WORKING CONCERT

at George Hotel

Association Football Club celend year of its existence on Tuesday a "smoker" was held in the of the George Hotel. A large nised the function, which was successful and conducted on the most The programme was a lengthy one, being made up of songs, over a very pretty course at Ballykenney, Ballygarry. Rain fell during the earlier part of the day, but did not very much interfere with the attendance or sport, which was, as usual, of a very interesting character. Details in our next.

DEATH OF A CHRISTIAN BROTHER.

The death occurred at the Monastery, Sexton-street, on Tuesday, of Brother J. D. McNally, a respected member of the Christian Brothers.
The deceased was in his seventy-first year, and in the fifty-fifth year of his religious profession. He was a gentleman of considerable culture, and had done much for the youth of the city as a teacher.
The interment took place to-day in Mount St.
Lawrence Cemetery in presence of a large body of mourners, including past and present students of the Christian Brothers' Schools.

INQUEST IN THE CITY.

Yesterday afternoon, Mr. James F. Barry, J.P., City Coroner, held an adjourned inquest at Clare-street, into the death of John Hayes, 54, a vanman, at Messrs. Carmody's bakery, Brunswick-street.
The inquest was opened on Tuesday, but adjourned to yesterday with a view to a post mortem examination being made. About ten or eleven weeks back the deceased sustained a fall which caused a fracture of the wrist and bruised his hip. He was treated by Dr. Wm.
O'Sullivan, and after some time resumed work, at which he continued up to Monday evening, when on returning home he complained of being ill, and died shortly afterwards. Head-Constable Walsh conducted the inquiry, and Mr. T. O'B.
Kelly, solicitor, appeared for the next-of-kin. The evidence of Michael Hayes, son of the deceased, was to the effect that his father complained of being ill, refused his dinner, but had a cup of tea. He got worse, and died before the arrival of the doctor and clergyman who were sent for. The deceased had complained of pain since he received the fall.
Other evidence was given, and the jury decided on having a post mortem examination. This was accordingly made by Doctor O'Sullivan and Doctor Roberts, and at the adjourned inquest yesterday they stated that death was due to sudden cardiac failure, the result of heart disease of some standing. In reply to Mr. Kelly, Dr.
O'Sullivan was unable to say if death had been accelerated by the fall. The jury found in accordance with the medical testimony.

MR. H. B. PHILLIPS' CONCERT.

Phillips' concert to be held in the Theatre Royal next Saturday afternoon at three o'clock. The following distinguished artistes will appear:— Madame Margaret Cooper, and her piano, assisted by Miss Roma Tremaine, contralto; Mr. Peter Dawson, basso; Miss Nadia Sylva, violinist, and Mr. Victor Marmont, pianist. A brilliant programme may be looked forward to, and should be liberally supported by all lovers of the Divine Art. Booking at Messrs. Pigott and Co., Limited, George Street. The party gave a very successful and enjoyable concert in Dublin yesterday.

CLARE STREET WORKINGMEN'S CLUB.

There was a large meeting on Tuesday night in the premises of the Clare street Workingmen's Club to hear an address on matters relating to Society was named as defendant to the Mr. P. J. O'Sullivan, solicitor, appeared for Society, and Mr. J. H. Moran, solicitor, is appellant.

The evidence of Mary Carmody and Mr. F. having been heard, the defendant was examined and promised to reform.

Mr. O'Sullivan said they were informed appellant was a man of excellent character when he took drink.

Mr. Moran—He has now taken the pledge His Honor—It is not a question of taking keeping.

Mr. Moran said he had kept it now for weeks.

His Honor allowed the accused out on emtino nominal bail.

The Court was engaged for the remainder of the sitting hearing undefended civil bills.

COUNTY PETTY SESSIONS.

The magistrates adjudicating at the C.
Petty Sessions to-day were Mr. E. F. Hic-R.M., Mr. John George Kelly, and Mr. St.
B. Quin.

Mary Dwyer, an inmate of the Limerick house, was summoned at the suit of the Guar-for insubordination on the 18th instant.
Master, Mr. E. Dundon, stated that the defewas asked by him to go to work in the school as an attendant, but she refused to do He gave the accused a good character, and defendant was allowed to stand out for months to see how she would act in the interval.

A case in which Mr. Owen Ryan was pl-and Patrick Hynes, defendant, and which inv-damage to the property of the plaintiff personal abuse, was, after a somewhat prolonged hearing, not disposed of, a question of title raised.

Some other cases were heard, and the adjourned.

ORDS AND THE REFERENDUM

In the House of Lords last night, The debate on the Reference to the People was resumed.

Lord Cromer said the Referendum was necto stop log-rolling.

The Earl of Droughmore moved the adjournment of the debate.

Lord Balfour of Burleigh agreed to the adjournment of the debate, but hoped the House resume it on a convenient day.

The Revenue Bill.

In the House of Commons,
The Revenue Bill was again under consider-Mr. Hobhouse moved the lengthy new amending the definition of increment values.
The Solicitor-General (Sir J. A. Simon) asked for an explanation, said that unde-present law the owner of a freehold was only to call in aid in arriving at the site va-transaction which took place within twenty before April, 1909. By this amendment, ever, the Government proposed to allow who acquired a freehold more than 20 yea-to get a site value put upon the regist-reference to that transaction.

After discussion the clause was read a stime and added to the Bill.
