

of St. Ita's House Choral Society their annual pantomime on Easter at the Theatre Royal, and it will be throughout the week. A dress rehearsal of a large company, conclusion everybody was at the way in which the The familiar nursery story is tuned, admirably dressed and a bright music. The caste is an and in fitting the characters Mr. has achieved an undoubted feeling it is safe to predict a lance at the Royal next week, a handsome addition to the the House. Mr. Bernard in the nductor has, in "The Babes of the n much initiative, and when the before the public next week for a ve no hesitation in saying that it ly popular one. The story of the with the exception of a few minor is the same as that which we associate with nursery days. It opens ry of the Baron's castle, where the ing put to bed by the nurse, it being they are greatly excited as to whether will visit them or not. However, re not disappointed, for Santa Claus reance with his new motor sledge; given the longed-for presents, places the care of the fairy, Goodwill, and the next scene introduces us to Rob the two bold bad sons of the Widow ose cottage we next visit in company ; Towser, and Bam and Bob, two he local "Force." In this scene the ges with Rob and Plunder for the e Babes, after which we quickly pro-Village fair where we meet all the racters and settle down to fun and ends Part I. The second part opens d to the forest where the villains, t, leave the Babes to perish. Here the robin covering the children with with the Fairies, Rabbits and Frogs revel. As dawn approaches the e" vanish, and Towser leads Robin-re the Babes are lying. We next see the forest, and then we are brought Hall at the Castle, where the adven-Babes in the Wood close with their , this final scene being replete with lancy.

PROTESTANT ORPHAN SOCIETY.

At the monthly meeting of the Society, the Luther, M.A., being in the chair, a of sympathy was passed with the chair-sad death of his brother. The death of orphans was reported. The secretary receipt of a special donation of £70 and" to the orphans. Mrs. Pypser with the committee for their kindness ne expenses of her son to America. The approved of one of the girls being sent del Steam Laundry. The quarterly n the different locations were read and very satisfactory. The secretary stated received notice of the sale of an estate ie Society held a Tithe Rent Charge. was left in the hands of the Society's The arrangements for the Bazaar are satisfactory. The dates fixed are 17th and 28th.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN McINERNEY, J.P.

We regret very much to have to record the death of Mr. John McInerney, J.P., Chairman of the Limerick Board of Guardians for the past quarter of a century and more, and also Chairman until quite recently of Limerick No. 2 (Clare) District Council. Mr. McInerney was not too well for some considerable time past. He improved in health now and again, but never of a robust constitution, he was generally more or less on the invalid list. Lately his illness took an acute form, and the anxiety of his relatives caused him to seek special medical advice in Dublin, where he died yesterday. The intelligence of his death was received in Limerick and Clare circles with genuine regret. All through life he was an active and prominent Nationalist, pluckily taking his share in the struggle, and, it may be added, the dangers of the Land League agitation.
 He held strong views on the land question, and was tried and convicted under the Crimes Act, receiving a sentence of imprisonment which he took as things went, and without modifying his political views. In private life he was a general favourite, and his many friends included members of all classes of the community. He was elected Chairman of the Limerick Board of Guardians a quarter of a century or more since, and by virtue of his office as Chairman of the District Council, Mr. McInerney was a magistrate of the County of Clare. Latterly he favoured the policy of Mr. William O'Brien in politics, but as said Mr. McInerney was always tolerant to those who differed from him on the views he held with regard to public events in Ireland. The remains will arrive by train from Dublin at 7.15 to-night and remain overnight at St. Michael's Roman Catholic Church, whence the funeral will start at 1 o'clock p.m. to-morrow for the family burying place at Crohane, near Cratloe.
 The Mayor has issued circulars inviting the members of the Corporation to be present at the funeral.

DEATH OF MRS. D. KIELY.

We regret to record the death, which occurred on Tuesday at Drumcondra Hospital, of Mrs.
 Gertrude Kiely, wife of Mr. David E. Kiely, Merchants Quay. The deceased lady had been in indifferent health for some time past and about a fortnight ago went to Dublin for special treatment. Her demise in the prime of life is deeply regretted by a wide circle of friends to whom she had endeared herself by her kindly and genial manner, and deep sympathy is expressed with her husband and relatives in their sorrow.

The Board of Guardians, of which Mr. Kiely is an esteemed member, passed a vote of condolence with him at yesterday's meeting.

The remains arrived in Limerick on Tuesday night and were conveyed to St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church. The funeral took place yesterday for Donoughmore, and was extremely large and representative.

The chief mourners were—Messrs D. Kiely (husband), John, Bertie, and Thomas Byrne, and Bryan Crowe (nephews), T. Crowe (brother-in-law), Frank Kiely, T. Lynch, Pallaskerry, J. Hurley, Ballinacurra, and T. Hurley, Carrigmartin (relatives).

The clergy present were—Rev. D. R.
 Shanahan, P.P., St. Mary's; Rev. Fr. Rea, C.C., do.; Rev. Fr. O'Gorman, C.C., do.; Rev. A.
 Murphy, P.P., St. Munchin's; and Rev. J.
 O'Connell, Adm. St. Michael's.

was an original and impressive appreacher, and if God had seen fit to life he had a useful, and probably a dis-career before him. The chief marks were his cheerfulness, kindness and devotion to duty. He never anything to interfere with had undertaken to do. He was greatly in the Royal National Lifeboat During his short residence at Ballycotton house and slip were practically rebuilt secretary he took the greatest pains a-in keeping the accounts and in en-number of subscribers. He was a war-of the temperance movement, especi-work amongst the young, and both la-this year used cycle to a place five mile order to prepare a child for the Synod in temperance subjects. The Lord Bi-Diocese had the highest opinions of earnestness, and ability.

On Sunday morning the Dean officiated in Ballycotton Church, and p-the words "Sorrowing most of all for which He spoke, that they should see more," alluded in sympathetic ter-intimate and brotherly friendship wh-between him and his late colleague, a high irreparable loss to himself person parishioners of the Union of Cloyne, congregation worshipping in Ballycotton caused by the death of Mr. Goggin. rations were deeply affected, and co-realise that no more would they have loved clergyman amongst them.

In the Roman Catholic Church, the Rea, C.C., spoke kindly and sympathaffections for Mr. Goggin and of the their community had sustained by his

The greatest sympathy is felt in the hood, amongst all creeds and classes.
 Goggin in her sad bereavement, and were offered that God would guard her and her little daughter.

COUNTY PETTY SESS

The Magistrates presiding at the Sessions to-day were—Mr. E. F. Hic-Mr. J. O'Grady Delmege, D.L., Mr.
 Mr. S. B. Quin, and Mr. Bryan O'Do-NO LIGHTS.

Edward Hickey and Michael Dow were summoned by Sergeant Wilson bicycles at Ballinacurra without havi-Nominal fines were imposed.

EXCESSIVE MOTOR SPEED Mr. Edward J. Bannatyne was su-driving a motor car at at a speed dangerous to the pub-having failed to produce his licence demanded.

District Inspector White prosec-J. Dodda, solicitor, defended.

Sergeant Wilson said the defend-man were in the car, which came fi-towards Punch's Cross, about five returned shortly afterwards, going rate of speed, which, in witness's op-miles an hour. On the return jour-stopped the car, and the defendangoing at the rate of 24 miles an hour.

In answer to Mr. Dodd,
 The witness said the road was clear It was straight, and witness had a v-for about 60 to 100 yards. He could the rate of speed he had given to correct, but it was as near as he couhe stopped the car the driver pulled Defendant was examined, and