VOTES OF CONDOLENCE.

The Countess of Dunraven said it was with sincere sorrow she wished to propose a vote of condolence with Mrs. Stokes and her family in their great sorrow.

This was seconded and passed unanimously, and the Hon. Sec. was directed to convey the sympathy of the meeting to Mrs. Stokes.

A letter was read from Mrs. O'Malley (late Hon. Sec.), thanking the Countess Dunraven and the Committee for their sympathy in her recent bereavement.

VICE-CHAIR.

A letter was received from Mrs. Quin accepting the position of vice-Chair.

It was decided that in the absence of the Countess of Dunraven and Mrs. Quin, and if a vice-president be not present, a member to be selected by those present take the chair.

LIMERICK LACE EXHIBIT.

Lady Dunraven proposed to give a glass case to the Association for the exhibition of Limerick lace crochet and knitting at the Railway Station. All who wish to exhibit should apply to the Hon. Sec., Mrs. Ralph Nash, Ceancora, Corbally. The Hon. Sec. was instructed by the meeting to inform the Men's Branch of the Association of this, and to have their views on the matter.

It was proposed by Mrs. Quin, seconded, and passed unanimously that the following inscription be put upon the case:—"Limerick Industrial Association (Women's Branch), Countess of Dunraven, President."

Mrs. O'Brien (South Hill), Mrs. Geary, V.P., Mrs. Doyle, V.P., and Miss Dowd, were deputed to call upon the principal hotel proprietors to obtain their permission for members of the Association connected with this branch of Irish Industry to have specimens of their work exhibited in a prominent place in their hotels.

Mrs. Quin, vice-Chairman, and the Hon. Sec. were directed to select a space at the Railway Station for a glass case for the exhibition of lace, crochet, etc.

THANKS TO COUNTESS DUNRAVEN.

It was proposed by Mrs. Quin, seconded, and passed unanimously, that the best thanks of those present be tendered to the Countess Dunraven for presiding at the meeting.

Her Ladyship graciously thanked those present for the vote, and expressed her regret that she would be unable to preside at a meeting of the Association for some months to come as she would be out of Ireland, and saying good-bye, wished
