under the Estates Commissioners, who has been engaged on the estate since Tuesday last. Public interest was much aroused by the reinstatements during the past few days, which were effected at the rate of about ten per day, but greater expedition was not possible as two police protection posts on evicted lands had to be disbanded, and cattle and hay, the property of the landlord, had to be removed.

The following are typical cases of the new arrangement, as compared with the old:—John Connell, purchase annuity, £29 5, Rent, £50 18s. 6d; Michael Purtil, £29 15s and £14 10s; S. Gibson, £9 15s and £20; Patrick Mahony, £8 2s 6d and £21; George Copland, £29 5s and £75. The tenants thus begin again on the old holdings at considerably reduced terms, and the annuities go towards buying out the holdings.

WEST HAM SCANDALS

Trial of Accused May be Postponed

At the next sessions of the Central Criminal Court, to which the persons charged in connection with the West Ham scandals have been committed, an application will be made by the Treasury that the case be postponed till the April Sessions, and the defendants and witnesses concerned have been notified of this fact.

THE JENA.

Over 200 Missing.

It is officially stated that seven officers were killed in the "Jena" disaster. 205 officers and men are missing.

THE OOLA FATALITY

At an inquest held at Oola, Co. Limerick, on the body of Michael Treacy, farmer, of Cluggan, who was killed by the overturning of his cart while on his way home from Tipperary fair on Tuesday, the jury on Thursday returned a verdict of accidental death.

AN EYE ON GERMANY

Mr. Mitchell Thomson asked the Foreign Secretary in the House of Commons if he would ensure that any agreement between Germany and the United States should not operate adversely to British trade.

Sir E. Grey promised such communication as might be required.

When the horse and cart of a pedlar named Lesueur reached Chalons sur-Marne, something wrong was noticed with the driver, who had the reins tightly clasped in his fingers. It was discovered that he had died suddenly on the road.
