

of the "Limerick Chronicle" published in 1766.

Weddings.

favourite month for society wedding. Easter coming somewhat later a time will be short between the led season of Lent and what is said ky May. Prominent among the interest in diplomatic circles will discount Evington and Lady Ruby h is to take place during Lent on at St. Margaret's Church, West. the parties being the son of Lord (the daughter of the Earl of Minto, union of two families eminently d in the service of the Empire. ril wedding of general interest in erters will be that of Miss Muriel laughter of Mr. George Whiteley, Liberal whip, who is to marry Mr. neson. The wedding will be on and will attract large crowds of ry folk. The Queen's Maid of iss Margaret Dawney, is also to be rt month. She is to marry the Rev. Grant, and the wedding is to take ril in London.

Royal Visit to Canada.

of the Prince of Wales to Canada is ce the last week in July, just fortw- after King Edward paid his first and o the Dominion. It was on July 24, he King, then the youthful Prince of ded at St. John's, Newfoundland, and made a tour of Canada, which was o the United States and a visit to the ashington. The King must therefore is visit to the heights of Quebec, the ounded by Champlain 300 years ago; centenary celebrations are to be on like a national scale in the summer. e and Princess of Wales are both with the Dominion, for, after their stralia in 1901, their Royal Highnesses y way of the American Continent, and leading cities of Canada.

Inted Courage.

s will always differ (says the Standard') as to the highest form of Some will claim it for the doctor dry of membrane the tracheotomy neck of the child likely to die of . Others for the survivors of a forlorn make one last desperate attempt to fortress, after they would seem to have ne all and more than all that their amanded of them. Some will give aim of contemporary music was excitement. He is extremely fond of the Russian national airs.

DEATH OF MR J. H. QUIN

We regret extremely to announce the death which took place on 11th instant of Mr. John Herbert Quin, eldest son of Mr. Stephen B. Quin, J.P., of Woodlawn, Ascot, and formerly of this city, and grandson of the late Mr. John Quin, D.L., who was such a great benefactor to Limerick charities. The deceased young gentleman was only in his 29th year and was beloved by all who knew him for his genial and courteous manner. Deep sympathy is expressed with his parents and relatives in their sorrow.

SUDDEN DEATH IN DUBLIN

Yesterday morning, Thomas Cahill, an employe in the wholesale department of the Henry Street Warehouse, was noticed to have become suddenly ill. He was immediately taken to Jervis street Hospital, where it was found on arrival that he was dead. Deceased, who was about 45 years of age, looked rather ill on Tuesday morning, but he made no complaint and went out later in the day. He had only been at work a short time when he became ill. A bottle containing medicine, a watch and chain and some money were found in his pockets.

THE SHANNON SALMON FISHERIES.

The salmon fishing season is not proving so remunerative as the opening days led those interested in the fisheries to anticipate. Through February some large fish were captured on the upper waters, and the seaward reaches of the river, but there has been a falling off since, with the result that it is feared the spring season will be a not over profitable one, like too many of its predecessors.

POLICE COURT.

It was a very creditable circumstance that at the Police Court yesterday morning the presiding magistrate, Mr. Hickson, had to deal with but two cases of drunkenness, coming as the morning did, after St. Patrick's Day. The offenders in each instance were let off with a caution. Francis Barrett, a newsboy, and who had been repeatedly before the court, was, on two charges of drunkenness, sentenced to a month's imprisonment, failing to pay a fine of 40s. A charge of mendicancy against the accused was not pressed.

DEATH OF MRS. CATHERINE BAGGOTT.

Deep sympathy throughout the entire district is, writes our Ballingarry correspondent, expressed at the early lamented death of Mrs Catherine Baggott, aged 40 years, which occurred rather unexpectedly on Monday morning last at her late residence, Clounagh, Ballingarry. The deceased, who had gained the esteem of all classes by her courtesy and affable disposition, leaves a husband and seven young children to mourn her loss. The remains were on Tuesday removed from Clounagh R.C. Church to Rathnasara Cemetery, where the interment took place in presence of an unusually large concourse of sympathisers.

At a meeting of the supporters of the Hunt, Mr. T. B. Poulsonby, J.P., presiding, Mr. R. Burke, M.F.H., announced that willing to keep on the Mastership 1 season, and those present expressed great satisfaction. It was decided to have a Point meeting, but the date has not been decided on.

The death has occurred from heart failure of Rev. John Greaven, P.P., of St. N. Galway. The reverend gentleman, who has in apparently good health, celebrated yesterday morning, and was working energetically in promoting a bazaar in aid of the Cathedral.

WILL THE KING VISIT IRELAND.

Rumour of an Autumn

The King hopes to pay a short visit during the coming summer (the Lord respondent of the "Liverpool Courier stands), and he may spend a few days at Castle, where he will hold both a council. His Majesty will be accompanied by Queen and the elder children of the Princess of Wales. After his State Dublin, his Majesty proposes to stay for time with the Marquis of Waterford at seat of Curraghmore. Before he returns the King intends to visit Belfast, and Londonderry, where he may stay for a with Lord Londonderry. The end of August named as the most probable time for the and the King would travel for the first his new yacht now rapidly approaching completion.

THE QUEEN AND PREMIER

Royalty Visits Downing street.

Queen Alexandra, Empress Marie and Princess Victoria, who have been and sympathetic inquirers as to the condition of Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman, on gave even more striking evidence of the care and concern when they personally at 10 Downing street, and learned the medical opinion concerning the distressed patient. The visit, made at 4.45 p.m. complete surprise, and not even the Secretary knew of it until after it had been in addition to being shown the official bulletin Royal ladies were informed Sir Henry then a little more comfortable, but marked change had been recorded. It is the Queen's special wish that Sir Henry be informed of the personal call, and Mr. Nash, his private secretary, accordingly conveyed the intelligence to the Premier, extremely gratified by the kindly concern of the Queen and her Imperial sister.

ECHOES OF THE "LIII."

Question of Wreckage

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

At the Kilrush Petty Sessions on Monday, before Mr. A. M. Harper, R. chair, Mr. Michael S. Brews and Mr Mescal, the adjourned application McNally, District Inspector, R.I.C., came to the disposal of a large quantity ropes, pulleys and brass fittings alleged to be the ill-fated French ship, Leo wrecked on the rocks near Quilty, October last. It will be recollected found in a house near the town early in