had a knowledge of Irish.

Mr. Fox answered in that language that he was fairly acquainted with the Gaelic tongue.

Mr. Lynch—The answer leaves the Committee very ignorant on the subject.

Mr. J. Hamilton, King's County, was next introduced, and was questioned by the Committee as to his fitness for the office.

Alderman Donnelly questioned the candidate as to his knowledge of Irish, and Mr. Hamilton said he was a Gaelic Leaguer for some years, and spoke Irish.

The cases of the other two applicants—Messrs. Davis and Dowling—were next considered. They did not attend personally, but had sent in their testimonials.

A poll was eventually taken as between the four candidates, with the result that Mr. Hamilton—proposed by Father Murphy and seconded by the High Sheriff—was unanimously adopted, none of the other candidates proposed successively by Mr. Gilligan being seconded.

The other business was routine.

OBITUARY.

Death of Mr. J. J. Purcell.

His many friends in the city will hear with regret of the death of Mr. John J. Purcell, Newtown, which occurred on Sunday. The deceased was brother-in-law of Mr. James Halvey, Patrick street, and for many years was employed at Mr. William. Lloyd's establishment, George street. He was a young man who earned the goodwill and wishes of many friends during his residence in the city, and by these his early demise will be learned with sorrow. Last evening the remains were removed from Newtown to Ballybrown R.C. church where Requiem Mass was celebrated for the dead, and to-day the interment took place in Kilsedy Cemetery in presence of a large body of mourners.

CO. LIMERICK MAN'S TRAGIC DEATH.

Thomas Foley, farmer, residing at Thomastown, near Charleville, was on Saturday while assisting at haymaking overcome by the heat and fainted. He was carried to his home where he was attended by priest and doctor. He rallied for some time, but the improvement was not maintained, and he died in the course of that night. Mr. Foley was a very estimable man, a member of a highly respected family, and his demise under such tragic circumstances is very much regretted.
