

PRETTY WEDDING.

BRERETON—WALLACE.

Wednesday morning the marriage was celebrated of Mr. J. Brereton, of Woodpark, Connell, and Fontenoy-street, Liverpool, and fifth daughter of Mr. James Wallace, Cork. The happy event, which was celebrated in St. John's Cathedral, attracted considerable interest. Inside, the sacred edifice was decorated with flowers and palms, and as the bride entered with her father a joyous note pealed from the organ, presided over by Mr. C. J. Irwin, organist of the Cathedral. The bride, who was given away by her father, was dressed in white silk. Her veil was of Limerick lace, and she wore a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums, lilies, and she wore a gold bracelet, and gifts of the bridegroom. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Josephine Wallace, who wore a dress of rose silk and black hat, trimmed with roses. She carried a bouquet, and wore a gold bracelet, and gifts of the bridegroom. Mr. J. Meagher, Esq., was best man.

The ceremony, which took place with Nuptial Mass at 9 o'clock, was performed by the Rev. J. Wallace, brother of the bride, assisted by Rev. J. Dea, cousin of the bride. Also present—Rev. Michael Murphy, Adm., St. John's; Fr. T. J. McNamara, St. John's; Fr. Fitzgerald, do.; Fr. Cahill, do.; Fr. Connolly, do.; Fr. P. Power, Rector; Fr. O'Connor, Adm., St. Michael's; Devane, St. Michael's; Fr. Griffin, P.P., do.; Fr. Liston, P.P., Shanagolden; and Fr. C.C., St. Mary's.

After the ceremony the bridal march from Wagner's "Lohengrin" was played. As the bride proceeded down the nave Mendelssohn's Wedding March issued forth, and filled the church with the richness of its melody. The reception was subsequently held at Cruise's Hotel, where the guests assembled. Soon after mid-day Mr. and Mrs. Brereton left for London, where the honeymoon will be spent. The bride's travelling dress was of tweed. She wore a black velvet hat, seal furs, and an Irish wool travelling coat.
