

number, Milltown Park	2	0	0
Islandmore, Croom	2	2	0
...	3	0	0
...	2	2	0

need to receive and acknowledge ans.

S DAY AT THE RINK

At the Rink was an eventful be remembered by rinkers for ring at the morning session a atch was held between Harem skirts. In the afternoon before a splendidly contested Lady's ork Ladies v. Limerick Ladies was the best ladies match played d the Limerick ladies were re goals to two goals. Then ia's skating which was a rare to visitors. At 5 o'clock match, Cork County v. Lime-County winning by three goals evening session a fancy carnival ame off, before a full house. The ried, interesting, and amusing. the successful winners. Best dise O'Sullivan, No. 69; most M. Hartigan, No. 152; prettiest Daly, No. 172; best advertise-Mr. J. Bailey, No. 80; handntleman, Mr. L. Hodgkinson, No ostume, Mr Clifford-Smith, No 163; ntleman, Mr. Henry Hodgkinson, l costume, Miss Hayes, No. 34. lay race for half a mile, between rk Terrace, and Limerick, took s most interesting and fast. the winners easily, for which ha presented the prize on Satur-t 9.30 another inter-town hockey e, between Cork South Terrace his was the best match of the race team won by six goals to ry Martha also gave another afternoon at 4.30, a School match will take place at the vlay night, March 25th, the final ockey Challenge Cup will be ril 1st the Ulster hockey team, play at Limerick Rink, in the at Limerick, and in the evening er team.

SH TOWN COURT.

OUR CORRESPONDENT.)
alty, J.P., presided at the Kilrush terday.
TING THE SHAMROCK." named Kate Kelly was prosecuted eutenant Blennerhassett for being th March on the public streets of er conduct was most disgraceful said the sergeant, "and it is not any means."
te (to the accused)—What have is? erra, agra, I was only wetting the hat was not much. (Laughter.) e—I think it is better to send her ight to jail.
a and costs.

DEATH OF MR. M. R. LEGEAR.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Michael R. Leger, of Newborough, Adare, which took place at his residence yesterday morning at the age of 73 years. The sad event was rather unexpected, and deep sympathy is expressed with the family of the deceased in their sorrow. Mr.
Leger was an extensive farmer and highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends. The funeral will take place at two o'clock to-morrow (Wednesday) for Adare Cemetery.

DEATH OF MR. THOMAS WALSH.

We regret to record this evening the death of Mr Thos. Walsh, which took place at his residence, New street, last night after a short illness. The deceased was for many years managing clerk of Messrs. J.
Blackall and Sons, solicitors, George-street, a position which he discharged to the satisfaction of his employers and to those doing business with the firm. Amongst the legal profession his familiar figure will be missed, as he was one of the oldest members of his calling in the city, and one who was held in the highest esteem and regard.

The funeral will take place from St. Michael's R.C. Church at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

DEATH OF SERJEANT JELLET.

The death is announced of Serjeant Jellett, second Serjeant-at-law, who was called to the Bar in 1847. He was a member of a well-known South of Ireland family, and was brother of the late Provost of Trinity College and the late Dean of St. Patrick's. He was a splendid type of Old Chancery practitioner, courtly, dignified, and imbued with the highest sense of the honour of the profession. He retired from active practice about five years ago.

DEATH OF FATHER McNAMARA, C.C.

General regret is felt throughout Clare at the death of the Rev. Father McNamara, C.C., Coora-clare, which occurred on Saturday after a very brief illness. Father McNamara enjoyed the affection and esteem of all creeds and classes in the various parts of the diocese where he so zealously laboured for a considerable number of years. The funeral took place yesterday after the Requiem Office and High Mass, and the attendance was very large and representative.

DEATH OF MRS. BRIDGET KETT.

Our Kilkee correspondent records with very sincere regret the death of Mrs. Bridget Kett, wife of Mr. Jeremiah Kett, rate collector, and a popular member of the Kilkee Town Board, who passed away, at an early age, on Thursday morning, at her late residence, Brighton House, Kilkee, to the great regret and sorrow of a very wide circle of relatives and friends. This was amply demonstrated by the large and representative attendance at the funeral obsequies on Saturday.
At ten o'clock solemn requiem office and High Mass was celebrated at the parish church, where the remains had lain overnight, and at which the officiating clergy were: Rev. W. Grace, C.C., Kilkee (celebrant); Rev. James Clanoy, C.C., do.
(deacon); Rev. P. Glynn, P.P., Carrigaholt (sub-

b. m. Flittering Janey, aged; b. g. aged; b. g. The Forest, aged; br. g.
br. n. Mrs. Atherton; b. g. Tim, 2 4.30 o'clock—FARMERS' PLATE—5 years; br. b. g. Jim, 4 years; Kil Colmaris Gate, 5 years; Le Neve, 5 b. m. Suffragette, 5 years; b. g. years; g. g. Sea Gull; b. m. Lady Knockroe; b. m. Primrose; bk. g.
6 years; Archi; ch. g. Ballinscurra m. Fan, 6 years; br. g. Tally H Darling.

HOCKEY.

At a Hockey Carnival held Friday in aid of the Cottage Hosp County ladies and Clonmel ladies game. Limerick County played throughout.

LIMERICK HURLING CHAI

At the Markets Field on Sunday (holders) and Young Irelands met the Limerick Hurling Championsh Irelands won by 4 goals and 2 poi and 1 point. Mr. James Riordan

FARMER KILLE

Fatal Fall from a

News reached Nenagh yester accident which occurred to Mr. farmer, of Knockinevin, some mile It appears that Mr. Bourke was Saturday towards the market with when the horse he was driving sl and threw Mr. Bourke heavily to the top of the load, with the sustained such injuries to his hea they terminated fatally on Sund greatest sympathy is felt for deceased and her young family bereavement.

MR PHILLIPS CON

Mr. H. B. Phillips, the enterpri announces his second concert of th Theatre Royal on the 1st proxim enjoyed by Mr. Phillips in th needs no recapitulation at this sta suffice to say that his chief ambitio been to send on tour the most res and instrumentalists. In the fort he has engaged the services o Madame Margaret Cooper, a distinguished musician will be well known artists is Miss Roma tralto; Mr. Peter Dawson, ba Maida Sylva, violinist; while M mont will be at the piano. The at Messrs. Piggott and Co., Georg seats can be booked.

WEEKLY CATTLE S

The Agricultural

On Saturday last, Messrs.