

romanlike and zealous 7, Mr. J. O'G. Delmege rved that he had gone to ad to some in England, rd the Limerick Race best of terms. This is as e enterprise and public doubtedly deserve all the etings enjoy. Instead of in Limerick had to be tions—the collection of ver-pleasant task—the the responsibility of yment of the people, admirably they have
 : fact that six days' racing n park during the twelve n say that these constitute
 e. It is very gratifying l expanding prosperity any's work, which, while icting big attendances at of the country, is, as the distinct advantage to the festly these fixtures mean oney amongst all classes is, therefore, the interest onise Greenpark to the ossible by their presence s is the motto of the ontinually giving evidence by improvements on the present they are erecting the wishes of owners of as expending a consider-on the picturesque course ar in mind that all this is the substantial dividend the shareholders—a very e their investment, and and efficient administration icals. All are therefore ated on the record of the lie will heartily wish this n greater success in the

An inquest was held last evening on the remains, and formal evidence having been tendered, an adjournment was granted for the attendance of the Inspector of Factories.

P.Y.M.A. LITERARY CLASS.

On Friday night, Mr. B. Bennett (President of the class), occupied the chair, and said he was sorry to say Mr. Gilbert, their lecturer for that evening, had been suddenly taken seriously ill the previous day and was unable to be present. His son, however, had sent on the manuscript of the lecture "Samuel Lover" and the slides to illustrate it. In addition he said they had all the ladies and gentlemen present who had arranged to contribute songs, so he called on Mr. J. E. Galbraith to read the lecture, which was of a high class literary order. The slides shown, numbering about twenty were all the handwork of Samuel Lover, as were also the nine songs contributed, of which the following are the names, together with the vocalists:—"Widow Machree," Mr. E. L. Wickham; "What will you do, Love,?" Miss Dowd and Rev. Precentor Adderley; "Rory O'More," Mr. W. Trousdell; "The Angel's Whisper," Miss Dowd; "The Low Backed Car," Mr. E. Gullen; "Molly Bawn," Rev. Precentor Adderley, M.A.; "I'm not myself at all," Mr. R. Gullen; "The Fairy Tempter," Miss Dowd; and "The Land of Dreams," Miss Alexander. The rendering of the songs was much applauded by the audience. Mr. F. Muspratt accompanied at the piano, and the lantern was worked by Mr. B. Barrington. A vote of thanks to the ladies and gentlemen responsible for the success of the evening brought the meeting to a close.

THE LATE INSPECTOR GILLIGAN.

A testimonial has been opened for the family of the late John Gilligan, Inspector of Night-Watchmen. Owing to his long and severe illness his wife and five children were left wholly unprovided for, and subscriptions will be thankfully received by any of the following for this deserving case—T. Ryan (Mayor), Wm. Holliday, J.P. (High Sheriff), James F. Barry, J.P. (Coroner), James Flynn (Cruise's Hotel), P. J. O'Sullivan, solicitor, Thade O'Connor, D. Griffin, J. Crowe, A. Donovan, James O'Connor, hon. secretary, 11, Athlunkard-street. Subscriptions will be acknowledged in the Press.

KILMALLOCK RACES

The Committee of the above fixture are to be congratulated on the energy they are displaying in reviving after a lapse of some years this meeting which will be held on March 21st.

Littlehampton, was found dead on the Rustington, near Littlehampton. The he severed from the body.

ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL.

1st March, Ash-Wednesday:—Matin Litany, 11.30 o'clock; Chants, Proper Psa Turle, D minor; Service, Benedictus, D F; Hymns, 139 and 165; Litany (Tallis) mination Service.

CASTLECONNELL WOMAN'S TEND.

The body of an old woman named Mrs. who resided on the "bog road," Castle was found in a ditch at the side of th a short distance from her home on morning. From particulars to hand it appear that on Saturday morning deca Castleconnell by train for Limerick, and transacted her business returned on the leaving the city. Instead of going on to connell, which was the station she had for, she alighted by mistake at Lisnag proceeded on foot homewards. The n very dark, and it is surmised that she lost her way, with the result that she fe ditch which was half full of water. C her infirmity she was unable to extricat from the ooze, and died from the cold posture. A young man passing the way on morning observed the body, and at on municated with the police. The doctor sent for, but on arrival he pronounced life The body was subsequently removed to de home. An inquest was not deemed neces

AT THE RINK.

The Great Monohan gave his last per on Saturday night before a crowded audier also judged the two-step competition, lucky winners of the two gold medals w Adams and Master J. Adams. Last very enjoyable dance took place, and number of couples thoroughly appreci magnificent floor. Another dance is a for St. Patrick's Eve, 16th March. a Rink Cup Hockey Match will tak bully off 9.15 p.m. The Rink will on Ash-Wednesday. On Thursday novelty is in store, namely, Comio Hocke Harema v. Hobbles. This is also Lucky Night.