

memory yesterday at the Quarter Sessions, the Harbour Board, and the Chamber of Commerce reflect the feelings of the entire community in their sorrow at the passing away of a genial, a brilliant, and, in many respects, a striking personality. At the King's Bench yesterday the Lord Chief Justice, who during Judge Adams' illness was constant in his inquiries, made a very graceful and touching allusion to his former colleague at the Bar of the Munster Circuit, and on behalf of himself and the professional gentlemen present tendered to the Hon. Mr. Justice the expression of their profound sympathy, adding these words, "For ourselves we shall always cherish an affectionate remembrance of a dear departed friend." This sentence in itself aptly conveys the feelings of all who had the pleasure of the late Judge Adams' acquaintance, and the opportunity of recognising his great ability and sterling worth.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Canadian Cattle Trade.

All concerned in the cattle trade with Great Britain are frequently reminded of the agitation in favour of the admission of Canadian cattle. The latest report is that Canadian cattlemen are considering the adoption of an agreement to boycott British breeders so long as the embargo maintained by the English Board of Agriculture. They say there is no disease in Canada, and that the embargo is "opposed to Imperial friendship." Therefore, until the "Motherland" is more cordial to Canada they will purchase pedigree stock, not in England, but in the United States. That is the threat. However, what trade opinion is behind it has yet to be seen, and on this point it will be recalled that an influential Canadian merchant, especially interested in the industry, relied on the evidence of the prohibition, saying that the interests of the trade and the country would be better served by keeping the stores at home.

The Steam Turbine.

Mercantile as well as naval shipbuilders on this side of the Atlantic are following the trials of the American scout Chester, Birmingham,

Gold has been found on a property Lady de Bathe (Mrs. Langtry) acquired in California for a mere song more than twenty years ago, and it is her intention to proceed there and personally superintend its development.

AUSTRALIAN PREFERENCE.

Mr. Ben Morgan, the special trade commissioner for the Manufacturers' Association of Great Britain, has had several interviews with Mr. Deakin, the Federal Premier, and members of his Cabinet, with a view to the reduction of the rates and increased preferences, and has been promised favourable consideration of his suggestions.

WELL-KNOWN JOCKEY DEAD.

Our obituary notices to-day (says the "Independent") chronicle the death of Eddy Sullivan, popularly called "Charlie," a well known steeplechase jockey. His last public performance in the saddle was on The Accepted at the St. Stephen's Day Meeting at Limerick. As a steeplechase jockey he steered many a big win at our Irish meetings, and he also rode at many of the principal cross-Channel reunions.

FATAL BURNING ACCIDENT

Patrick Murphy, aged seven, was admitted to Barrington's Hospital on Saturday suffering from burns on his legs, face, and abdomen. The little fellow resided with his parents at their residence, Carey's Road, and it seems that in their absence the child's clothing accidentally took fire, inflicting the injuries from which he died in the forenoon to-day.

INJURY FROM BURNING

Joseph Hickey, aged two, of Edward Street, was brought to Barrington's Hospital yesterday, and thence to the Workhouse Hospital to be treated for burns on the right side and leg. The child fell from his brother's arms into the fire accidentally and received the injuries stated.

CORSET DEMONSTRATION

Ladies will be very interested in the advertisement appearing in our columns this evening with reference to the grand demonstration of Royal Worcester Corsets, which is taking place this week at the establishment of Messrs. McBirney and Company, and in connection with which Madame Alexander is paying a personal visit. As an expert in corset fitting Madame Alexander occupies a very eminent position, which is evident from the fact that she has had the honour of fitting Royalty. The lady is showing a great display of spring models and corsets to suit all figures. She will be most happy to afford the fullest information to ladies paying a visit to McBirney's during this week, for which her visit extends, and we feel assured that her invitation will be very largely availed of, and that this unique corset display will be inspected with interest. Ladies would do well to carefully peruse the advertisement, and then see for themselves by personal inspection.

Mr. Hawkins said he did not think that was about the supply of rope outside the city in position. There were never chased, the first of which was Joseph Howard in May, 1907, and that it was possible to procure home. As regards the purchase never got a single one of the and the same remark applied to coke bags.

The Mayor said as far as he was concerned it was the old concern to order all these across the water. He believed that Mr. Hawkins had followed the precedent laid down alluded to were of English make their turn out were unsuitable believed it was the custom all across the water, and a great deal with the Committee. Now that had taken place, he hoped the endeavour to get every article the country.

Mr. Ryan said his recollection Hawkins made no such state tribute to him. He never thought that the men refused to work shovels. In order to get over the future they should adopt a for everything, and then ask factories to supply an article that. That would settle the.

The suggestion was adopted, on the subject under discussion the Industrial Association was ordered by the Secretary giving the opinion thereon.
