

the Advert service. The following—Allegro Mestro (Dr. Peace), and out Thy Light" (Gouned), p, minor (Rachmaninoff), Violin Elliott, L.R.A.M; Spring Song Mr. E. Ludlow; March (Hollins).

NTY LIMERICK HOUNDS,

Hounds met at Croom yesterday centre of the hunting country ered large which was increased by Duhallow. Our first draw was tain Maxwell's gorse), where quickly at work and with little was away on the line for Tory good and hounds travelled fast. ough Fort Elizabeth and on to ich we skirted and pointed for ws left on the left, crossed the l, and after a field or two he into a drain. We then went back and quickly had a fox on foot, so good as earlier in the day, a nice pace through the dameane e road over the Comeugh River under which we ran to Clorane, covert and back to Hanmore d after a very nice heat. Our next bohera gorse which held a brace ately we chopped and the ether and after some little delay the id on the line, and we ran over a Liskennett where we lost him. Theatricals will be a great success ity" is one of Burnand's best, and who will perform are well know natic talent. All seats we learn r two of the dates, and as the the Hunt will wear their pink , and the ladies of course will be urs, the house will have a gay appearance.

THE RINK.

ntinues to be the great source of ity and county people, who attend umbers the merning, afternoon ssions, and thoroughly enjoy the ing and enjoyable pastime which is a splendid floor of the up-to-date building at Wellerley Place. In is the pastime that the "army" increasing week by week. "The rilla" was, as we know, a great a Grand Fancy Masked and Carnival is being arranged for 1 December, and promises to be a unique fention in the city. to priess, etc., will be found in The Rink Company are to be on their enterprise in providing in such a very attractive form for ow about thinking of Christmas ook of Rinking Tickets would ul and appreciable gift to a friend, e seen also by advertisement that according to numbers, are now reasonable terms.

LIMERICK RACES

THE SHIRAZO DRAINAGE FISHERY, WHICH IS situated on the estuary of the River Shannon known as Clonderlaw Bay, in the Barony of Clonderlaw, and County of Clare, comprises Fenladdaree Weir and five other weirs, and certain lands used in connection with the fishery, all held in fee simple.

CHRISTMAS TRAFFIC ON L. & N.W.R.

The London and North-Western Railway Co. have made complete arrangements for the collection, quick transit, and prompt delivery of Christmas parcels in all the principal towns on their system. Special "Parcel" trains will be run and collection services by parcel vans and carts between the receiving offices and the railway stations will be in operation during Christmas and pre-xmas week. Senders are advised that as an extra precaution, a duplicate address label should be enclosed in each parcel, so that the name and address of the consignee may be ascertained in the event of the outside address becoming detached.

BRUFF PETTY SESSIONS.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)
Before Mr. W. Bevan and Mr. M. P. O'Shaughnessy.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE CASES.

School Attendance Inspector Tobin, several cases before the court. Three attendance orders were granted. One man was fined, and another case was adjourned for two months.

School Attendance Inspector Power, Croom Union, obtained three attendance orders with costs.

LIGHTS UP.

There were several cases of cars without lamps, and fines were imposed in each case.

SHEEP DIPPING ORDER.

Several farmers were summoned by Constable Savage, for not complying with the Autumn Dipping of Sheep Order, 1909, and fines were recorded in each case.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.

Four men summoned by the police, for being drunk and disorderly at Bruff Fair, were fined, and in two other cases where the defendants promised to take the pledge, the summonses were adjourned for two months.

DEATH OF VICE-ADMIRAL ROYSE.

Vice-Admiral Thomas Harvey Royse, who died on December 6 at Brunawick Lodge, Walmer, was the eldest son of Commander Forde Royse, R.N., of Walmer, and a member of a Kentish family which has had many representatives in the naval service. His grandfather and grandmother were members of old County Limerick families.

FOOTBALL.

Munster Senior League.

The second round in the North Munster Senior League was initiated this afternoon.

benefitted and improved, wo favourable comparison with any of and it was to ladies in the positi Dunally and others who took such d in furthering everything that wo promote and improve the Industrial this country, that this success attributable. It was not necessary to make any further remarks mend to their favourable accep hearty vote of thanks now tender Dunally for opening this Exhibitio of work.

The vote was seconded (anakin suitably acknowledged by Lady F afterwards made a round of the stal many purchases.

A Themedist piano recital fo was very much appreciated.

Subjoined is a list of the stall industries.

- Abane, Clonkeen, Five-Mile-Town
- Miss Barrington, Mrs Davidson, Miss A. Delmege, Miss G. May.
- Kilmallock Industry—Mrs Bennett, Miss Bennett.
- Distressed Ladies Work—Miss Bur
- Kirby's Lace Industry—Mrs Good
- Misses Goodbody.
- Lady Rosse's Industry, Moneyqui
- Tweeds, Dunleckney—Mrs J. B. Barr
- M. Barrington, Mrs Barton, Mrs F Kennett Weldon.

Dalkey Needlework Co-operative Mrs Grene Barry, the Hon Mrs B Shaw, Mrs Farnell, Miss Shine, M Miss Grene Barry.

The Marchioness of Waterford's Industry—Miss Delmege, Mrs E. Ph Good Shepherd Convent Ttdmarsh, the Lady Dunboyne, Miss Limerick Lace and Hosiery Inc Russell Miss McMahon.

Tea Stall—Mrs Stokes, Mrs O'Callaghan, Mrs Raymond, Mrs W Fogarty.

Knitting by the Blind—Mrs W Ellen Russell, Miss Vincent.

National School Work and Sh Industry—The Hon Alice Spring Ric Pitt, Miss O'Brien, Miss Egan, The Spring Rice, Miss Briscoe Thomond Lace Industry—Mrs and Goodbody, Miss Rose, Mr. Kearney.

Birr Convent Industry—Mrs B. Delmege, Miss Delmege, Miss Mc Coy Limerick Lace School—Mrs R. V C De Vere, the Hon Mrs Grant Duff, O'Brien, Miss O'Brien, Miss Vere O' Limerick Work, Eantis Work, Sw Inistiague—Miss Doyle, Mrs Doyle, Miss Orpen, Miss Fitzsimon, Miss L.

Limerick Wood Carving, Pottery a Metal Work—Mrs Fitzgerald, Mrs A Onahendall and Ballycastle Toys, of Charity, Dun Emer Guild—M Doyle, Miss Frost.

The Concert.

Eleven selection items, and seven made up a very pleasing concert pro night. The attendance which was rapidly appreciated the music rendered throughout with pleasing an opening item Piper Major Clark McLeod, gave a selection on the Sc Mr. Williams sang "When Shad very sweetly. Mrs. Bartigan be singing "Vilga" was down number, and received unstinted ap beautiful violin solo "Melodia" was