on Sunday, the exodus for the day being even larger as there were special excursions, largely availed of, to Waterford, Kilkee, Foynes, and other places. The Queenstown contingent included the members of the Confraternity and their friends and they numbered some 300 people, the Castleisland train bringing quite as many. The local branch of the Ancient Order of Foresters had a river trip on the "Flying Huntsman" to Cappa, proceeding thence by rail to Kilkee where a most enjoyable day was spent by the party, the membeors and their friends. The day was admirably suited for an outing, being fine with a return to summer after the cold weather of the previous week.

DEATH OF MR. E. REDDING.

Many friends in the city and county have learned with very sincere regret of the death of Mr. Edward Redding, which took place at his residence, New-street, on Saturday night, after a very brief illness. Deceased who was an ex-sergeant of the R.I.C., served many years in Thomondgate, and at Stonehall and Clarina, from which latter place he retired from the force some eleven years ago. For a considerable time past he occupied the post of bank porter at the Provincial Bank. He was a man who through life displayed a most obliging and courteous manner, and his sad demise is mourned by all who knew him, and who sympathise with his wife and family in their grief. The funeral, which took place from the New-street for St. Munchin's this morning, was large and representative. The chief mourners were—Messrs. George, Edward, and John Redding (sons), T. Price and J. Price (cousins). The clergy present were—Chancellor Hackett, Rev. G. L. Swain, and Rev. W. R. Keillor. Amongst the general public were—W. Thompson, F. Copeland, J. Hutchinson, J. McCutcheon, T. Foley, E. Bell, J. Ward, J. Young, R. Despard, F. Despard, J. R. Lynch, J. Casey, W. Reeves, G. Ferguson, Mr. McCormack, Mr. Langrill (Clarina), G. Preston, R. Harris, A. H. Baldwin, G. C. Baldwin, T. Carroll, J. Kingleton, W. Carroll, W. Feeney, W. Munnell, J. E. Galbraith, Jas. Halvey, J. Kavanagh, M. O'Brien, K. O'Brien, T. J. and G. Reid, R. Neazor, Wm. Ormston, H. Anderson, Walter Reid, G. Ruttle, J. Switzer, E. McCann, P. Hayes, C. Mercier, J. Neiland, R. Lindsay, C. Whelan, P. Punch, C. Johnston, J. Hollowell, M. Fennessy, Daniel Quinlivan, Patrick Quinlivan, Michael Quinlivan, Joseph Quinlivan, and a large body of police.

Wreaths were sent from the widow and family of the deceased, and cousins (Messrs. Price), the staffs of the Provincial Bank, and Messrs. Russell, F. Copeland, etc.

Chancellor Hackett and Rev. G. L. Swain officiated.
