his residence Lifford yesterday morning. The young gentleman had been in failing health for some twelve months back, and his demise was consequently not unexpected. Of a very bright, genial and courteous manner he won the regard and esteem of a host of friends, young and old, and his death in the prime of youth is deeply regretted in the city and county. Widespread sympathy goes forth to Mr. and Mrs. Power and family in the loss of a loved son.

The funeral will take place to-morrow (Sunday) at 10 o'clock.

Hunt Meet Cancelled

Owing to the lamented death of Mr. Power, the meeting of the hunt fixed for Monday next at Lickadoon, has been cancelled.

Mr. Alphonsus Quin.

We regret to record the death of Mr. Alphonsus Quin, which sad event occurred at the residence of his father, 1 Keeper View Terrace, Ashlunkard Street, on Wednesday, after a long illness, borne throughout with Christian fortitude. Deceased was a member of the Shannon Football Club, and was beloved by all for his quiet unassuming manner. The funeral, which took place yesterday, was attended by a large number of sympathisers, and testified in a marked degree to the esteem in which deceased was held. Wreaths were sent by the Shannon F.C. and Messrs. Christy and Sons, George Street.

Mr. M. Pigott.

It is with deep regret we announce the death of Mr. Michael Pigott, junr., which sad event took place at his residence, Crosby Row, on Wednesday. Deceased, who was a general favourite among his many friends, was in ill-health for the past few weeks, and peacefully passed away at a comparatively early age. The funeral took place yesterday, some beautiful wreaths being sent from the firm of McCarthy and Sons, George Street, Young Munster F.C., etc.

DEATH OF MISS NEALON

We regret to announce the demise of Miss Maria Josephine Nealon of Ballinacorra, a lady who will be deeply mourned. She was a sister of Dr. J. A. Nealon, London, and of the late Sir Major P. J. Nealon, R.A.M.C. and cousin of the late Dr. Jennings, Ennis, and sister-in-law of Mr.
 J. Larnihan, H.M. Customs, this city.

CONDITION OF MRS. WHITE.

The morning papers to-day all declare that there is no hope for Mr. White, mother of Mr.
 White Blake (who was wounded last Sunday when returning from Mass) a serious complications had arisen.

We are happy to be in a position to contradict this, and to state that there is every hope of the injured lady's recovery. A friend of the family asks us to say that by means of the X rays Dr.
 Kennedy, who was telegraphed for, has been able to locate the existence of an abscess arising from the wound, from which there was considerable inflammation, and that the abscess being excised there has been a great improvement in the condition of the patient, who it is now hoped and believed, will pull through, a thing which all her many friends will earnestly hope.

At Ennis yesterday, before
 P. J. Linnane and C. L. Ryan.

Mr. John Cullinan, C.S., had John C.
 Bushey Park, summoned for having un-stolen and carried away a quantity of timber lands at Cragleagh, on November Defendant was also charged with break-destroying trees.

Mr. Cullinan appeared for the comp-and Mr. Hunt for the defendant.

Wm. Sullivan, son to the herd at Crasaid he saw the defendant on the Cragleagh with a car load of timber.
 him cut the timber, which was growing the wall of the lawn.

Michael Fitzpatrick said he asked the dant why he cut the timber, and de-replied that he had a right to cut it. He him if he had "noticed" Mr. Cullinan was going to cut them, and he said he He said he would cut the timber in witness or Mr. Cullinan. He had solicitor, and would not give him the Witness did not actually see defendant timber.

Mr. Cullinan said when he heard th of the occurrence he wrote to Casey as not want any bother. He saw Cas morning and asked him did he deser conduct, and Casey said he would cut epile f him as the trees belonged landlord. Complainant said the landl no claim on the trees, and that neit contractor nor County Surveyor had cut them. Defendant said he would but.

Mr. Hunt submitted that the defenda discharge of his duty as a road contr entitled to cut the trees.

After considerable discussion it wa to adjourn the case for the appearan Co. Surveyor, Mr. Dobbin.

MAIN ROADS PROPOS

At the meeting of the Limerick
 Council to-day,

Mr. Coleman proposed for a declarathere be no main roads in the county, each rural district provide for its own nents. He contended that the chan mean an all-round advantage in local tration.

Mr. Bourke seconded the motion.
 Mr. J. H. Ryan, as an amendmen that the main roads declaration be n until 1909, nor after that date.

Mr. P. C'Shaughnessy seconded th ment.

Mr. Hayes, in supporting the amend this was a bogey of Mr. Coleman's, f the face of the public to show what an he was, whereas he had been increas during the past three years.

Mr. Coleman repudiated the statem said he treated Mr. Hayes' observati contempt.

On a division the voting was for th ment—Lord Emly, Messrs. J. B. Barri Clancy, B. C. Collins, P. Hayes, T. I
 W. Ryan, E. Mitchell, W. W. O'
 O'Shaughnessy and J. H. Ryan—11.

Against—Messrs. J. Bourke, J.
 P. O'Shaughnessy, M. Feheeney, P. Nat
 The resolution was declared defeate

DOCK STRIKE AT ROTTERDAM SETT

A Reuter telegram from Rotterda states:—At a meeting of the dockers decided to accept the terms of the J Union and to resume work.