

rent indifferent harvest may be but the more intensified attention to Revision Court ters outside of the materiality of the entire community.

VT COMMENT.

imes at the tough skins of the allowed them to keep high bower while their captured groaned in the castle dungeons. ses still in Morocco, among the ains of the Atlas Mountains, n we give thanks that we are d then walk round the garden observe the miserable dog, with l expressionless face, meander- its kennel in the brief radin, in. It does not strike us that amiss, any smack of cruelty to here to keep burglars away, that of his existence. We cannot langer to our precious geraniums it if he were set at liberty to run

If very tender-hearted indeed go with the boy when he takes post. Nobody could possibly that. Of course not.

Birds, and Fish.

announced that in the forth- noeuvres on Salisbury Plain next ps will be assisted by dirigible planes. These vessels, added to graphy now commonly employed, e manoeuvres as uncanny as reä- idly strike the imagination which st, yielded itself to a half-derisive hands of Mr. Rudyard Kipling, lls, and other scientific roman- ther stated, though we know not hority, that a gun has been in- ill account for any airship in the It will, of course, be powerless to ad fleet at night until a searchlight ited to collaborate with it in object. Meanwhile the Advisory Aeronautics appointed eighteen s issued its report. It advocates the methods of birds, short tails, the imitation of the methods of a most unstable aviator.

CO. TECHNICAL AND AGRICULTURAL COMMITTEE.

The following is the agenda for the consideration of the County Technical and Agricultural Committee at the special meeting summoned for Wednesday next—To read and confirm minutes of last meeting. To read, and if approved of, adopt recommendations of Finance Committee, at meeting held this day. To consider accounts received. To sign Treasurer's authority for salaries and accounts passed for payment. To frame live stock and agricultural schemes for 1910-11. To re-appoint instructors in connection with the agricultural schemes for 1910-11. Correspondence. To consider tenders for printing, stationery, and office requisites required by the Committee for the year ending 30th September, 1911. To consider report of the Departmental Committee on the Irish Butter Industry (report already circulated amongst the members of Committee). To consider resolutions received in connection with the above-mentioned report. To receive annual report (forms S 78 (a) and S 78 (b)) in connection with the Technical Instruction Scheme, 1909-10. To receive reports (form S 79) and registers (form S 21) from Itinerant Instructresses. To fix date for next meeting. Any other business of an urgent nature.

DEATH OF MRS. MARION BALDWIN.

The death took place yesterday morning at the family residence, North Strand, of Mrs. Marion Baldwin, after an illness of some duration. The deceased was widow of the late Mr. J. A. Baldwin, of this city, and formerly of Head View, Lismore. There is much sympathy among a large circle of friends and acquaintances at the great loss her children have sustained by the death of a good mother. The funeral takes place at 9.30 to-morrow morning for St. John's Cemetery.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN H. RYAN, J.P.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. John H. Ryan, J.P., which took place at his residence, Knockatane Castle, Caherconlish, yesterday morning. The deceased had been unwell for some time past, his illness taking a fatal turn within the week. The late Mr. Ryan was well known in public life. He was for many years Chairman of the Limerick No. 1 District Council, a member of the County Council, and Limerick Board of Guardians. He had an intimate knowledge of the working of these bodies, and discharged his duties very efficiently. The deceased, who had attained his 52nd year, was an extensive farmer, and his death has caused great regret among his many friends in county and city. The funeral will take place to-morrow for Caherconroy Cemetery.

GREAT MUNSTER FAIR.

The Great Munster Fair yesterday was a good, if not an over-large one. Prices, too, were good for sellers, and the business done was fully up to that transacted at previous fairs under the

THE CHURCH

St. Michael's Church.

Owing to the absence of the troops from Limerick there will be no military service in Michael's Church to-morrow, Sunday, At 23th.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL—14th Sunday Trinity—Holy Communion, 8 a.m. Matin Holy Communion, 11.30 o'clock.—V. Battishill (D); Chants, Turle (D) and Nares Service, Garrett in D; Hymn, 495; Introit, (verses 1 and 4); Communion Service, (Garr D); Preacher, The Precentor. Evensong, o'clock—Chants, Turle (G), Battishill (A n and Bridge (C); Service, (Garrett in D); Au "Seek ye the Lord" (Varley-Roberts); H. 388 and 376; Preacher, Rev. Canon Ross-L. B.A.

St MICHAEL'S CHURCH—14th Sunday after Tr s a.m., Holy Communion; 11.30 a.m., M Prayer and Holy Communion; 6.30, Ev Prayer.

TRINITY CHURCH.—14th Sunday after Tri Morning Prayer and Holy Communion at 1 preacher, Rev. W. R. Keillor, M.A. E Prayer at 6.30; preacher, Rev. Canon R. S. Lewin, B.A.

St. MUNCHIN'S CHURCH—14th Sunday Trinity—Morning Service, 11.30; Evening vice, 6.30; preacher at both services, Rev Robertson.

St. JOHN'S CHURCH.—14th Sunday after —Morning Prayer, 11.30; Evening Prayer Preacher at both services, Rev. Canon Lang D. Litt.

St. PATRICK'S CHURCH (Parteen).—M Prayer, 11.45; preacher, Rev. W. L. B.A.

KILKEEDY CHURCH.—Morning Service, Evening Service, 4.0 (in schoolhouse).

CASTLECONNELL CHURCH.—Morning Pra Holy Communion at 11.30 o'clock. I Prayer, 5.30 o'clock.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (Lower Mallow S Morning, 11.30; preacher, Rev. R. H. M.A. (Cantab). Evening, 6.30; preacher D. McCausland, B.A.

METHODIST CHURCH (George Street).— Services—Morning, 11.30; Evening, Preacher at both Services, Rev. W. R. W of Bradford.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH (Military Road).—1 Service, 11.30; Evening, 6.30; preache W. B. Meikleham.

SOCIETY OF FRIENDS (Cecil Street)— 28th—Morning, 11 a.m.

PRESENTATION.

In view of the approaching marriage Tidmarsh, eldest daughter of Mr. David T Lota, Chairman of Canuock and Co.,