

once fired on the regicides, three killed on the spot. King and his son were taken into arsenal, where they died shortly. They had been struck by three was wounded in three places. Prince was also hit in three places, and in the breast. The infant struck in the side, in the jaw, and in was dead before he reached the l. The Crown Prince was still iried almost immediately

he Regicides.

ly officer of the King, Sinhor guera, who was walking near the ge, ficed and killed. One of the uother of the regicides was killed near the town hall. The bodies en are now in the Town Hall. Their are not been established but they foreigners. One is a Spaniard and Frenchman. The weapons which re repeating carbines of 44 millire, with five chambers. Both had six carbines under their cloas- of the assassination spread through b great rapidity. All the business its and cafes were immediately at grief and indignation are ex the dead. The streets are almost d the electric trams are running sengers. to the Throne is now the Infanta l, who is 18 years of age. neta will assume the regency during ### neral Mourning.

Lisbon, Sunday, 2.5 p.m. members of the better to do classes trets to-day were wearing mourning King and Crown Prince, and the town ect of sorrow unprece dented in its bodies of King Carlos and the Crown ing in the same room at the Palace e of the suite occupied by the King ime.—Reuter.

Lisbon, Sunday, 2.30 p.m. vic official publishes a Royal decree blic mourning to be observed for four overment offices and all places of are to be closed for eight days, and y of the funeral of the late rown Prince, the date of which will be y. g has been officially decreed, and many sign of mourning is visible. ly ng at half mast, and guns are being ssals of a quarter of an hour from sses and ships. King Manuel will r a Council of State to-day. As his s already passed his eighteenth birth will be no Regency. from Oporto state that the population rreased at the news, and the Civil s receiving many expressions of con### e Leader Identified.

arent leader of the regicides—the led man who shot the Crown Prince ine, and was himself killed—has been s Manuel Bruca, 30 years of age, an t of the 7th Cavalry, who had been school teacher at Viuhar, and for the eurs a private teacher in Lisbon. The ides who were killed were apparently

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. R. SMITH.

The funeral of the late Mr. Richard Smith took place on Sunday from his late residence, Thomas street, for the family burial place at Kilkeedy. The demise of Mr. Smith, cut off as he has been in the prime of life, and after a short illness, is deeply felt by a very wide circle of friends, with whom by his frank, manly and genial manner he was extremely popular. The funeral was of unusual proportions, and fully representative of the city and county, testifying to the widespread sympathy which is expressed with the family of the deceased gentleman in their keen bereavement. Upwards of one hundred vehicles joined in the procession.

The chief mourners were—George Burton and William Smith (brothers); Mrs. Waugh, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Irwin and Miss Susan Smith (sisters), Mrs. A. J. Smith (sister-in-law), John Waugh, Edward Smith, Michael Hanly and John Irwin (brothers-in-law), James Smith, John Waugh, junior (nephews), Daisy Waugh, Kathleen Smith, May Smith, Maud Scott (nieces), George Smith, Clarita; J. Smith, T. Smith, A. Smith, John Smith, Derryfadaa; Nellie Smith, May Smith E. H. Collopy (cousins).

Amongst the general public were—Dr. Graham, Dr. Fogerty, T. Doudon, Patrick well; William M. Kidd, B. Kidd, A. Jordan, M. Coffey, P. R. Toppin, junior; J. E. Toppin; J. G. Thompson, A. Hall, E. Cole, Martin Griffin, J. Ryan, William O'Connell, J. J. O'Callaghan, M. Hartigan, J. F. Halvey, J. O'Riordan, V.S.; M. McGrath, W. Shannon, T. Ryan, J. Cronir, E. O'Connor, M. O'Loughlin, C. Fitzgerald, J. Jordan, W. Mulcahy, P. J. Ryan, A. Quillinan, M. Quillinan, Hill Bros., J. Jordan, J. Ambrose, J. Mulalley, — Moloney, — Punch, Eugene Daly, Alderman McNeice, P. Nolan (Kiltemplany), J. Costelloe and Mrs. Costelloe (Berybridge), T. O'Donnell, J. Walsh, W. McInerney, M. Fitzpatrick, S. Tubridy, W. O'Connell, J. Blake, W. Eggers, C. O'Donnell, L. O'Donnell, B.C. G. Walsh, D. O'Connell, P. O'Grady (Rosmadda), M. O'Grady (Blackwater), Louis Shine, and very many others.

Wreaths were sent by a large number of friends, amongst them were the following—In loving memory, of dear Dick, from William B. and A. J. Smith; In loving memory of dear Dick, from the staff of William B. Smith; In loving memory, from Joseph Smith, William street; In fond remembrance, from the staff of 57 Thomas street; With deepest sympathy, from the members of the Limerick Commercial Football Club; In loving memory of dear Dick, May and Maud; In loving memory of dear Dick, from Julla, Cheverslie and Susan Blennerhasset; With de pest sympathy, from C. F. Collopy; In loving memory, from Michael and Lizzie; In fond remembrance, from Mr. and Mrs. Abbot; In loving memory, from Mr. and Mrs. Widde; In loving memory, from his cousin, May Smith; In fond remembrance, from the staff of Joseph Smith's William street; In loving memory, from Sam Shire; In loving memory, from Mr. and Mrs. Waugh; In loving memory of our dear brother, Dick, from George and Susan; In loving memory of dear Dick, from Edwin and Annie; In loving memory, from J. H. Irwin and daughter, from E. H. Collopy.

The Rev. T. F. Abbott, Rector of Kilkeedy, officiated.

RECENT DROWNING NEAR CLONLARA

W." writes as follows to the editor of the returned a verdict of not guilty, on th of insanity.

Mr. Justice Dowling said he deemed discharge to be dangerous to the public and ordered Thaw to be taken to the immediately, for an indefinite period.

Thaw seemed satisfied with the result after its announcement, he lunched in Chamber with his wife.

Thaw will be committed to the M Insane Asylum.

YET ANOTHER REMAND

At Clonmel on Saturday Rev. Mr. was again remanded by Ald. T. P. Morris on a charge of having fired at and wounded M. White near Laffin's Bridge on (Day. This was the fifth remand. M. White is still in Dublin under treatment. Morrissey intimated to Sergeant Green sending the Crown, that he would not accept another remand unless further evidence was brought forward.

THE KING'S GOOD WILL

His Majesty the King has been pleased to signify his approval of the visit of British and Irish Luce, which is to take place in London in March, and to express his wish that the mission may be successful. A similar encouragement has also been received from His Majesty the Prince of Wales.

IRISH CENTENARIAN IN ENGLAND.

The death has occurred at Sunbury-on-Thames at the age of 102 of Mr. Patrick Warren, who emigrated to England from the South of Ireland in 1800.

JANUARY WEATHER

Weather report at Hurdlestown, Co. Clare:—

The rainfall during the month was being 21 inch under the January average of 23 years. The number of rainy days being 1 under the average for the month.

Cloud—The total amount of cloud on 9 a.m. was 204.

Temperature—The average temperature (night and day) for the month was 37°.

Warmest day—56 degs. on the 23rd.

Coldest day—28 degs. on the 3rd.

Warmest night—48 degs. on the 16th.

Coldest night—22 degs. on the 10th.

At or under 32 degs. on 15 nights.

Remarks—A fairly dry January, but with some severe frosts. A great lot of sickness about due to the previous very wet month.

W. A. BERRY

KILKEE WATERWORKS

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT)

The Local Government Board, with the Kilrush Rural District Council on 8th inst. in reference to the Kilkee Waterworks, which has now so long on hands, and enquiring into the matter stands at present. Mr. Berry inquired if they were