

Cork, Monday.

the Council Chamber, City presence of delegates from various ned by the Lord Mayor for the nto consideration the National as resumed. The first sitting week since. The Lord Mayor ere was a good attendance of Solicitor to the Cork Harbour id his Board had discussed the had decided to approve gener- Members were, however, of the were a number of points in the y amended. They considered were too high. The Harbour those schemes working for the l they had given better benefits ined under the Bill, and, what less than one-third what under the Bill. It was from w that they discussed the Bill. t that something ought to be ll to keep the Irish part e English portion so that it for Ireland itself; but if the nepence continued in the Bill ather big surplus on the country. secure that any surplus after s should go towards increased ople of the country. As regards ey only dealt with that as it Board. They thought that the oyment in their country was it was in England, and as the seemed as if they were being a deficit on the other side. rington said that he was more ver that the measure was being ed upon the country. He took n favour of the principle of the ight that they ought to confer s of Parliament and draft such t would bring such ideas uld suggest that Mr. Ronan, Harbour Board, Mr. Galvin, Corporation, and Mr. Callinan, ounty Council, should confer embers in London on the whole subject.

n followed, and eventually, on Dennehy, Hon. Secretary Cork he Conference approved of the Bill to Ireland.

then proceeded to discuss the Irish Party propose should Bill. These, with a few ex- pted. to ask that domestic servants l from the Bill.

on Clause 8.

of Commons yesterday, in he National Insurance Bill, sumed upon Clause 8, which conferred upon insured persons. derson moved an amendment to ie effect that payment in respect lisablement should commence of the commencement of dis- from the date of the giving of ge sympathised with the object it, but hoped the Committee he period which should elapse ame. He suggested that the accept the amendment now ld reject a subsequent amend- ed to make the benefit date Southdown, 3. Also ran—Ballycell, Green Kite, Salulaire, Dazzle. Betting—Evens on Punctual, 6 to 1 agst Hippolyte, 9 to 2 Southdown.

Aughengraive Two-Year-Old Plate—Beatrice Maud, 1; Muria, 2; Slash, 3. Betting—10 to 1 agst winner.

LAWN TENNIS.

Nenagh Club v. Royal Engineers.

This match was played on Saturday on the Club Grounds, and resulted in a win for Nenagh by six matches to three. Details:—

J. H. Dudley and Rev. A. S. Rice beat Captains Moore and Portway—6-4, 6-2; Captains Lloyd, Jones, and Dobbs—6-2, 6-1; Edworth and Pain—6-0, 6-0.

E. H. Waller and V. Allman Smith beat Captains Lyons, Jones and Dobbs—6-2 6-3; lost to Captains Moore and Portway—4-6, 6-4, 6-3; beat Edworth and Pain—6-3 6-3.

Captain T. Bigge-Atkinson and D. C. O'Brien beat Edworth and Pain—6-1, 6-2; lost to Captains Lloyd, Jones, and Dobbs—1-16, 0-6; lost to Captains Moore and Portway—3-6, 0-6.

NEW WELSH BARONET.

London, Monday.—The Press Association is officially informed that the King has been pleased to confer a Baronetcy of the United Kingdom upon Mr. Charles Garden Asheton Smith, of Vaynol Park, Bangor.

DEATH OF MRS LAVERTINE.

We regret to record the demise of a highly esteemed lady, Mrs. Frances Dwyer Lavertine, wife of Mr. John Lavertine, which took place yesterday at her residence, Castleconnell, after an illness of some duration. Deep sympathy is expressed with her bereaved husband and family in their sorrow. The funeral takes place from Limerick Railway Station on arrival of train from Castleconnell at 1.17 on Thursday, for Mount St. Lawrence.

DEATHS FROM HEAT IN ROSCOMMON

A Roscommon Press Association telegram states two lads, named Garrick, aged nine, and ten years respectively, have died suddenly in the village of Cloneraffe, it is presumed, from excessive heat. They had been working in a bog under the sun. At Fluerty a labourer dropped dead from the heat.

47 HOUSES DESTROYED BY FIRE.

£17,000 Damage.

Amsterdam, Monday.—A fire broke out last night in the village of Brakel, near Gorinchem. Forty-seven houses were destroyed, and the loss is estimated at about £16,700. Nobody was hurt.

KING AND QUEEN IN EDINBURGH.

The King, the Queen, the Prince of Wales, and Princess Mary arrived in Edinburgh last created Commander of the Victoria Order

BISLEY SHOOTING COMPETITION

In the shoot this morning for the Bronze Medal between Sergeant Noel London, and Rifleman Venables, 21st Nockles won by a point. The Daily tie shoot resulted in a victory for Private 5th Royal Scots, who takes the cup. best aggregates in the Stock Exchange are to Lance-Corporal Gray (5th Royal Sergeant-Major Wallingford (School of M Corporal Fitchie (London Scots), and Ritchie (Cam. U.).

The firing in the first stage of the King hundred yards, which on this occasion opening range, produced many surprising boisterous and variable wind playing the scores. Colonel Sandeman, G Hussars, reached 34 with his seven Sergeant Ommansen, Queen's Edinburgh winner of the Gold Medal, finished for Lance-Corporal Clark, 5th Lincoln, Queen Gold Medalist, had a range total of 18.

ALCAZAR INCIDENT.

French Consular Agent Taken to Barracks.

Paris, Monday.—An Alcazar telegram states M. Boisset, French Consular Agent, who on Saturday, was ordered by a Spanish guard to surrender his carbine. He refused the guard levelling their rifles at him taken to barracks, but later was released by Spanish officer declaring a mistake had made.

Paris, Tuesday.—At a Council of to-day the Foreign Minister stated expectations have been asked for from the Spanish Government with regard to the Alcazar incident.

FARID BEY RELEASED.

Cairo, Tuesday.—Farid Bey, the National leader, was released from prison to-day.

DEATH OF SIR GEORGE JENKINS

Colombo, Tuesday.—The death occurred of Sir George Jenkins, until recently Clerk of the Parliaments of Victoria.

OVERSEA DELEGATES.

Message from the King At a farewell luncheon to the overseas elementary delegates at Hampton Court a message was read from the King expressing