

on of the Shannon fisheries, on which the livelihood of a very large number of depends. That the Board of Conservators interested in the fisheries are doing most to provide the "sinews of war" goes saying, and therefore we trust that the ty of the Department may be counted n the lines the Conservators have d, that is the raising of £100, which is a tial sum to gather in having regard to efforts.

S-NOTES AND NOTIONS

LIGHT UP.

ists and others liable to prosecution under its on Vehicles Act should light up to-night to-morrow night at 5.45, and on Satur- 5.47.

"THIS IS MY LAST SUM."

le Walthamstow girl named Frances Cole n her book at school: "This is my last The next day she died, and at the inquest as attributed to heart failure.

NEW WORK BY STRAUSS.

Richard Strauss has composed a new work "Ochs von Lerchenau," which he musical comedy. The text is by Hof- l.

FEBRUARY MARRIAGES.

notable marriages are announced to take London in the early part of the present The bridegrooms include a Bishop, the in Charge d'Affairs, one of the new M.P.'s, brother, a baronet, a Consul, and about military men.

THE RURAL VOTER'S VERDICT.

rural voter has expressed his mind at the ry firmly and convincingly (says the Lon- press). It is the policy of ownership under which has weighed so heavily with him. v which Unionists must press at the country with the full force of Kerry, over whose return for there has been so much rejoicing at has many family connections both in f Lords and in the House of Commons. urse, the eldest son of the Marquis of Consequently he is nephew to Lord that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant had been pleased to appoint Mr. Wm. L. Stokes, J.P. of of this city, to be High Sheriff for the year commencing on the 24th instant. Mr. Stokes, who presently occupies the position, was at the last meeting of the Corpora- tion unanimously placed first on the list of three whom the Borough Council nominated as fit to serve the office.

THE EARL OF KERRY.

P. Y. M. A. LITERARY CLASS.

At the meeting of the class to be held to-morrow evening, Mr. W. F. Hanna will contribute a paper entitled "From the Forests of the World," being an account of the romance of wood-getting in both Hemispheres. The lecture will be illustrated with lantern slides specially made for the occasion by Mr. Hanna. Ladies are cordially invited, and the admission is free. Chair to be taken at 8 p.m.

ACCIDENT AT TARBERT.

A serious accident befell a young man named Michael Gordon, who had a finger cut off, another injured, and the back of his hand lacerated while working a circular-saw on the premises of Messrs. T. G. Hill and Sons, Tarbert. Dr. P. T. Dillon treated the patient, who was removed to Listowel District Hospital, where he is progressing as favourably as can be expected.—COR.

DEATH OF MR. P. J. MANNING.

We regret to record the death of Mr. Patrick J. Manning, which took place at his residence, Inchicore, Dublin. The deceased, who was in his thirty-fifth year, was fourth son of the late Mr. John Manning, victualler, Queen street, and the news of his early demise came as a great shock to his friends in the city. The funeral will take place from the Railway Terminus for Mount St. Lawrence after the arrival of the 1.15 p.m. train from Kingsbridge. to-morrow (Friday).

RELIGIOUS CEREMONY AT ST. JOHN'S CATHEDRAL.

At the meeting of the Corporation last night Rev. A. Murphy, Adm., St. John's, attended, and invited the Mayor and members to attend officially at St. John's Cathedral next Sunday, when there would be a special service at noon, Most Rev. Dr. O'Dwyer presiding. Subsequent to the service, Dr. O'Dwyer would receive the members in the Sacristy. The invitation was accepted.

ORGAN RECITAL AT ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL.

On Saturday last a most attractive Organ Recital was given by Mr. F. Muspratt. The following was the programme:—Overture in C (Hollins); Berzozzo in E (Dr. C. H. Lloyd); Air, "With the Clad" (Creation) (Haydn), Mrs. Browning; Grand Fantasia (The Storm) (Lemmens); "Elija" (Mendelssohn), Mr. R. (Stokes); Epilogue (Millan).

held on Saturday after- noon, at which Mrs. ... will ... composers ... F. ... The next Recital will be ... at 3 o'clock ... noon, 5th February, at 3 o'clock ... Sir Charles B. Barrington.

sure that if the gentlemen app by the trades bodies realised w can be in the work of the Commi no cause for complaint whatsoever. "In conclusion it might be sa been the intention of your Comm its energies to creating a dema ducts. To an increasing exte been directed to securing as fa that the supply of Irish manufa large and as pure as possible. has always enjoyed a reputation purity, and though with a vastly and a necessarily limited supply is to turn out an inferior article. has not seen any signs of de home product, nevertheless ther for improvement, and your Co lose sight of the fact that it repre of the purchasing public equally manufacturer."

The Chairman, in moving th report, said that taking all the y the country into account, and position they were in at this co they had very good reason to what the local Association. There was no doubt that a had been perpetrated on the country by outside people. They had the case of a don, which acted in a most impudent manner in selling cott linen manufacture. It was simp how it was tolerated so long w to him. However the matter ha by the Department, and they put a stop to such practices. I prosper, frauds on her man stopped, and that was one of th ciation was there for (hear, hea Cork and Dublin, the Association success, but at the same time work just as good had been don Association. As to himself, he Chairman of their Association because he saw no one doing than they were doing. He had done by the Limerick Associati Associations of the kind through he found that their Association compare very favourably with trial Association in the island greatest possible pleasure in mo of the report (applause.)

Mr. Enright seconded the could hardly add anything to the chairman.

The resolution was adopted an Mr. Close suggested that statement was not ready for the the temporary illness of the O'Callaghan, it should be adjou sitting.

Mr. Cahill asked did the rules bear on the question.

Mr. Close answered in the n usual up to this to have the fin the annual meeting. There had the secretaryship also, and tl delay.

The proposition to adjourn of the financial report to the n agreed to.

The four Vice-Presidents wer the election of Chairman was pro

Mr. Enright proposed the r Alexander W. Shaw as Chairmar tion. This time twelve months of moving a similar proposition. to the Limerick Association to h W. Shaw at their head (hear, l