he vessel, which will cost two millions ll carry 3,790 passengers.

£20,000 FOR A HOSPITAL.

es Wylie, widow of the owner of the lilenroc, at Cap d'Antibes, has (says a sage from Cannes) informed the Mayor through the medium of the British at Cannes, that she places at his dissum of £20,000 for the construction of tal at Antibes.

IME MINISTER'S EIGHTH ELECTION. election will be Mr. Asquith's eighth Il his election experiences have been the county of Fife. He was first July, 1886, when he defeated the iember, Mr. Boyd-Kinnaer, by 374 1910-twenty-four years later-his d grown to 2,059. At the last General r. Asquith had the pleasant experience sisted by two of his sons, both of whom peeches of great promise. The Prime s only had one uncontested election.

> - 400 4 THE LAZIEST MAN.

that during the Civil War in America f a company which had sixty men in its of whom were as energetic as the officer ey should be, hit upon a plan which he ould cure their habits of laziness. One ter a roll-call the captain, addressing id, said: "I have a nice easy job for man in the company. Will the laziest the front?" Instantly fifty-nine men a step forward. "Why didn't you step t?" enquired the commander of the one id not come. "I was too lazy," replied is not the only philosopher who has, in e, suddenly abandoned a luxurious for a . He might have cited the precedent of who, when his first successes had made is, got rid of his fine clothes and his his sword, clothed himself in homewent to live alone with his Therese and r of his Therese in a cottage in Madame Park. There was this difference, hoween his case and Tolstoy's; he wrote pieces after he had thus altered his way it Tolstoy had already written his when I to make the change.

> - 182 THE SIMPLE LIFE.

خح "THE BROKEN MELODY." ember 18, every year for the last forty o, Mr. Van Biene, the famous actorago he came to St. Michael's, where he is very popular with the congregation.

THEATRE ROYAL.

The well-known actor and actress, Mr. Norman V. Norman, and Miss Beatrice Wilson, will open a short visit to Limerick this evening, before playing in Cork and Dublin. It is some years since either Mr. Norman or Miss Wilson played Limerick audiences, béfore but there is no doubt there are many people who have pleasant memories of their last visit. Mr. Norman will play "The Marriage of Kitty," on Wednesday and Saturday, and "Lord and Lady Algy" to-night, Thursday, and Friday. these plays, it is well known, drew practically the whole of fashionable London to the Comedy and Prince of Wales Theatres. The Marriage of Kitty" was a favourite play of his Majesty King Edward, who saw it fives times in England, and four times in France, with Madam Rejane, as "Kitty." Mr. Norman and Miss Wilson had the honour of appearing in this play before the late King in Brighton in February last. "Lord and Lady Algy" is considered the smartest play ever written by R. C. Carton, whose new play is being produced by George Alexander this week at the St James's Theatre, London. Mr Norman and Miss Wilson made a great success in Dublin on the occasion of their last visit to that city. The same programme is being given in Dublin and as in Limerick this week. large company of very well-known people are supporting Mr. Norman and Miss Wilson. It may be of interest to note that Mr. Norman is well-known in athletic and sporting circles, and has been a noted athlete in his day. He has represented his county at cricket and Rughy football, and is one of the very few actors privileged to wear the colours of the M.C.C., and of that very exclusive Club, "The T. Zingari."

WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE MEETING IN LIMERICK.

In connection with above meeting, to be held in the Atheneum on to-morrow night, the promoters desire to announce that the meeting will be open to men as well as women. Having regard to the public interest attaching to the subject a big attendance is anticipated.

The Committee received word yesterday from Mrs. T. M. Kettle that she will come to Limerick for the occasion, and address the meeting immediately after Lady Betty Balfour.

DEATH OF MRS. O'CONNOR.

There is much sympathy, more especially among the members of the Garryowen Football Club and their numerous friends and supporters, at the death on Sunday of Mrs. O'Connor, Athlunkard Street. She was, it is almost need-less to say, mother of the Brothers O'Connor, popular members of the Garryowen Football Club, and a woman greatly respected in the old Parish of St Mary's, in which she was so well and favourably known. The funeral took place this afternoon from St. Mary's Parochial Church for Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, and was largely attended.

A report reached Ennis to-day called Carroweragh, near Roadfor course of a family row yesterday farmer named Macnamara injuries from which he died later. arrested. The Coroner is from hon will hold an inquest to-morrow. lacking at time of writing. The remote.

MR. BERNARD'S REC

We undersdand that arrangemen completed for two recitals on Monda in the Central Hall, Bedford Row, and eight o'clock respectively. Bernard, of Manchester, pays his Limerick, and contributes in the recital entitled "Stories, Scenes, ar Life and Character," amongst whi "Man Proposes" from the pen of th Langbridge, D. Litt., of our own cit ing recital will be composed of selectings of "Ian Maclaren," where worthies of the Glen of Drumtochty One chapter from "Young Barbarian in the recital giving a racy account of scores due to a pompons Baillie by and his fellow-barbarians. Altog enjoyable treat is in store for all wh in being present, and we are sure I splendid gifts of artistic skill and m tion will greatly delight his audience admission can be procured from Mand Son, George Street, and all prior to the recitals are guar Programmes may also be obtained

POSTAL REFORM

Important Announcem Postmaster-Genera

In the House of Commons yesterd Mr. Herbert Samuel, replying t Williams, announced the adoption o postal reforms, which he said would operation next year. He stated t halfpenny postcards and the penn would be sold at a halfpenny and respectively (cheers). He also prop the 2s. books of stamps, which con 1s. 114d. in stamps, in a form con of the full value of 2s. (cheers). Star and envelopes would be sold at lower than at present. These cor be effected without imposing any add upon the Exchequer. Proposals w sideration for a large reduction in t charged on the chief European rou grams in plain language and of character. Telephone rates betwee France were about to be largely rec rate between London and Paris wo from 8s. to 4s. Extensive alteration posed in the number, position, and wireless telegraph stations for between ships and the coast and th graph service. Arrangements we consideration for facilitating the telephone numbers as telegraphicad by telegrams could be delivered instead of by messenger (cheers).