

...er skaters may have another thing that only the clerk of can tell. Most of us liked weather, though cold and the same time it brought in to the very poor, amongst a deal of desolation at the high dearth of employment. In his point of view the advent to be welcomed.

DGE DEAD.

Decision.

Mr. O'Dwyer and others in the payment of rates to the the grounds of being excessive at the Kiltrush Quarter late County Court Judge of which was to be given in Quarter Sessions subsequently had not been given owing which, was mentioned at the sessions, before County Court C., by Mr. Cullinan, B.L., yesterday.

It adjourned to the next

EXCHANGE TURNS

11 Thomas street, has issued wing the highest and lowest from 1898 to 1907. The list is fully indexed as well as becalculated form is most comprehensive which is pocket size should equators and others.

DRUCE CASE.

was dismissed by Mr. Plowden Herbert Druce was thanked having allowed the grave to be with the annual distribution of the pupils of the town ristian Brothers' Schools, Kilright in connection with which ety entertainment was given of the schools. Numerous to the successful pupils under system, and stirring speeches port of the Christian Brothers on McInerney, P.P.V.G.; Mr. P.P.; Mr. James McDonnell and a and others.

TION OF PRIZES

OR CORRESPONDENT.)

USE

CENTENARIAN

taken place at Hailsham in Veness, who if she had would have celebrated her re could read and sew without es.

ing breach of promise of marriage brought before him next Thursday. It is at the suit of Miss Murrhy, of Clonreddan, in the parish of Coarclara. The defendant is Pat Burns, of Tullycorine, a shopkeeper and postmaster for the district. The case was heard at the October Quarter Sessions before Mr. Edward Cumming, K.O., acting for Judge Kehoe, County Court Judge for Clare, then dangerously ill, when the fair young lady was awarded £65 for her wounded feelings. That evening Judge Kehoe died so no decree could be signed.

Yesterday when the business of the Sessions was being arranged for the week at the Kiltrush Quarter Sessions Mr. H. Crowe, B.L., mentioned the case in accordance with the facts stated.

His Honor said it would be now considered as an adjourned case—half heard.

Mr. Killeen, solicitor for Burns, said this took him by surprise (laughter).

Thursday afternoon was fixed for hearing the action.

DEATH OF MR. PATRICK SHEEDY.

The staffs of the CHRONICLE, literary, composing and commercial, have heard with very sincere regret of the death of a member of their body, Mr. Patrick Sheedy, compositor, who passed away at his residence, the Strand, on Sunday night. Mr. Sheedy belonged to a family who have been very largely identified with the printing trade in Limerick and elsewhere. He himself commenced his apprenticeship in the "Chronicle" (where his father spent something like forty years at the case, before being pensioned off a year or two ago), about the year 1886, and proved himself a very able and intelligent craftsman, while his genial manner, good nature, and a desire to please, made him most popular with his fellow workers in this office, and, indeed, with all who had the pleasure of knowing him. Two years ago or more he had to retire from active work owing to failing health. His death was not unexpected, but passing away in the prime of life, his loss is deeply mourned. We sympathise with his widow and family in their sorrow. The funeral took place this afternoon from St. Munchin's B.C. to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, and was very largely attended. There was a full representation of the typographical staff (as well as the literary and commercial departments) of the "Chronicle," and other newspapers in the city, as well as the printing trade generally. Besides these was a large attendance of the residents of Thomondgate where the deceased was so well and popularly known and highly esteemed. The coffin was strewn with handsome wreaths sent by his fellow workers and other friends. The chief mourners were—The widow of deceased and other relatives. The clergy present were—Fathers Begley and Casey, O.C., St. Munchin's.

EXTENSIVE HAY BURNING

Information has reached Roscommon that about 300 tons of hay, the property of Mr. John Connell, J.P., Lecarrow was burned on Sunday night, which was ricked on grazing land held by Mr. Connell near St. John's.

COUNCILLORSHIP.

Matthew McInerney, blacksmith, Alley, East.
James O'Connor, jeweller, 2 Patrick
Patrick J. Molloy, clerk of works, Row.
John Kirby, pig buyer, 17 Charlotte
Patrick Bourke, builder, 19 Patrick (outgoing).
John McNamara, grocer, No. 1 Rutl
Joseph Ryan, hairdresser, 9 Rutland (outgoing).
Robert Dorman, assurance company in 2 Washington terrace, New st.
John McMahon, timber merchant, a mill proprietor, Robert st. and Corbally
James Wallace, wood turner, 14 street,
Timothy Ryan, business manager, 126 street (outgoing).

ABBAY WARD.

ALDERMANSHIP.

Alderman John O'Brien, stevedore (outgoing)
John Slattery, packing case maker Street.
Joseph P. Lynch, cabinet maker, 2 Be Street.
Michael Shanahan, sand and gravel for Sir Harry's Mall.
John Quilligan, grocer, 1 Nicholas St

COUNCILLORSHIP.

John Shanahan, sand dealer, 5 Sir Harry (outgoing).
John Kerr, Mayor, 34 New Clare Street (outgoing).
James Gilligan, pigbuyer, Island Road
Patrick F. M'Namara, mason, 39 Mar
Charles Moore, law clerk, 30 Ne Street.
Michael McDonnell, grocer, 23 Nichol (outgoing).

DOCK WARD.

ALDERMANSHIP.

John Hayes, B.C., builder, 1 Munster
Daniel McNeice, junr., clerk, 7 Harb (outgoing).

COUNCILLORS.

Patrick Kennedy, builder, Maryville.
Michael Cuddihy, diver, 4 Bowms (outgoing).
James Bourke, agent, Windmill stree
Michael Doyle, builder's manager, Ne
William Whelan, mechanical engine Pleasant Avenue (outgoing).
Thomas Mahony, engine fitter, 16 street.
Richard P. O'Connor, compositor, 2 street (outgoing).
Michael O'Brien, warehouse keeper, Terraces.

Patrick Kenny, builder, Carlisle Terr

CASTLE WARD.

COUNCILLORSHIP.

Patrick O'Keefe, insurance agent
Thomond Dwellings.
Eugene Joseph Long, gentleman, Er (outgoing).
John Halpin, grocer, Parade.
John Reidy, grocer, 14 North Strand.
Thomas Meany, coal merchant, Cr (outgoing).