

DAUGHTER.

Matthew's, Great Peter street, West-yesterday, Captain R. H. Brocklebank, fourth son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bank, of Wateringbury Place, married Miss Blood, only surviving child of Sir Bindon and Lady Blood. Sir Bindon Blood is a member of a very notable Irish family. He is a distant son of Lady Colin Campbell, whose father late Edmond Maghlin Blood, head of branch of the same County Clare clan, retired from the army two or three years ago. Most of his service was passed in India where he took part in nearly every campaign during the last 25 years. It was thought that he would ultimately become Commander-in-Chief in India, but circumstances averted this. He took a distinguished part in more than seven campaigns, his last field being in the Transvaal during the late war. Since his retirement after a service of 47 years Sir Bindon has been living on his Irish estates.

It was found that Mr. James Mortell and two other farming men engaged a threshing machine in the Bruree district, had it placed on the road in working order to commence operations on Wednesday morning, but when they came to it they found that some of the most important parts of the machine, including the spindle, had been taken during the night. As a result the men were unable to remain idle for hours until they had substituted the missing ones which were procured from the miller. It is supposed the articles were taken for their value, but for the purpose of inconvenience.

TRADES UNION CONGRESS.

The Osborne Judgment.

The Trades Union Congress yesterday considered the Osborne judgment, and a resolution was moved which, while welcoming any Bill providing for the payment of members, declared this would not satisfy the congress. The resolution was therefore, referred back to the Committee that drafted it.

Resolutions were passed demanding State aid for the blind, denouncing international blacklegging, condemning railway amalgamations as prejudicial to the interest of employes and calling last day, and he inclosed notice of motion that the contract be accepted on next Wednesday week.

Alderman Donnellan—We have enough of papers.

Mr. Kirby asked what the cost of advertising amounted to in the year.

Clerk—£95.

Mr. Kirby—And we are not getting value for our money.

Ald. Donnellan objected to the notice of motion being received.

The Chairman said, he should receive the motion.

Mr. Rahilly said the greater the publicity the proceedings and advertising got the better. He would not object to the papers being accepted, nor neither would the ratepayers.

Ald. Donnellan—You like to see yourself in the papers.

Mr. Rahilly—I am not referring to you.

Here Alderman Donnellan indulged in personalities towards Mr. Rahilly.

Mr. N. Humphries—Ask him to withdraw that.

Several members agreed.

Mr. Rahilly thanked the Board, and said as long as he was there he never insulted a member.

Mrs. O'Brien—Indeed you have not, Mr. Rahilly.

The incident then closed, and the notice of motion was accepted.

Mr. Hayes—The stout at 17s 6d and 18s 6d are equal.

Mr. Humphries—How could they be equal?

A poll was about being taken, when
