"JERRY M." WINS FRENCH "NATIONAL."

Success of "Jerry M." in the grand Steep-De Paris, value £6,000 at Auteuil, on Suns another instance of the quality of the racers in Limerick. "Jerry M.", who won splendid prize for Mr. Assheton-Smith, in a of twelve, was well backed on the course. He red for Miss Hartigan, Clorane, Croom, and of Luminary, by the celebrated sire, Walms-the property of Messrs. O'Brien, Bros., ave-street. He is a splendid specimen of r, and the fact of his annexing the great h Grand National, establishes his magnificent des, and to owner and breeder the congratu-are heartily extended in the animal's fine manoe.

ROYAL MUNSTER FUSILIERS.

ing completed the annual training at Kilcamp, the 5th Battalion Royal Munster ers returned to the city yesterday morning ecial train. The corps which is over 500 was in command of Col. T. Gloster, and on ing at the terminus the men fell in, and d by the band marched to the Strand sks followed by a large contingent of friends acquaintances. The men, who presented a oldierly appearance, were inspected on the k square and subsequently disbanded.

Upwards of five hundred members of the Dublin Branch of the Irish National Foresters visited Limerick on Sunday, it being the occasion of their annual outing. The visitors, many of whom wore the insignia of the order, were met at the station by a deputation of the Violated Treaty (City) Branch, and escorted to their rooms.
 Ultimately they marched in processional order through the streets, headed by a band which accompanied them, and the Limerick No. 9 Band, and in the evening a meeting was held, at which interesting speeches were delivered. Many, however, took the opportunity of visiting Castleconnell and Doonass, and at 7 o'clock the entire company returned home pleased with their visit, which was made as pleasant as possible by their local brethren.

FUNERAL OF MR. T. MULQUEEN.

On Sunday the remains of the late Mr. Thomas Mulqueen, whose death took place after a lingering illness on Friday, were interred in Mount St.
 Lawrence Cemetery. The funeral left St.
 Michael's R.C. Church at 3 o'clock, and the FASHIONABLE MARRIAGE.

At Wrotham Parish Church, Kent, yesterday afternoon, Sir Standish Deane O'Grady Roche, Bart, of Aghade, Tullow, County Carlow, son of the late Sir Terence Roche, Bart., of Limerick, was married to Miss Sibil Dyson-Laurie, only daughter of the late Colonel Julius Dyson Dyson-Laurie, and the Hon. Mrs. Dyson-Laurie, of 111 Gloucester Place, Portman Square, London, W., and Old Parsonage House, Ospringe, Kent. The wedding was a very quiet one owing to the death of the bride's father, a well-known sportsman and old Crimean officer, which occurred last December. The Bishop of Grantham officiated, assisted by the Rev. W. Pascoe. The bride, who was given away by her cousin, Major Laurie, of the Royal Irish Rifles, wore a gown of white satin charmeuse trimmed with old family rose point lace. Mr. H. M. Lewis, of Strady Castle, St. valey, was best man. After a reception, Sir Standish and Lady Roche subsequently left to spend their honeymoon in Scotland.
