CRIME OF ATTEMPTED HOUSE BURNING.

O'Brien, of the Island Road, was up at the Police Court yesterday with attempting to set fire to his father's last morning. The mother made a statement in which she stated that the accused had been drinking freely since the previous night and that in the circumstance it was his refusal to admit him to the premises that night. On being refused admittance at midnight he put paper under the door, and attempted to burn his way into the house. It was stated that the accused had been charged with drunkenness the day before but had been discharged with a fine by the Mayor. Mr. P. J. Kelly, R.M., was the prisoner to Petty Sessions.

IN PARLIAMENT.

House of Lords yesterday, second reading of the Assurance Com-bill was agreed to.
 Ellenborough drew attention to the want of action of warships when gathered in water in the Thames. His fears had been at rest, however, by the publication of a virally programme for the forthcoming of the vessels to the mouth of the river.
 Earl of Granard said he would bring to the notice of the Admiralty the question whether the measures were necessary similar to those at Gibraltar.

House of Commons,
 Mr. Bottomley introduced a Bill to provide for the disclosure and handing over by the Department of the Public of the amount of the dormant balances credits in their possession, and of unre-dempted old banknotes issued by them.
 The bill was read a first time.
 A bill to provide cottage homes for aged people introduced by Mr. Prestyman, was also and successful attention to study, and we congratulate Dr. Stokes, and the City High Sheriff, on the result so signally achieved, and in such a limited time.

THE KILLARNEY DISASTER

The remains of the late Mrs. Coburn, of Boston, Mass., who lost her life in the Killarney boat disaster, arrived at Queenstown on Tuesday evening, accompanied by a representative of Messrs. Cook and Sons. The United States Consul at Queenstown was in attendance with Messrs. Cook's representative subsequently, and arrangements were made for the conveyance of the remains by the Cunard ss. Saxonis.

LABOURERS ACT AT GLIN.

[FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.]

Mr. James D. Leahy, Arbitrator, held an inquiry at Glin on Monday as to the amount to be paid owner and occupiers of the plots of land to be acquired in connection with the new scheme of labourers cottages promoted by the Glin Rural District Council.

Mr. Dodds, solicitor, Limerick, appeared for the Knight of Glin (who was present), General Dickson, and other proprietors.

Mr. Thomas M. Windle, solicitor, represented the Glin District Council.

The occupiers were all in attendance, but were not professionally represented.

Mr. M. J. O'Shaughnessy, Clerk of the Council, was also present.

The Arbitrator heard evidence as to value of the plots, and stated he would make his awards at a later date.

A vote of thanks to Mr. Leahy, Arbitrator, was unanimously passed.

£10,000 TOWARDS A

Sir Samuel McCaughey, a member of the New South Wales Legislative Council, has, says Reuter, contributed £10,000 to the fund being raised to present the Imperial Government with a Dreadnought.

DEATH OF A CENTENARIAN

The death occurred on Tuesday night of John Tierney, a gardener, residing in the city. The deceased was in his 101st year, and was in the enjoyment of fairly good health up to the time of his demise.

VITRIOL THROWING.

Result of a Quarrel.

At Leeds Assizes to-day, Isabella Townson, 21, Bradford, mill hand, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to twelve months in the second division for maliciously throwing vitriol upon Thomas MacNulty with intent to do grievous bodily harm. The parties had been keeping company and quarrelled. MacNulty is permanently scarred.

Presentation of F Address to Mr. T. A

On Monday evening a very pleasant took place in the above College a party assembled to present an distinguished member of the ch-O'Kelly, who is about to leave Li-up an engagement with the Opera Co. The proceedings began followed musical items by Messrs J. Clifford, P. Crowe, M.
 McCarthy, M. Fitzgibbon, P. M. O'Cluskey, and F. Clune.

Before presenting the address the Choir (Rev. J. J. Nerney, S.J.) must apologise on behalf of the owing to other engagements, for to be present. He regretted the time to mark Mr. O'Kelly's dep-in a fitting manner, but the little would show how sincere and feelings of affection and esteem entertained towards him. No thoroughly appreciated his fine willingness with which he be-served the services of the Church, and in a which from time to time in the city for charitable purpos-was another side to his characte-did more than anything else to very warm corner in their hear-that he at all times did everything further their happiness in and He need not remind those prese-excursions and other such occa-O'Kelly was the very centre and happiness. Such times could and consequently they could not wish him every success and blessed career.

The rev. gentleman then read Mr. O'Kelly, in his reply, than address and great compliment paid him. He was quite sure feelings towards him, even with Anything that he had done to or to promote their social happimost certainly a privilege and a
