

...all the sweetness and happiness d, "Sleep, Baby, Sleep," each child ived with "Dolly." Quite a was the recitation in Esperanto Eakins, A. Hill, and E. Barker. It rrectly given, and the enunciation et and expressive, won for the perl applause. A pretty piano solo "The made," was played with much bril-A. Hill, while a recitation "The lost none of its humour in the is E. Eakins.

nd part opened with the singing of ng composition, "Nazareth" by the and Miss H. Watson gave with a recitation "It wouldn't be caught the fancy of the house. A Jarol, "Cold Breaks," was sung by and then Master W. Barker gave recitation, "Somebody's Mother" resive style. "In the Meadows" atefully sung by Miss F. Cooke and s. V. Prossor ably recited a pathetic le"—a story of Poor Little Jim vedly applauded. One of the numbers of the evening was dren's Home," which was sung with e, expression, and sweetness by s Pike and applauded to the echo.
 Sewell, very capably recited "The The infant class sang "What are of," and Miss L. Eakins recited "very brightly indeed. "The irds" (song) by the school, was a "morceau," and Master D. Kidd con-audience by his account of the y who stole what he thought was which turned out to be a hotter in-mustard. "The New Year" was sung or class, and Master G. Water again to the humour of the evening by his the treatment of poor baby while tender mercy of an elder brother. ht" by the Infant Class proved an finale to an excellent programme. animents were very ably played by ssy Hewson.

DISTRIBUTION OF PRIZES kindly undertaken by Archdeacon so said he had been asked to do so in lable absence of the Bishop in Dublin gretted he was unable to be present. rcer explained that the prizes in 3 were given as the result of the mptions, but this year on account rnak of measles they had no Easter n, and so the prizes which she herself, were given to the children for their studies and good attendance e year. She had at first intended a limited number of prizes but she all the children had been so good one so well during the year that they ecognition, though all the prizes e of the same value. hdeacon then distributed the prizes e following is a list:—

- INTERMEDIATE PUPILS.
 ers, E. Barker, E. Eakins, H. Harris. in every subject.
- SPECIAL PRIZES.
 ling Longfellow's "Birds of Killing-Archdeacon of Aghadoe awarded a o V. Prossor and H. Watson. attendance and improvement in senior g the year, Rev. J. Dowd's prize was B. Harris.
 ton's prizes in infant class were given r for arithmetic. J. Watson for...

...and Mrs. GIBSON, Mr. and Mrs.
 Cooke, Mr and Mrs. Sewell, Mr. Mrs. and Miss C. Ledger, Mr., Mrs. and Miss Elliot, Mr. and Mrs. F. Kidd, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Kidd, Mrs. and Miss Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, and Miss M. Angley, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Mrs. and Miss Jones, Mrs. and Miss Gullan, Mr. and Mrs Vickery, Mrs. R. Haines, Miss Smith, Miss McGhie, Miss Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Hill, and Miss E. Hill, Mrs. M. Mary Hewson, the Misses and Mr. L. M. Mary Hewson, Miss I. Fitt, Miss H.
 Thompson, Mrs. R. and Miss F. Belshaw,

DEATH OF A CO. LIMERICK MAN.

The death has just taken place of Mr. John O'Brien, member of an old and respected county Limerick family, at the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. James O'Connell, 4 Somerville terrace, N.O.R., Dublin. Mr. O'Brien spent 27 years in the service of the National Bank, mostly in Midleton, Gorey, and Belfast branches, and made many friends in these centres. He retired a few years back owing to failing health.

GLIN PETTY SESSIONS.

Before Messrs. J. Woulfe Flanagan, R.M., and F. Fitzgerald.

LICENSING PROSECUTION.
 Patrick Brought was prosecuted for infringing the Licensing Act on the 10th.

Evidence having been given, the bench did not consider that the charge could be sustained, and dismissed it.

DISMISSED.
 A man named Scanlan was charged with the larceny of two geese, but a preliminary objection having been raised for the defence, the case was dismissed without prejudice.

ASSAULT.
 Edward Crammin, Michael McElligott, Edward Dore, T. Fitzgerald, and Patrick O'Shea were prosecuted for assaulting Daniel Conway, James Hennessy, J. Egan, and Michael Culhane on the 10th.

From the evidence it transpired that the prosecutors were employed in the capacity of beaters at the Glin coursing meeting, and in this way they incurred the hostility of the defendants.

Dore denied that he was actuated by any feelings other than those of a friendly nature towards the Coursing Club.

Mr. Flanagan, who alone adjudicated in this case, imposed fines ranging from 5s to 20s on the defendants who were represented by Mr. P.
 T. Liston, solicitor.

PERPETRATORS OF MALICIOUS INJURIES.

At a special meeting of the Glin District Council on Thursday, Mr. P. J. Fitzgerald presiding, a resolution was adopted condemnatory of the perpetrators of malicious injuries in the district. The Council described these injuries as dastardly and cowardly.

SCARIFF DISTRICT COUNCIL.

Mr. P. Parcell presided at the meeting of the Scariff District Council on Tuesday when clocks, eight-day and other in silver, and brass ornaments, a appropriate for Christmas gift trays in the establishment of George-street, whose brilliant are always a source of attracti of the year.

JOYCE & CO.

Joyce and Co., have within a of time organised an expansive Rutland street. At the outset, dealt solely in bicycles, but branches were taken in until no represent much of what one mongery trade. The firm are ag a ten metre s of bicycle, the m among them being the which a guarantee for given. They are makers of called the "Garryowen," a dura one thoroughly suitable for district. Repairs are extensive expert tradesmen, and accessori reasonable cost. Joyce and Co. second hand furniture, which is the leading auctions and private at present in stock a great va goods, and pictures of consid and rareness.

NESTOR.

In the well appointed and ce shop of Mr. A. Nestor, 33 Geor found an immense variety of go present making at Xmas. The s always enjoyed a wide repu excellence of the tobaccos, cigar stocked, is under the personal the proprietor. Nothing but th is kept, and with the consump is the goods are always ne Cigars make up much of the li Nestor and these are importe centres, also the tobaccos w rable and the cigarettes. A due to the quality of the tobacc Nestor who makes a of this branch of the most famous curers are this divan, where a pre selected with very little trou George street the proprietor doe a dealer in sportsman's goods. at the present time a multiplicit and people who have a "penc particular kind of sport can b fully supplied, whether in golfi like. Mr. Nestor stocks some v in bicycles, "The Royal Enfiel and useful machine, which he ready market.

LYNCH AND SPA

The old-established firm of M.
 Spain, provision merchants, occ in the city which it would not b estimate. During the very man have been trading in our midst up a very large business attribu instance to the excellence of t and secondly to the quickness an by the staff in dealing with customers are drawn from all community, and extend far be of Limerick. For the Xmas be considerably amplified, and not done to cater for the requir patrons. They are now show