held their annual "At Home" and Scruton Races last evening, in aid of Barrington's Hospital. Pleasant weather was associated with the re-union, and the attendance reached considerable proportions. The club pier served as a delightful promenade for the many who patronised the carnival, which on this occasion was carried out on a more extensive scale than heretofore. In addition to good racing, inspiring music, and a quartette of still, in which were vended, by fashionably attired ladies, sweets, tea, and flowers, provision was made for a Café Chantant, which proved a highly attractive feature of the re-union. Here three concerts were given during the night, and the success which attended them was most gratifying. Mr. Paul Bernard presided at the piano, and the contributors to the vocal programme were—Mrs. Hartigan, Miss Joynt, Messrs. J. Cahill, T. Kelly, D. Tidmarsh, D. S. Williams, and Captain Keapp. Mrs. Nash had charge of the Cafe, and the stallholders on the grounds were—Miss O'Mara (sweets), Mr. Tidmarsh (tea), the Misses McDonnell (flowers), and Mrs. Holmes (cigars and cigarettes). These ladies were assisted by a bevy of fair helpers who made many sales during the evening. From a social standpoint the fixture was all that could be desired, and judging by the attendance, worthy of the best traditions of past carnivals. The racing, especially the fours, reached a good standard, and augurs well for the success of the club at the forthcoming regatta. In this respect credit must be given to the captain, Mr. E. O'Toole, who receives valuable assistance from Mr. J. Shanahan, vice-captain, and Mr. M. Hartigan, under whose captaincy for a period of three years, the Shannon crews attained the zenith of their fame. There was, as stated, nothing absent to conduce to the success of this year's "At Home." The executive of the club with characteristic generosity, threw open their fine building to visitors, and in other ways aided in the cause of charity as exemplified in the noble work which Barrington's Hospital has been doing in the city for almost a century. During the evening the band of the Royal Munster Fusiliers played the following programme under the conductorship of Mr. Loftus:—
