FASHIONABLE MEMS.

The Countess of Dunraven is at present at her country House, Kingston Vale.

Lord and Lady Oranmore and Browne have left 12 Cavendish place, London, and have gone to Atherhurst, Englefield Green, where they will reside until after Whitsuntide.

Lord and Lady Dunsany have arrived at 41 Wilton Crescent, London, for the season.

Lord and Lady Charles Fitzmaurice, who were married in India at Christmas, have arrived in England. Lord Charles is now acting as Equerry to the Prince of Wales.

The Knight of Kerry, who recently purchased Wickland, does not take up possession until the 24th. His new yacht is nearly fitted out, and he will spend the early part of the summer season at Lady Fitzgerald will spend the London season at Bute House.

Colonel and Lady Eva Wyndham-Quin have returned to 5 Seymour street, London, for the season.

KILKEE GOLF LINKS.

The Kilkee golf links now about to open, have recently been greatly improved and will be found in thorough condition for the coming season. They have been drained and sanded, and artificial bunkers have been put up. Since they have been established the links are greatly enjoyed by very many visitors to the "Brighton of the West," and add considerably to the attractions of Kilkee. Golfers will be interested to learn that the Hon. Secretary of the Club, Canon Ross-Lewin, Kilmurry Rectory, Limerick, has secured from the Railway Company a reduction of fares to the members—viz. return tickets at one and a quarter fares, which will be issued on the presentation of vouchers that the bearers are bona-fide members of the Club. The Hon. Secretary will supply further information.

CHARGE AGAINST CITY TREASURER.

Further Remand.

Mr. David Finn was brought before Mr. W. L. Loidlay, J.P., yesterday at the City Police Office on a charge of having failed to account in his capacity of Borough Treasurer for two cheques, one £46 and the second £171, received by him on behalf of the complainants, the Mayor and Corporation. Mr. Coartney dissolved.

At the last meeting of the Listowel Urban Council a letter was read from Mr. J. D. Crosbie Lord Listowel's agent, in reference to a site for artisans' dwellings, and stating that his lordship offered a site for thirty artisans' dwellings. The Chairman said the offer was a very fair and generous one. A deputation from the artisans of the town, who attended the Council meeting, submitted a resolution thanking Lord Listowel for his offer.

A constable named Oater, of Kilmihill station, lies at present at St. Joseph's Hospital, Kilmesh, suffering from a severe accident to one of his hands. The constable was cleaning a loaded revolver, of a new pattern type, when the hammer accidentally fell and he received the entire charge in the hand. All the grain pellets have been extracted, and the injuries, though severe are happily not serious.

At Annis Petty Sessions yesterday, before Mr. W. J. McNamara in the chair, and a large bench of magistrates. Constable Prunty had a man named Patrick Burke, of Kilmaley, charged with being drunk in charge of a horse and car on the public road. Burke had Constables Prunty and Brannan summoned for assaulting him. The Bench dismissed the case against the constables, and in the case against Burke he was fined 2s. 6d. and costs. Mr. T. J. Hunt appeared for the constables, and Mr. J. B. Lynch for Burke.

DEATH OF A LIMERICK ATHLETE.

His many athletic and other friends in Limerick will regret extremely to learn of the death, which occurred in Castleblaney this week, of Mr. Tim McMahon, a well known and popular member of the L.A.A. & B.C. He made a high name for himself in athletics, holding the Mile Championship of Ireland for two years, and the Half Mile for a year. He won the Six Miles Cross-Country Championship in America, and ran fourth in the Half-Mile Championship of the United Kingdom. He also ran a memorable race with George Tindler. Mr. McMahon, who was quite a young man, contracted a cold some time since, and developments resulted in his demise, which is sincerely regretted by very many friends.

BIG LONDON FIRE.

Damage estimated at about £30,000 was caused by fire early yesterday morning in the warehouse of the Oxford University Press at Aldergate, London.

SURVEYING THE SHANNON

Mr. McKenna, First Lord of the Admiralty, in reply to Alderman Joyce in the House of Commons, said a re-survey of the portion of the river Shannon lying between Limerick and Ballyvaughan a distance of about 18 miles, was of in the strongest terms members of the Irish Party bring the matter up in the House. I think it is a matter which should be dealt with at a special meeting, and that at the bottom of it when the names are given, I propose to be advised on the subject.

Mr. Bennett seconded the motion and was adopted.

THE BUTTER RATIONING. Mr. Fitzgibbon proposed a resolution against the proposed increase of the ration which dealt so unjustly with the spirit and the body of the people. It would in the end mean a famine in this country, including the land in barley growing. The matter should be sent to the Chamber of Commerce, the Prime Minister, and members of the Irish Party. Mr. Coleman thought the proposed resolution should be declined as it would imperil the peace. Mr. O'Mahony seconded the motion.
